SCHOOL BOOKS

the right note this week when it advocates cheaper school books, or, rather, school books at a smaller price, and uniform State system of each county selecting for itself the books to be used in public schools. It a fact that the same books used in our public schools are sold by the same companies in other States at a little more than half what they charge us in Noth Carolina, while under the system of county adoption a to another may carry a full set of books with them and find when they get there that an entirely different set is required.

This is one of the perplexing problems that the Legislature will have to deal with. The late Mr. H. C. Wall, our representative in the last Legis. providing for uniform State it wise to leave this perplexing question alone till the absorbing measure which engaged their attention was finally ruffed. But there can be no excuse for longer delay in the matter. The present bungling arrangement is a severe tax upon the poor people who are sending their children to school.

The Legislature should create a Board removed as far as possible from the influence of paid philauthropists, with instructions to advertise for bids from the book companies on books to be adopted for the whole State for along term of years and theu select a set of books with due regard to the quality and to the price.

The settlement of the cotton mill strike in Alamance county by the strikers returning quietly to their work after being out of work for some time and suffering a good many hardships, points the lesson that the time for the labor union in cotton mills has not yet arrived in North Carolina. In the north, where mill labor is treated with less regard than the machinery which they operate, the labor uvion is a necessity, but the situation in many sections of North Carolina, are vastly different. Here the friendly Kingley. feeling of the employers to the employes is shown in many ways-in schools for their children, ir assistance in distress pathy between them in all things. Whenever these conditions obtain, we believe the be best served by giving a wide raise t-ouble for their competitors. We hope the day is far distant in North Carolina when it will become neccessary for the mill operatives to regards their employers as their enemies and when it will be neccessary for them to organize for hostilittes believe they can any grievance they may have

Gattis-Kilgo.

This famous trial now going on at Oxford, N. C., is a civil suit hetween two Methodist ministers, one of them being president of Trinity College, in which one hundread thousand dollars damage this Exposition will set a new pattern is asked by Gattis for alleged slander by Kilgo. This trial is the outcome of that other famous trial The Pubical Recorder strikes before the Trustees of Trinity College, in which it was charged by Justice Walter Clark, one of the directors, that Mr. Kirgo's reputation in South Carolina was a wireadoption instead of the present puller and a trickster. The decision before that Board was a verdict in favor of Dr. Kilgo. The plantiff in this suit was a principal witness in the former trial Dr. Kilgo threw himself into the observed at former expositions. In horticulture and floral beauty this Exposition will stand peerless and alone. In several other points it will surpass anything the world has

> Let me first speak of the court settings. By this is meant a symmetrical with reference to one another so as to form a system of connecting courts each with its special features yet each a part of one great, beautiful picture. The principal courts are the Court of Fountains and Plaza, which form a north and south perpendicular and connect with a transverse court called the Esplanade. Two minor courts open into the Esplanade, known as the Court of Cypresses and Court of Lilies. These courts, about 33 acres in area, with the magnificent decorations which will complete their beauty, will give to the eye a vista of exceptional grandeur In sculptural and plastic decorations for nations to contemplate and adore. The exterior of every building will present a richness of design and delicacy of detail unparalleled in the history of expositions. Majestic statues and costly modeled groups, lacking only life to complete the ideality of their purpose, will guard entrances and bridges or send down their blessings upon the enterprise from lofty domes

Such elaborate color decoration upon the exteriors of a great group of buildings is a distinct departure from the custom prismatic brilliance of the gardens and the rich tints of the buildings will be conception and of supreme beauty. In all the courts will be large pools rippling and sparkling under the fantastic activity of numberless fountains. Many of these fountains are to be elaborate sculptured works, with jets of water playing from hundreds of openings. With all its wonderful beauty by day the Exposition will be, like the cereus of tropical America, a flower of the night. Then will it blossom in exquisite printed and circulated by the perfection. With all the fountains playing amid floating lights upon every golden, rippling pool; with the great cascade shooting in veillike form from its high niche in the tall electric tower; with more than 200,000 electric lights fringing every building and giving to every jet and ripple of water a fantastic iridescence; with music lending the charm of sweet sounds to the harmony of color and sculpture, flowers, foliage this Exposition will be such as no lover of the beautiful will permit to pass

Surrounding the main group of buildings and bordered with a double row and the case is now being argued to and stately canal more than a mile in length. At certain points this canal forms a part of the court vistas, but the State is employed on both has more to do with the rich embellishment of that portion of the grounds outside the main buildings. Lagoons that lose themselves amid lawns and gardens tap the main waterway at various intervals, and at the southern side of the Esplanade it broadens into lakes where there have been planted a wonderful variety of water plants to In that part of the great Exposition plot known as Delaware Park is a lake ed banks that will contribute much to the beauty of the Exposition. So much for the uncommon beauty of this great enterprise. Now of the more practical side. The exhibits to be contained in the buildings will include nearly everything of commercial value or industrial utility. The divisions, each of them a considerable exhibition in itself, are as follows: Elecrepublicans and 3 populists; house tricity and electrical appliances; fine 101 democrats, 17 republicans and arts-painting, sculpture, decoration; graphic arts-typography, lithography, steel and copperplate printing, photoing and bookbinding; liberal arts-education, engineering, public works, constructive architecture, hygiene and sanitation, music and the drama; ethnology, archæology, progress of labor and invention, isolated and collective exhibits; agriculture, food and its acces-Moses, Paul and John had their sories, agricultural machinery and appliances; horticulture, viticulture, floriculture; live stock-horses, cattle, sheep, swine, pet stock: forestry and forest products, fish, fisheries, fish products and apparatus for fishing: mines and metallurgy, machinery, manufactures, transportation exhibits, rallways, vessels, vehicles, ordnance; exhibits from the Hawaiian Islands, Porto Rico. To describe properly a single one of streets and boulevards are paved with it is certainly gratifying to the asphalt and are as smooth as a floor. Buffalo is truly the cleanest and finest city in the United States, or at least, the finest I have ever visited. The Public Library of Buffalo is very fine. It contains 120,000 books, besides the Reference Library, which contains 50,-000 books. Buffalo has 187 churches, as follows: Roman Catholic, 39; Methodist. 27; Baptist. 17 and 3 raissions; Presbyterians, 16; Lutheran, 11; Evangelical, 5; Evangelical Reformed, 6; German Evangelical, 12; Jewish, 3; Congregational, 7; Universalist, 2; Unitarian, 2; United Brethren, 1; Disciples, 4; Floating Missions, 1; Canal Street Missions, 2; Adventist, 1; Spiritualist,

The work on the buildings at the Pan-American grounds is progressing very fast and beyond grastion will be completed in ample time for the Exposition. The great Niagara Falls are within 21 miles of the city-only a few minutes' ride from the business centerand the Exposition grounds, and one can have a choice of either steam or electric cars for conveyance to the great cataracts. These attractions will naturally bring to Buffalo during the Exposition vast throngs of people, and we will be very fortunate indeed to have an opportunity to display our products and resources here during that time. We cannot afford to let this opportunity slip by. It is said that the North Carolina exhibit is the second best exhibit of any state at the Paris Exposition but we can improve on that even.

THE STATE'S INDUSTRIES.

A Wonderful Growth Along Many Lines In Twenty Years.

The manufacturing industries of North Carolina until 1880 were limited, but since that time the spindles and looms for the manufacture of cotton and woolen fabrics have been largely increased, tobacco factories have been from whatever point they may be seen. established and enlarged and the culture of sikworms has occasioned the establishment of a silkmaking in-

In 1896 the number of cotton mills in the state was 167, looms 25,000 and spindles approximately 1,000,000. Over 15,000 persons were employed in these mills, and the capital invested was over $15,000,000. There was a noteworthy advance during 1899 in cotton manufacturing. New plants put into operation numbered 28 and new spindles 230,168, with an estimated

The tobacco industry has greatly vie with the brilliant gardens in its prospered in recent years. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1899, there were 20 manufacturers of tobacco, 38 of cigars, and the combined output in the calendar year 1898 was 8,482,148 cigars, 20,940,896 pounds of plug tobacco, 12,044 pounds of fine cut, 9,239,-870 pounds of smoking and 48,552 pounds of snuff. The tobacco factories in 1898 gave employment to 16,900 men, 9,700 women and 5,000 children.

The increase in the lumber product of 1899 over that of 1898 was estimated at 30 per cent. Eighteen new lumber companies were organized last year, with a total capital of $562,000. Nine furniture factories, with a total capital of $100,000, were also added. In 1897-the output of 323 lumber mills aggregated $4,558,280 for the year.

The fisheries of North Carolina are an important industry. In 1895 -the number of men regularly employed in this industry approximated 6,000 and the boats and vessels about 2,500. The value of the products is nearly equally divided between sea_and river products. The shad and herring fisheries are the most important of any state, and the greater portion of the catch is made in and about the Albemarle sound. Oysters are abundant, the area of the public grounds exceeding 20,000 acres and the natural beds nearly 5,000 acres. Legislative protection has been thrown around the oyster and fishery interests, and the laws are rigidly enforced. The Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo next year will offer to the people of this state an opportunity for showing their resources that will prove of greater value than any exposition has ever before presented. The state is now better than ever prepared to make a great showing, and the wonderful resources of the state can be presented to millions of people who are near to us and more likely to become one of us if properly impressed with the advantages we offer, who could not have been reached through any other exposition.

Genuine Courtesy. The car was crowded; therefore quite number of passengers suspended themselves from the straps and swayed with every motion of the car. A young man in the garb of a mechanic clung to a strap with one hand, while the other hand clung to a dinner pail. He was standing in front of a woman who was richly dressed and seemingly blessed with an abundance of this world's goods.

As the car swung round a corner the strap to which the young man clung parted with a snap, and the young man was precipitated into the lap of the woman. As soon as he could recover his standing position he raised his hat and apologized by saying:

"Pardon me, madam. I am sorry to disturb you, but really this is the first time the street car company ever conferred a favor on me."

The Gems of North Carolina. There are found in North Carolina more than 150 species of gems, including the rich "hiddenite," or lithia emerald, which is not known to occur elsewhere. There were 23 corundum mines in operation in 1899, and the price of corundum has risen from 4 to 20 cents a pound. There should be a well arranged exhibit of North Carelina gems at the Pan-American Exition at Buffalo next year.
