ASSAULTED AND ROBBED. Chinaman's Skull Crushed in a Fight

With His Assailants. MARIETTA, Ga., Dec. 29. - Quang Sing, a Ohinese laundryman, was probably fatally assaulted and robbed in his laundry late last night and the anthorities of Cobb county have four negroes, two men and two women, in jail, charged with complicity in the crime.

The exact time of the commission of the crime is unknown. The first that was known of the affair was when the Chinaman crawled into the poslroom. two doors from his laundry, with his skull crushed in several places and almost dead. He managed to inform those in the poolroom that his assailant had secured $25, and he then became unconscious.

The laundry is located near the At-lanta, Knoxville and Northern railroad depot, on Mill street, and the scene of the crime showed that the laundryman and his assailants had engaged in a terrific struggle.

The laundry was closed, and Quang had retired when the assault occurred. An entrance was forced into the place, and it is presumed tuat the laundryman was awakened by the noise. In attempt-ing to defend himself and his money he was dealt several blows on the head with some heavy instrument.

MANILA, Jan. 1. -- If President McKinley's New Year's reception proves greater than that of General MacArthur it will not be the fault of the people of Manila. This reception was the first official social function at which the Americans and Filipinos have mingled in a social way. For three hours a stream of vehicles wound through the grounds of the governor general's residence and discharged their callers-offcial and civilian-most of them natives, though there was a sprinkling of foreigners. ing a game of cards in the hotel office, when Densby entered and began abusing him. When Kyle remoustrated he drew his revolver and shot him dead. Densby left the hotel, going to the home of his father-in-law. Two policemen followed, but were held off by Densby. They sent in a call for assistance and Sheriff Kennedy responded with a posse. The house was surrounded and the sheriff called upon Densby to surrender. Densby came out, and with the remark: "Well, we will all go to hell together," opened fire on the sheriff.

Both emptied their pistols. The sheriff was shot near the heart and died in a few minutes. Densby was shot through the chest, and after reloading his revolver, was arrested by the police, but never spoke after being shot, dying Sunday afternoon.

Kyle was from Ludlow, Mass., and had just completed the erection of a new mill here and was to return home Sunday.

RELIGION CAUSES A FIGHT

Bloody Battle, Among Lumber Men. Several Injured.

BANGOR, Me., Jan. 1.-A messenger has srrived at the forks of the Kennebec river with news of a terrible fight in a lumber camp on Chase stream. Canadians and Maine men were involved in the row. 5- 20

Phillip Ouilette quarreled with William Hennessey over religion, Hennessey being a Protestant.

The two men went at each other with their fists and in a few minutes French and Irish Catholics were mixed up with the Protestants. Fists gave way to clubs, and they to handspikes and axes. A teamster named Taylor seized a s, ike and attacked the combatants. It is said Taylor is responsible for the fractured skull of Thomas Landry, a French Canadian, who will die; the broken arm of Narcisse Ouillette and the fracture of two ribs of Emil Langlois.

Peter Gagnon, a gigantic Frenchman, arrived in sime to prevent outright murder and put a stop to the battle.

In addition to the injured named above Pierre Dubois, Eddie St. Clair, Horace Wyman, William Whipple, Joseph Dutelee and several others are badly hurt.

The conversation that led to the fight started on what Hennessey called "Frenchman's Christmas," which is known, among lumbermen as New Year's.

Shot Her Dead.

BRUNSWICK, GA., Jan. 1.-J. R. Davis killed his wife by mistake. Davis had been troubled with burglars and kept his gun loaded the last few days, waiting to catch one of them. Sunday night his wife walked out in the yard and without giving him warning started back into the house.

Davis saw her through the window and poking the double barreled shotgun through discharged a load of nine buckshot in her back. She screamed and he then discovered that it was his wife. She died Monday morning, fully exonerating her husband.

Claude Bartley Accidentally Killed. SUWANEE, Ga., Dec. 31.-Olaude Bart ley happened to a fatal accident about 3 miles from this place. The young man had been out hunting with a number of other boys, and passing Mr. Kennedy's went into the house, leaving his gan on the woodpile. When he returned to resume his hunt he carelessly picked up the gun with the muzzle toward him, striking the hammer against something which caused it to discharge, the entire load entering his stomach. He died a few hours afterward.

Boy Died of Lockjaw.

COLUMBUS, Ga., Jan. 1. - Thomas Ma rion, 9 nine years old, is dead, as the result of an accident on Christmas day. With a number of playmates, the little fellow was firing a toy cannon. The cannon was prematurely discharged, and Master Perry was struck on the cheek by the paper wad. The wad was embeded in his cheek and made a painful wound, but one that was not neces sarily regarded as serious. Blood poison set in, however, and the boy died of lock jaw.
