"Yes and who make life worth the trouble."

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little R. H. H. Black the well known village blacksmith at Grahamville Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old has always been subject to croup, and so had have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by S. Biggs."

ELI COLE FATALLY INJURED

BY AN ACCIDENTAL SHOT THANKSGIVING DAY.

He was Store Keeper and Gauger at Cooper's Still—Is not Expected to Recover.

Mr. S. E. Cole, generally known as Eli Cole, store keeper and gauger at Cooper's distillery, near Hamlet, was shot and probably fatally injured at Cooper's distillery to-day.

The circumstances of the shooting, as we learn them, are as follows: The distiller, Brady, and a negro employed at the still, were walking away from the still, and Brady said to the darky, "Give me leave, and I'll give you leave," and immediately fired his pistol straight up in the air. The negro started to do likewise, but his pistol went off as he was raising it and struck Mr. Cole, who was some distance off, in the small of the back.

Drs. Ledbetter, Steele and Webb were summoned and gave him medical attention, but just before going to press this Friday morning we hear that internal bleeding has set in from the wound, and that he is not expected to live.

His home is in Mineral Springs township.

He was the Republican candidate for Senator in the August election, and has for some time held the position of store keeper and gauger.

A Tramp.

The following composition was written by Stevie Wall for his composition in the Grammar class at Rockingham Academy.

His was the best written in the class and the principal has asked that it be published.

A tramp is a man who is not able to work, or will not, and makes his living by travelling over the country begging.

There are very few of them that walk, they always beat their way on trains from one station to another. Some pretend to be blind, deaf and dumb, or some other complaint. Some are mean but most of them are very good-natured.

When they get any money they always buy something to smoke chew or drink, instead of buying something to eat or wear.

They had rather go naked than work for any clothes.

What sleep they get is in some old barn or house that nobody else would stay in. When given any thing to cut some wood they will take it and then leave without cutting it. They never stop at a city because they know they will be put up if they do. Most tramps enjoy travelling and if offered a good job would not accept it.

Wadesboro Boy Jailed for Stealing a Registered Letter.

Adam Maness, Jr., a boy of 15, arrested at Lilesville last night for the larceny of $50 from the mail sack on Friday night. Young Maness usually carried the mail from the postoffice to the train. On the night in question he knew that a registered letter had been put in the sack, and his way to the depot he cut the strap of the sack and took out the money. Nothing was heard of the matter till Saturday, when the postal clerk on the train reported the registered letter as missing. An investigation followed and it was learned that young Maness was seen with $45 on Saturday. Maness is in jail now and will have his preliminary hearing before a United States commissioner in a few days.

ON THE CHANGE OF SEASONS.

(By Charles L. Greaves)

The reapers now have left the lonely fields, And through the weeds the wind of Autumn sweep, To the fierce blast each tree its leafage yields,

And o'er its faded glory Summer weep's. Now all things seem expectantly to stand Awaiting Winter's stern and icy tread He, bringing murky storm-clouds in his hand, His snowy mantle o'er the world will spread.

Nor will we say that joy has left the earth, And beauty perished with the fragile flowers, For the rough winds are jubilant with mirth, And beauty cheers old Winter's crystal bowers; So let us join the merry season's glee, Sing songs of love and peace, and happily be.

RICHMOND AND SCOTLAND SEPARATE.

The Last Meeting of the Old Board of Commissioners Held Tuesday.

The Board of County Commissioners met in special session Tuesday, it being the last meeting of the present Board representing Richmond and Scotland counties. There were three registers of deed—present as clerks—our present register H. D. Gibson our register-elect, W. S. Thomas and Scotland's register-elect, Mr. Russell.

Our new Board, 'Squire Terry, W. C. Leak and E. D. Whitlock, will hold their first meeting next Monday, and Scotland's new Board will meet on the same day in Laurinburg.

It will probably be some time before Scotland will erect any public buildings, and Richmond's poor house and jail will be used in common between us, each paying in proportion to the inmates.

The first thing to be built by Scotland will probably be a jail, as it will save considerable expense in conveying prisoners. They have a very good hall, Field's hall, suitable for holding court, and this will be used for some time at least, and office rooms will be rented for the county officers.

If there is any money left in our treasury from this year's taxes after paying current expenses to December 1st it will be divided pro rata with Scotland. The bonded and floating debt of the county is to be likewise prorated. The amount of the floating debt is not known. The Scotland County act provides that each county shall appoint a commissioner and the two will ascertain the amount of this indebtedness and pro rate it between the two counties.

Make the Child's Punishment Fit His Offense.
The punishment should be proportioned to the offense and grow out of it as a natural consequence. A child who is lazy in the morning and persistently late for breakfast should be deprived, not of a proper amount of food, but of something he particularly likes and might have had had he been in time, such as sugar on the oatmeal, or syrup on the griddle cakes. If he had been promised that he should go for a drive, or a walk, or some expedition, and is not ready at the time of starting he should be left behind. The bitter disappointment will teach him, as nothing else can do as effectually, the value of punctuality. If he is sent on an errand and does not return promptly he should not be allowed to taste the nice things made with the sugar or eggs he was so long in bringing. If his errand were of some other nature he should be made to stay alone in his own room for as long a time as he has kept his mother, or any one else waiting.

Women suffering from menstrual troubles and weakness, and from irregular or painful menses, ought not to lose hope if doctors cannot help them. Physicians are so busy with other diseases that they do not understand fully the peculiar ailments and the delicate organism of woman. What the sufferer ought to do is to give a fair trial to which is the true cure provided by Nature for all female troubles. It is the formula of a physician of the highest standing, who devoted his whole life to the study of the distinct ailments peculiar to our mothers, wives and daughters. It is made of soothing, healing, strengthening herbs and vegetables, which have been provided by a kindly Nature to cure irregularity in the menses, Leucorrhoea, Falling of the Womb, Nervousness, Headache and Backache. In fairness to herself and to Bradfield's Female Regulator, every suffering woman ought to give it a trial. A large $1 bottle will do a wonderful amount of good. Sold by druggists.
