BODD COMING TO WADESBORO.

The old reliable horseman, R. A. DODD, from Wilmore, Ky., will hold a special sale of 50 head of Kentucky Horses and Mules in Wadesboro on

SATURDAY, JANUARY 16th, 1904,

At G. W. Huntley's Barn, Sale Commencing at 10 A. M. SHARP, RAIN OR SHINE.

I am coming with a great load of stock and this sale will be a sale and every mule or horse will positively be sold to the highest and best bidder. Everything goes to the high dollar, and I want all the good people to come and inspect my stock day before sale. I will have several fine, well-mated teams of mules, suitable for a king, and several nice Kentucky combination horses that can do everything but talk. Remember the day and date and come prepared to go home and tell your wife that all her wants will be supplied now, that you have bought a mule that will do the work. Hoping to see you all personally

I AM VERY TRULY,

R. A. Dodd.
