

AROUND TOWN

Rev. W. R. Coppedge has been sick with cold this week.

We see the good of our new sidewalks this week.

Rev. N. L. Seabolt has been confined to his room this week, with grippe.

We have an ad. in this issue offering lots for sale on Rockingham Heights. Look at it.

If you like the Saxon speak a good word to your neighbor who doesn't take it. It won't hurt you and will certainly help us.

Mr. D. L. Gore, of Wilmington and Dr. Smith, of Polkton, were here on Wednesday, in attendance at the annual stockholders meeting of the Farmers' Bank.

Three convicts escaped from chain gang this week. From the way they are walking off one would think that these warm days tend to make the guards sleepy.

Laurinburg is to have a military company. Why can't our boys organize one for Rockingham. The uniforms, gun, etc. are furnished free of charge by the government. Somebody make a move.

We have a valued communication from Capt. Everett, relative to the officers of the Confederate army, which, we are sorry to say, is crowded out of this issue. However, we hope to be able to publish it next week.

A meeting of the charter members of the Daughters of Liberty will be held in the hall of Pee Dee Academy on Friday night, February 21st. All persons interested in the organization are invited to attend the meeting.

The Annual State Council meeting of the Junior Order United American Mechanics will be held at Winston-Salem next week, beginning Tuesday evening. The Rockingham Council is entitled to, and will send three delegates.

A movement is on foot to organize the rural mail carriers of Richmond, Scotland and adjoining counties. A call has been issued for them to meet in the court house in Laurinburg, on the 22nd inst., at which time the matter of a permanent organization will be discussed.

Mr. T. F. Webb's little daughter has recovered entirely from an attack of scarlet fever. The quarantine over Mr. Webb's house has been removed and the house has been thoroughly disinfected. The friends of the family need have no fears of danger in visiting the family.

Mr. Geo. Warburton was painfully hurt a few days ago by his horse. The horse was hitched to a wagon and became unmanageable. Mr. Warburton was standing on the ground between the wagon and the fence. The horse pushed the wagon against him, he being between the fence and the wagon, knocking him unconscious. He was badly hurt but this fine old gentleman is of the right grit and he has about recovered.

Death of Mr. William Porter.

Mr. Wm. Porter died at his home near Laurinburg, at an early hour Wednesday morning, of pneumonia, his illness being of only three or four days duration. His remains were brought here and interred in Eastside cemetery, on Thursday.

Mr. Porter was about 45 years of age. He married in early life and leaves a wife and two children, a son and daughter, both grown. He was a brother to Mr. A. W. Porter, of this town; Mr. Bee Porter, Mrs. W. P. Ingram, of Malee, and Mrs. J. M. Dockery, of Dockery's Store.

Rev. Mrs. M. V. Sears and Mr. J. C. Sears are helping Rev. H. W. Hawkins in a meeting at Monroe this week.—Robert Dots.

"Dakota Bob."

"Dakota Bob" was the attraction here Tuesday and Wednesday. He is, you might say, a national character, and is always spoken well of by the press. He gave a "show" here Wednesday night which was indeed laughable. He is very quick at repartee and can't be "guyed" under any circumstances. His long hair, badges, etc. made him very "de-stink-tive."

Morse-Frye.

Mr. Walter Morse and Miss Jasper Frye were married last Sunday at the residence of the groom's brother, Mr. Carlton Morse, of Lewarae.

Esq. A. P. Barrett performed the ceremony in his usual perfect style. Among the bridal party were the following couples: Mr. Tebe Henry with Miss Laura Riddle, and Mr. Sankey Morse with Miss Susie Maness.

Mr. Morse is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Morse, of Great Falls. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Frye, of West Rockingham.

The Anglo-Saxon extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Morse.

"Mr. Biggs, of Poultry Yard."

The above is the title of the next play to be given here by the Rockingham Dramatic Co. Those who have read "Mrs. Wiggs, of the Cabbage Patch" will appreciate "Mr. Biggs of the Poultry Yard."

Most of the characters in the play are of the gentler sex, only three being males.

It is needless to state that when the Rockingham Dramatic Co., gets behind a thing you can look for results. We anticipate the pleasure of a delightful evening when "Mr. Biggs of the Poultry Yard" arrives in town.

M. T. Hinson's is the place to make your money go farthest.

Mrs. Whitlock's Reception.

An important social event tomorrow will be Mrs. Paul C. Whitlock's reception at her home on the Boulevard in Dilworth, in honor of her guests, the Misses De Vain, of Fairson; Rogers and Crossland, of Rockingham, and Mrs. J. T. Legrand, of Rockingham. The decorations in the hall will consist of red carnations, in the parlor pink carnations and in the dining room brides' roses and carnations.

The receiving party, in part, is as follows: Mrs. Cameron Morrison, Mrs. Frank Garret, Mrs. Plato T. Durham, Misses Ida Morrison and Ernestine Nuttall.—Charlotte News.

"Riches have wings." But the millionaire's sons usually open the cage doors.

PERSONAL

Mr. Thomas L. McNair, a leading business man of Scotland county, was here this week.

Mr. A. S. Dockery spent Monday in Certhage.

Mr. J. Carwich, of Danville, Va., visited his daughter, Mrs. A. Arenson, this week.

Mr. Paul C. Whitlock, of the Charlotte bar, spent Monday in Rockingham, on business.

Misses Mary Shaw, Eva and Jessie Kirkland, of Raleigh, are visiting Mrs. C. A. Brown.

Mrs. W. J. Adams, of Carthage, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wall.

Hamlet Dramatic Co.

The Hamlet Dramatic Co., of Hamlet, N. C., has a date in that city at the graded school for Tuesday evening, February 18th, where they will present "My Friend From India." They have engaged the 2nd Regimental Band Orchestra, of Raleigh, to furnish music.

We understand quite a number of Rockingham people intend going over to witness this play and we are confident all who attend will enjoy a rare treat. We think we know our neighbor town all right—she is no slow thing.

Rockingham seldom has the opportunity of witnessing a good thing on the stage and we voice the universal sentiment of the town in inviting our sister town to bring "My Friend From India" over feeling safe in promising a "full house." We mean it, be sure to come.
