REV. JOHN W. HAM

Rev. John W. Ham of Atlanta Ga. the noted evangelist, who is expected to arrive Saturday and begin a series of evangelistic services Sunday assisting pastor C. H. Trueblood, of the Baptist church.

A large new tent will be used for the meeting; Mr. O. V. Caudill the tent man, has been in the city since Tuesday erecting the tent on Hamilton Street near the church, and getting things in readiness for the revival.

Prof. Furman Betts, a sweet gospel singer, will have charge of the music; the famous "Billy Sunday" song book will be used—music will be one of the features of the meeting. Mrs. Ham, an accomplished musician, is also expected to assist in the meeting and Mrs. Betts will also probably be present to do personal work.

With this party of consecrated workers in our midst, the community can rest assured that a spiritual feast is in our store.

Pastor Trueblood in behalf of the church, invites and urges all pastors and churches to join with us in this effort to win the lost to God—the public is invited to enjoy these services with us.

TOWN COMMISSIONERS HOLD MEETING

Roanoke Mills to Install New Closet System and Will do Their Own Garbage Removal Auditors Reports. On Treasurers' Books and Tax Books

W. E. WOODRUFF RESIGNS OFFICE

The Board of Commissioners of the Town of Roanoke Rapids held their regular monthly meeting in the Mayor's office on last Friday evening, Mayor J. W. Taylor presiding and the following commissioners being present: S. J. Bonds, W. E. Woodruff, and J. T. Staigback.

Routine bills were read and disposed of. Dr. T. W. M. Long appeared before the Board and stated that the Roanoke Mills Company had awarded contract for the installation of the most modern type of sanitary closets the San-Sop System for every home in the mill village and that the Company had decided to remove the garbage out of the village themselves, instead of having this done by the town as formerly. Dr. Long asked the Board to grant permission to establish back fence lines in the mill village making the alleys fifteen feet wide instead of twenty, stating that this would give the Company less work to do in collecting garbage and would give more space to the gardens. This permission was readily granted. This does not mean the closing of any land from the town, but simply a temporary change of alley-width to facilitate garbage removal.

Mr. L. S. Mosher appeared before the Board and rendered his report of the audit of the town books and the books of the town tax collector. The tax books were found in arrears on examination, the arrearage having been made good before the report was rendered. Mr. Mosher furnished the Board a list of uncollected taxes for 1913, 1914, and 1915. This list was turned over to the tax collector by the Board with positive instructions to collect at once. The town books as kept by the Treasurer, Mr. A. L. Clark were found to be in perfect balance.

The Board tendered Mr. Mosher a vote of thanks for his efficient manner in which he had made the audit for the town and also authorized him to go ahead and install a system of auditing for the town which will enable the Board to know at all times the exact state of the finances.

The resignation of W. E. Woodruff as commissioner was rendered Mayor J. W. Taylor. The Board accepted this resignation with regret, Mr. Woodruff having served faithfully and efficiently on this Board for nearly four years. Mr. Woodruff's successor will probably not be elected before the next regular meeting.

YARDS AND GARDENS AWARDED PRIZES

Annual Offer of Prizes by Roanoke Mills Productive of Most Exceptional Results - Enthusiastic Report By Judges

MRS. W. J. CHERRY WINS TWO PRIZES

On last Wednesday the judges selected to award the prizes offered by the Roanoke Mills Company for the best yards and gardens in the village made an inspection of all yards and gardens in the village and awarded the prizes as follows:

Best Yards: Mrs. W. J. Cherry, first prize, $10.00, Mrs. J. H. Hines, second prize, $5.00, Mrs. R. O. Bray, third prize, $2.50, and first special honorable mention, $2.00, Mrs. John Wood, Mrs. Lucy Hyman, Mrs. Y. N. Underwood, and Mrs. J. M. Underwood, special honorable mention, $2.00 each.

Mrs. Lawrence Hux, Mrs. Ratus Hux, Mrs. Hattie Hudson, Mrs. R. B. King, Mrs. J. W. Womble, Mrs. W. E. Britt, Mrs. J. B. Greene, Miss Anne Mabry, and Mrs. Willie Glover, had yards so attractive that the judges thought them worthy of honorable mention.

Mrs. June Edmonds was awarded a prize of $5.00, for having made the greatest improvement in her yard during the year.

The judges who awarded the prizes for the yards were Messrs. J. M. Jackson, A. L. Cain, and T. W. M. Long.

Best Gardens: The judges who inspected the gardens found a decision so hard to reach as to which was best of three selected for first, second, and third prizes, that they took the matter up with Mr. S. E. Patterson, who stated that under the circumstances he would award three prizes instead of one and receive the judges of the necessity of making such a close decision. The gardens in question were those of Mrs. R. O. Bray, Mrs. W. J. Cherry, and Mrs. J. O. Hudson, each of whom will receive a $10.00 prize.

The judges found worthy of most honorable mention the gardens of Mrs. Mosely, Mrs. A. M. Rose, Mrs. R. E. Edmondson, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. Hichens.

The judges who awarded the prizes for the gardens were Revs. G. S. Bearden, C. H. Trueblood and Messrs. J. T. Chase and J. T. Staigback.

In the reports submitted in regard to the inspection made by both sets of judges, special stress was laid upon the improvement made over last year, the great increase in number of people contesting for the prizes and the high quality of the results obtained. The village of the Roanoke Mills Company is as clean as it could be gotten and it is hard to see how fifty per cent, at least, of the premises could be made much more attractive. The house without a garden filled with vegetables, well-cultivated, is an exceptional one, only three or four being so noted. The only house noted with unkempt premises, was found upon investigation, to be unoccupied. The block on which Mrs. Bray and Mrs. Cherry live is unquestionably the most attractive block in the community, from a horticultural standpoint.

Mr. Jim Lee spent Sunday in Emporia.

Messrs. Frank Robertson, Jr., and John Gettys called in the home of Mr. Charlie Grant last Friday evening.

We are glad to report that Mr. W. H. Lee, who has been very ill is convalescent.

Mr. Annie Clements and Misses Lucile and Lucy Clements spent Wednesday afternoon in Roanoke Rapids shopping.

TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW EMPORIA AT ROANOKE RAPIDS

By telegram to managers of the other clubs, the Franklin Birds withdrew to-day from the Tri-Town League and cancelled the rest of the schedule as far as their part of it is concerned. No reason was assigned by Mr. Pillow, the Franklin manager for this withdrawal, but it is presumed that financial difficulties are the principal reason, with the position of the team at the bottom of the league a strong contributing factor.

No definite arrangements have been made yet in regard to revival of the schedule, but a meeting of representatives of the Emporia and Roanoke Rapids Clubs has been called for to-day by Mr. S. F. Patterson, the President of the Tri-Town League at which meeting plans for the rest of the season will be discussed. The fans may rest assured, however, that they will have an opportunity to see good baseball here for the rest of the season.

Manager Holloman of the Weavers has been getting in new players all during the week, winding up this morning by taking his pick of the Franklin Club. The fans will see a greatly strengthened team operating on the local grounds to-day and to-morrow.

BIG ADDITION TO ROANOKE MILLS

Three Story Brick Building, Thirty Seven Thousand Square Feet of Floor Space, to be Erected Immediately

J. W. SMOOT AWARDED CONTRACT

The Roanoke Mills Company awarded contract this week to J. W. Smoot, city, for the erection of a three-story brick mill building on the site of the Company's present wood warehouse building which will be torn down to make room for the new building.

The new building will be of most modern mill construction, will have a floor space of over thirty seven thousand square feet and will cost about thirty thousand dollars. It will be used for warehouse purposes. The Roanoke Mills expect to install considerable additional finishing machinery in that portion of their present finishing room which is now used for warehouse purposes and which will become available after the new building is ready.

McGowan-Jones

Miss Ada McGowan and Mr. Perry J. Jones were married on last Tuesday evening at nine o'clock; Rev. W. R. Shelton, of the Rosemary Methodist Church, officiating. The ceremony took place in an automobile, the bride party having ventured some miles out into the country to escape the well meaning but unwelcome attentions of friends. Mr. Shelton sat in the front seat of the automobile while the bride and groom sat in the rear seat, the service being read by the dim light of the small hood lamp in the front of the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones are both well known residents of Rosemary. Mrs. Jones is the daughter of Mrs. Jessie McGowan, of Rosemary. Mr. Jones has lived in Rosemary for about ten years and is an employee of the Rosemary Manufacturing Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will make their home in Rosemary.

LOCAL TALENT MAKES A HIT

Blackface Amateurs Put Across Good Show. Singing and Repartee Elicits Frequent Applause

The minstrel given at the Peoples Theatre last Tuesday night for the benefit of the Roanoke Rapids Baseball Club made good in every sense of the word—artistically, and what is more to the point, financially, although it is thought that more thorough advertising would have brought out an even larger crowd than was present.

To say the local artists justified the expectations of the audience would be putting it mildly; they far surpassed it. The end men W. S. Clark, J. T. Chase, W. L. Long, Heywood Cherry, M. McRae Faison, and Wm. Towe, Jr., performed beautifully, bringing out a good deal of original repartee and local jokes. The singing was very good indeed, practically all of the artists receiving handsome encores. Mr. J. M. Jackson receiving two enthusiastic encores over his number.

Norinsky and Goldman in a "little queer talk" got off a good deal of original humor, and the singing of the quartette composed of Messrs. Manning, Price, Johnson, and King was exceptionally good.

Byrd-Francis

Friends in Roanoke Rapids have received invitations reading as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Byrd request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter to

Mabel Winfield

Mr. Andrew Wallace Francis on the morning of Tuesday, the twenty fifth of July at half after nine o'clock

Central Methodist Church

Southfield, North Carolina

Miss Mabel Byrd taught in the Roanoke Rapids Graded Schools two years and has many friends here. Mr. Francis resided in Rosemary several years being employed as a bookkeeper for the Patterson Store Company. He also worked in the Roanoke Mills office for a short time. The young couple will receive the hearty good wishes of many people in this community.

Christian Church Cleanings

The boys started a ball team and are progressing nicely. They have played six games, won three and lost three. The Boy Scouts won in the game last Saturday. Don't believe they can do it next time.

"The Red and Blue" contest has been started again. Every person present, whether student or visitor, counts one point and the side having the largest offering gets ten points. The Red side has 118 points and the Blue side has 114 points. The contest will last for three months and will close with a big Rally Service. We shall strive to have that coveted 500 on that day. We know we can.

The annual election of officers occurred on first Sunday, R. L. Topping was made superintendent, J. E. Cox, asst. superintendent, L. G. Shell, Sec'y and Treas., Miss Lucy Taylor, president, Miss Mattie Baird, Librarian.

Church officers were also chosen for a period of one year, consisting of five Elders and seven Deacons.

Six additions to the church recently makes the membership now 246.

The Christian minister held prayer meeting at Mrs. Williams, boarding house last Tuesday night for Rev. C. H. Trueblood, the Baptist minister. A goodly number were present.

The minister will begin a meeting at Lowland in Pamlico county next Tuesday night and continue for ten days.
