The Grasp of Greed Search the archives of all the Probate Courts in the universe and no such amazing record of a "last will and testament" could be found as the "parchment" that is to be photographically disclosed in "The Grasp of Greed" at the Peoples and Rosemary Theatres on Nov. 10th, with Louise Lovely's lovely back the said record of the transfer.
H. Rider Haggard wrote the narrative on which Ida May Park founded the scenario for "The Grasp of Greed" Mr. Haggard called his story "John Meeson's Will," an original title that would not have been so bad, itself, for the photoplay. But in these days of competition the film promoter must find something that indicates a "punch" with which to caption his features and so this one is "The Grasp of Greed."

Sensation follows sensation as the five acts of the photoplay are unreeled and intermingled with scores of exciting incidents in a love story, potent in its appeal and brought to the "happy ending" that is perfectly natural to expect in these days of appeal to popular tastes.

Get Ready For JACK FROST

He will soon be here, and this is the time you should install that new heater, stove, or range.

We carry a big line of stoves of all kinds at reasonable prices and will be glad to show you what we have at any time.

It is poor economy to run an old worn out stove with coal at $7.50 per ton and wood almost as high. A new stove will mean a big saving of money in fuel use.
