Hit 'im again, Mongolia!

Our weather forecast—drafty.

And the mayoralty campaign developed a warm Chase.

Why should Taylor Stanback within Bounds if he Woodruff-er Mosheralong?

If Speaker Clark is speaking for himself in his passion for being allowed to volunteer, we suggest that a recruiting officer call at the Capital at once.

If as Speaker Clark asserts, it is a reflection on a man's bravery to call him into the service of his country, why isn't it a reflection on his generosity or sense of duty to levy on his property for the support of the government?

The announcement of the War Department that marriages contracted since the declaration of war will not debar the bridegrooms from being summoned for military duty, is likely to prove shocking indeed in some quarters.

Germany has discovered a deep conspiracy which has existed for a long time between Great Britain and the United States which has for its aim the domination of the world by the Anglo-Saxon race. When it comes to discovering conspiracies, you have to hand it to Germany.

Mr. Jno. B. Sledge has succeeded the late Mr. D. E. Stainback as editor of the Roanoke News. We trust that Mr. Sledge's journalistic career will be both pleasant and profitable, in spite of the h. c. of l., print paper and other necessities of our journalistic and earthly existence.

"Just as long as some of them continue to pat Mr. Kitchen on the shoulder and tell him that his occasional kicking out of the traces on important Administration measures makes him appear to be a big man, he is likely to keep it up"—Henderson Daily Dispatch. Verily a long head hath arisen in Israel and it hath Mr. Kitchen just right even down to a gnat's heel.

You may plant also fence, that garden complete But the neighbors' chickens will come in and eat Also cut worms, moles, potato bugs, pigeons and Sparrows until that $8.73 worth of garden seed Produces a crop conservatively estimated at Around 75c and the high cost of living climbs Up higher still.

now in conclave in Washington is the greatest alliance ever formed in the history of the world—largest in population, in resources, in wealth and in territory. Its decisions will be as near omnipotent in shaping the course of human events as anything mundane could possibly be.

A political hegemony whose naval forces ride unchallenged through the seven seas, whose dominions extend from frozen pole to blazing tropic and which girdles the earth in almost unbroken continuity might well awe a coalition greater than that which now exists in the confines of central Europe.

Desperation alone can now drive on the Kaiser and his hellish war machine. That the German people may be brought to realize the utter folly of the false gods to which they have bent in servile submission for forty years, every thinking man must hope that no premature peace may come. It is necessary that the peace of military victory unquestioned shall be won, and if in the winning, the beautiful cities of the Rhine and the fair fields and forests of Germany shall experience in some measure the awful fate of Belgium and Northern France, who can say that justice has not been done?

Missouria Rhetoric

Mr. Clark is an orator, and doubtless it is most natural for him to fall into an orator's errors. He clings to the fantastic idea, common to orators, that the war can be won by oratory. He prefers sonorous phrases to common sense. He puts more trust in turgid eloquence of the Country-God-and-Mother school than he does in a regiment of artillery. In short, he is a sentimentalist.

But there is nothing sentimental about this war. The argument that will impress the Germans must come from the mouths of cannon, not those of silver-tongued orators. To rely on sentiment, when the kaiser is to be dealt with, is not only foolish but is a hideous wrong to the young men who will defend the flag, and to every one who loves them. Sloppy sentiment of the Champ Clark kind fattened the graveyards of Flanders with hundreds of thousands of English dead. Must a similar sacrifice to false pride and silly vanity be exacted from America? The very thought is sickening.

In God's name, gentlemen of the house, let us have done with empty phrases. If there is one good argument for the volunteer system, bring it out, by all means. But spare us any more hollow rhetoric. Silence the rant about the courage of Americans. We are brave men. We know it. All men are brave men—Belgians, Germans, Austrians, Serbs, English, French, Russians, Bulgars, Turks, and Senegal negroes have alike faced death without a quiver. Physical courage is the commonest virtue in the world. But we want more than physical courage. We want high intelligence, especially in the chief command. If the volunteer system is more intelligent than any other, prove it, and your fight is won. But if you don't prove it, and still adopt that system, remember that on your heads the blood of thousands of your slaughtered countrymen may lie.—Greensboro Daily News.

HANDBOOK FOR PACIFISTS

By Don Marquis of the Vigilantes

(Don Marquis is a Writer for the New York Evening Sun)

The world is so full of a number of thugs

I am sure we should all be as humble as bugs.

If a Hun slays one of your twins, turn the other twin to him.

Talk a great deal about being willing to die for humanity and some people will forget that you are not willing to fight for your own family and clan.

Pray, do not hit your aged mother with a shovel, lad— But if a neighbor hits her, hitting him is just as bad.

If a rowdy insults your wife on a street car, lecture her severely when she gets home. She hadn't any business to be on a car where she would be likely to be insulted and thus stir up trouble.

Spirituality is a good word. In case of argument, pull it early and often. A great many people won't stop to analyze what you mean by it.

If a thug, after taking your pocketbook, kicks you in the abdomen, say to him quite severely:

"Why, you Anachronism! Don't you know that this is the Twentieth Century, and that people don't act the way you are acting in the Twentieth Century? It is impossible!"

It always hurts a thug's feelings to tell him he is impossible.

Belgium is, if anything, more guilty than Germany. Belgium fought back.

Old Uncle Jim came home and kicked

Poor Aunt Elvira's teeth right down her throat—

She fought him back. She'll go to Hell.

The wicked, unapacific, old she-goat!

When you run out of arguments, accuse people who don't agree with you of being crooks.

When you get scared, call it Moral Courage.

Cuss Capitalism. The Capitalism of all countries get together and plan wars.

It was the Capitalists of Belgium who launched the Belgian armies in a surprise attack at the heart of undefended Germany, thus causing the present war.

Honor is a silly thing. Who has it is a sinner, If a man assaults your wife ask him in to dinner.

Smallest British Possession, Gibraltar, which consists of less than two square miles, is the smallest British possession. Canada, covering 3,740,000 square miles, is the largest.

Says Drink Water If You Wish To Grow Fat And Plump THIN MEN AND WOMEN

Do You Want to Get Fat and Strong?
The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods: rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract properly assimilates the food you eat. Drink a glass of cold water four or five times a day and take the following preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere, which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This preparation is called tonoline, and remarkable testimony is given as to its successful use in flesh building. Tonoline which comes in the form of a small non-injurious tablet, taken at meals and mixed with the digesting food, tends to prepare fat, flesh and muscle building elements so that the blood can readily accept and carry them to the starved portion of the body. You can readily picture the transformation that additional and previously lacking flesh making material should bring to your cheeks, filling out hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappearing, and your taking on from 15 to 30 pounds of solid healthy flesh. Tonoline is harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Roanoke Pharmacy Co. and Rosemary Drug Co. have it and are authorized to refund your money if weight increase is not obtained as per the guarantee found in each large package. Caution:—tonoline is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.
