BIG MERGER OF MILLS.

Plan for Consolidating Cotton Factories of Two Carolinas.

Charlotte, N. C., May 30 .- Yarn mill men, representing 175,000 spindles in North and South Carolina, held a meeting in Greensboro yesterday afternoon and had further conference with F. L. Underwood and Leonard Paulson, of New York, relative to the plan to form

The decision was unanimous in favor of accepting the plan proposed by Underwood, which is that 60 per cent of stock be merged under one control, leaving 40 per cent in the hands of the separate corporations as at present. A committee was named to visit mills not represented and explain the proposed plans.

Mr. Underwood left for Atlanta last hight, where a similar meeting of the spinners of that section was held today. A. W. Haygood, of Haw river, a promoter of the combine, was in Greensboro, but had nothing to do with the meeting, and it is said there is considerable friction between the two factions. Later the adherents to the Fries plan arrived and held a secret session, no news of which could be obtained.

Volcanic Matter on the Sea.

Charleston, S. C., May 20,-Incoming vessels and fishermen report much volcanic matter along the coast and about the sea islands. The matter resembles coke in both color and form, with the exception that there are streaks or layers of a grayish substance, supposed to be lava, and a chocolate color substance, probably meteoric iron, through the carbon lumps. The streaks have the appearance of having been In a molten state. The substance is very brittle and floats on the surface of the water.

No Fusion In North Carolina, Raleigh, N. C., May 31.-John E. Fowler, populist ex-congressman from the Third district, who is here, says he feels confident the Populists and Republicans in this state will not fuse this year, but that the Populists will very largely go to the Republican party. He says both the Republicans and Popullsts are greatly disorganized, but declares that in his own county (Sampson, the former home of ex-Senator Marion Butler) the Populists are now stronger than ever before.

State Convention Called. Raleigh, June 2 .- Democratic State Chairman Simmons has issued the formal call for the state convention at Greensboro July 16. He says it is called to nominate a candidate for chief justice, two candidates for superintend. ent of public instruction and one for membership on the corporation commission. He gives notice that the convention itself will determine whether the party will choose its candidate for United States senator by primary, by convention or otherwise.

Greenville Shaken by Earthquake. Greenville, S. C., May 31 .- A dis tinct earthquake shock was felt here early yesterday morning. The tremor was accompanied by a low, rumbling sound and continued for several secon's. Although Greenville is located within 6 miles of Paris mountain the citizens here feel no uneasiness. It is believed, however, that the recent volcanic eruption at Mont Pelee had something to do with the shock.

LORD SALISBURY AND EDWARD AT OUTS

Request of His King.

Recent Events Have Caused Considerand There Is Much Criticism Throughout the Empire.

London, May 21.-Those in touch with the royal circles are gossiping about the reported tiff between Lord Salisbury and King Edward, which is said to have arisen on account of the king's demand that the premier recommend Sir Ernest Cassel for a peerage. Last year the same request met with a refusal. This year it was urged by the king on the ground of Sir Ernest's munificent gift of £200,000 toward the cure of consumption. The premier absolutely refused to countenance the interview which occurred the day the state dinner was held at Buckingham palace Lord Salisbury remarked:

"Well, sir, I suppose I had better leave my place at tonight's banquet

MILL JOIN DIG COMBINE. [Yarn Mill Men of Georgia Meet and

Discuss Proposed Merger. Atlanta, May 31.-The prospects are that all of the spinning mills of the south will be combined within the

A meeting of prominent mill men just held at the Aragon practically confirms this statement.

This means that the south, through the instrumentality of northern promoters, will control the bulk of the yarn output of the country, and that the combine, having general charge of some 1,400,000 spindles, will regulate the price of yarn for the entire coun-

For some months past a movement has been on foot to consolidate the spinning mills of the south on a basis which would admit of a more economic management and a more consistent schedule of output. The initial move ment was more ambitious than the present one. It contemplated not only the consolidation of the spinning mills, but the weaving mills as well. The latter plan proved impracticable for the reason that the majority of the cloth mills of the south are in prosper-

The present plan, which is headed by F. L. Underwood and Leonard Paulson, of New York, contemplates the combination of mills which make a specialty of spinning yarn. With the admission from various mill owners that they are now operating at a suicidal rate and are not making any money, the purpose of the promoters is to so harmonize the various interests as to discourage the building of more mills and to put the ones now in operation on a paying basis.
