CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

Bellamy Renominated and Dowd Nominated for Elector, Both by Acclamation.

Probably the last Congressional Convention that will ever be held in this district was held in Wilmington Saturday. Two years from now the different candidates for this distinction will come directly before the people and the successful candidate will receive his nomination by a majority vote at their hands. That gives every man a fair show and no chance for grumbling. The convention has had its day in court. It has served well enough the conditions surrounding it. It must give way to the new order of things. The primary, which brings every matter right home to the people, is a part of the new liberty and independence promised the people under the amendment and the promise will be faithfully kept.

And yet we regret to see the old convention pass away, as it must. It was always a pleasant gathering of the men of the district who had sufficient interest in public affairs to attend, often at a sacrifice. We could always be pleased when it went our way, and it furnished a convenient subject of criticism when it didn't. But as before remarked, the last one was held in Wilmington Saturday. The attendance was not very large, but surprisingly large considering that there was no contest over the nomination for Congressman or Presidential Elector.

Mr. Bellamy was given a second nomination for Congress by acclamation. This was an honor to which his diligent and effective canvass two years ago, and his faithful services since election, clearly entitled him. He made such a fight two years ago as has seldom been made in any district, and has had to work almost as hard since to prevent his being robbed of the great victory won.

His brief speech of acceptance of the honor was well worthy a member of that distinguished body. It was as clear as a bell in its arraignment of McKinley's policy of imperialism. "The whole drift at the national capital is toward empire," he declared. "It is scarcely concealed by many prominent Republicans. Some of them will frankly confess to you that they want a strong government—one that is capable of protecting the wealth of the country. They frankly confess to you a fear that the old republic of our fathers can not do this."

Three things are necessary to the conversion of our republic into an empire. The hour, the man and the force. We have the force, the man is here, but thank God, the hour has not arrived."

Mr. Bellamy will plead for the old republic in every county in the district. Mr. W. C. Dowd, of Charlotte, was nominated by acclamation for Presidential Elector. This honor was well bestowed. Mr. Dowd, in addition to being an effective campaigner, is a true Democrat—a platform Democrat. He has been a member of the two conventions which have nominated Mr. Bryan; he is an enthusiastic Bryan man, and can appeal to the people in all sincerity to support him.

Mr. Dowd made a splendid speech of acceptance, and after touching on the other important issues of campaign declared that the negro was bound to be an issue against a President who would insult the people of a great city like Wilmington by appointing a negro collector of customs for their city—the chief port of entry in the State.

The following platform was adopted by the convention without a dissenting voice: "We congratulate the Democracy of North Carolina on its recent splendid victory in ratifying the constitutional amendment and in electing its entire state ticket by a majority far exceeding any in the past."

We extend our thanks to those patriotic Populists and White Republicans who sided us in winning the great victory. We believe that the political independence of the white man in North Carolina can be realized by the submission of all political differences to a white primary system, and we urge the Democratic executive committee of the State and the members of the next General Assembly to have the plank in the State platform declaring for a legalized primary enacted into a law.

We denounce the plank in the national Republican platform condemning as revolutionary the constitutional amendments etc., in the South which are aiming at eliminating the negro from politics.

We approve the course of our distinguished Congressman Hon. John D. Bellamy, and we condense the contest of his opponent for his seat in the House of Representatives as wholly unwarranted in law and morals.

We approve the national Democratic platform recently adopted at Kansas City and congratulate the Democracy of the district that our standard-bearers are those tried and matchless leaders Hon. William Jennings Bryan for President and Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson for Vice President."

Mr. Geo. Warburton made one of the best speeches of the convention in seconding the nomination of Mr. Bellamy. The delegates attended from Rockingham were: Messrs. Geo. Warburton, J. W. LeGrand, P. C. Whitlock and A. J. Maxwell. Mr. Warburton was made chairman of the delegation. Mr. Whitlock was made a member of the executive committee.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea" says J. H. Doak, of Williams, Oregon. I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by S. Biggs.

"Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took turning off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach," says O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind. "His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonfull of water and he got better at once." Sold by S. Biggs.

RELIEVED WOMEN WINE OF CARDUI has brought permanent relief to a million suffering women who were on their way to premature graves. Mrs. Mitchell was fast declining in health, when Wine of Cardui performed a "wonderful cure" in her case. She suffered with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. "The weekly appearance of the menses for two months stopped her vitality until she was a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence."

WINE OF CARDUI is within the reach of all. Women who try it are relieved. Ask your druggist for a 21 bottle of Wine of Cardui, and do not take a substitute if tendered you.

Mrs. Willie Mitchell, South Gaston, N. C.: "Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Blood-Preparations have performed a miraculous cure in my case. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Blood-Preparations, and now the leucorrhoea has disappeared, and I am restored to perfect health."
