

CHILD IS FATALLY BURNED

Mother Had Left Him in Room With Open Fire For Only Little While.

Goldsboro, April 1.—Relatives in this city have been notified of the death of the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Odom, which occurred at their country home in this county as a result of being burned.

The mother had left the house for only a few minutes to make some purchases, and when she returned to the house she was horrified to find her little son enveloped in flames and trying to crawl on the bed, his clothing having caught. It is supposed, from a fire in the fireplace.

The mother was badly burned about the hands and face while extinguishing the flames. Though a doctor was summoned, his aid proved of no avail, and the child died in a few minutes.—News and Observer.

DON'T neglect to have the chimney flue cleaned once a year. You are responsible, not your landlord.

DON'T set kitchen stoves close to woodwork. Put a metal shield behind the stove.

In its healthy optimism, which includes the ability to squeeze a joke out of many a tight corner, "The Auction Block" is especially American.—Minneapolis Journal.

Those who have had personal experience in the society of which the author speaks, admit that he comes very close to hitting the nail on the head. The readers, to whom the whole thing is merely fiction, are entertained by the well-known Tex beach style of telling things.—Burlington (Ia.) Hawkeye.

"THE MIKADO" ON CHAUTAUQUA'S CLOSING NIGHT.

The Chautauqua Association has just announced that on the closing night it will present the popular opera, "The Mikado." This will certainly be a record event.

Though this Gilbert and Sullivan classic is known to everybody, few have seen the opera, and those lucky few are eager to see it again. The famous songs, "The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring," "Hearts Do Not Break," "Tit Willow" and several others, are familiar, though many persons do not know that they are from "The Mikado." The Gilbert and Sullivan operas are the best music, the best comedy and the most delightful entertainment to be had.
