Pains, Dizzy Spells

Mrs. G.P. Cartwright, of Whitwell, Tenn., writes:
"I suffered with bearing-down pains. . . The dizzy spells got so bad that when I would start to walk, I would just pretty nearly fall. Was very much run-down. I told my husband I thought Cardui would help me. . .
He got me a bottle. . . It helped me so much that he got me another bottle.
I got a whole lot better.
The dizzy spells and the bearing-down pains . . .

If you are weak and run-down, or suffer from womanly pains,

"It is only in the finer shades of emotionalism," the critic declared, "that these French actresses get at us a little more completely even than Louise Maurel. Do you know the reason? I'll tell you. It is because they live the life. They have a dozen new emotions in a season. They make a cult of feeling. They use their brains to dissect their passions. They cut their own life into small pieces and give us the result without concealment. That is where they score, if anywhere. This Mrs. Latroba, who opens over here tomorrow night, is in love at the present moment with Jean Tourbet. She had an affair with that Italian poet in the summer, so they tell me. She was certainly in Madrid in October with Bretel, the sculptor. These men are all great artists.

Think what she must have learned from associating with them! Now Louise Maurel, so far as we know, has never had but one affair, the prince of Seyre, and has been faithful to him all the time."

It was out at last! John had heard it spoken in plain words. The black demon upon which his hand had lain so heavily, was alive now, without a doubt, jeering at him, mocking at him —alive and self-assertive in the sober words of the elderly, well-bred man who lounged upon the table.

For a moment or two John was stunned. A wild impulse assailed him to leap up and confront them all, to choke the lie back down the throat of the man who had uttered it. Every nerve in his body was tingling with the desire for action. The stupor of his senses alone kept him motionless, and a strange, incomprehensible clarity of thought. He realized exactly how things were. This man had not spoken idly, or as a scandalmonger.
He had spoken what he had accepted as a fact, what other people believed.

John rose to his feet and made his way toward the door. His face showed little sign of disturbance. He even nodded to some men whom he knew slightly. As he passed down the stairs, he met Gralliot. Then once more his self-control became in danger. He seized the Frenchman savagely by the

Hartford Check Good as Gold

A check of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company for $800 sent south in 1861 in payment of a loss was received too late for collection. Throughout the Civil War it was everywhere accepted as cash. When returned to Hartford in 1864 it was literally covered with endorsements.

For over a century, through war, panic and fires, the Hartford's name on a promise to pay has everywhere been as good as gold.

Let the old reliable Hartford Fire Insurance Company carry
