We did eight days in the front-line trench without anything unusual happening outside of the ordinary trench routine. On the night that we were to "carry out," a bombing raid against the German lines was pulled off. This raiding party consisted of sixty company men, sixteen bombers, and four Lewis machine guns with their crews.

The raid took the Boches by surprise and was a complete success, the party bringing back twenty-one prisoners. The Germans must have been awfully sore, because they turned loose a barrage of shrapnel, with a few "Min nies" and "whizz bangs" intermixed. The shells were dropping into our front line like hallstones. To get even, we could have left the prisoners in the fire trench, in charge of the men on guard and let them click Fritz's strateing but Tommy does not treat prisoners that way. Five of them were brought into my dugout and turned over to me so that they would be safe from the German tire. In the candlelight, they looked very much shaken, nerves gone and chalky faces, with the exception of one, a creat old fellow. He looked very much at on se. I liked him from the start.

I. How Lydia Began the Christian Lydia was the first convert to conversion. Note the steps therein: 1. Attendance at the place of pray-The accustomed place here was at the river side. The accustomed place today is in church. God can and does save men and women without any seeming connection with places of extablished worship, but ne appears to most people at such places. The very fact that he has established and sus tains churches here and there is an urgent call to all men and women to place themselves in the way of salvation. While no one cun save himself, yet all can put themselves in the way of salvation by attending church, readlag the Rible, etc. The very fact that such opportunities are placed before men and women is a presumptive call of God.

2. Listening to the preaching of the Word of God (vv. 13, 14).

Paul took advantage of the opportunity which was given him by the women to preach Christ to them. He was alert for and prized highly the opportunity to tell the people about Christ. He knew also how pertlous the captain fell asleep. After about it was to neglect to witness for Christ at a time when unsaved people are together. The opportunity is God's ing the captain, reminded him of his call to preach Christ. It is a great thing to have faithful men and women who can intelligently minister at such times.

3. Her heart was opened by the Lord (v. 14). The individual may place himself in the way of salvation by coming hear to the means of grace, and the preacher may preach the Word of God, but there is no hope of salvation until the heart is opened by the Lord (John 6:44, 45). While the salvation of every one is dependent upon this sovereign act of the Lord, yet we can be sure that he is willing at all times to place themselves in the way of his saving grace.

4. She was baptized, (v. 15). This ordinance follows belief in Chirst. The invariable rule in the early church was for believers to be haptized. While there is no salvation in the water of baptism, yet hearty obedience should be rendered in this respect (Acts 2:38-41; 8:12; Mark 16; 16). Lydia brought her household to Christ. This is as it should be. She showed signs of the new life, in that she expressed gratitude toward those who had been instrumental in her conversion (v. 15) by constraining them to share the hospitality of her home

II. How the Philippian Jailer Becan the Christian Life (vv. 25-34).

1. The occasion (vv. 25, 26). The casting out of the spirit of divination from the damset landed Paul and Silns in prison. The pain of bleeding backs, and of feet in stocks, kept them from sleeping; but not from praying and singing. The Lord heard their prayers and sent an earthquake which shook the jail, opened the doors of the prison, and loosed the bonds from the prisoners' hands.

2. The method (vv. 27-34). (1) Visitation of the supernatural (vv. 27-29). The faller was awakened from his sleep by the earthquake. This earthquake was unusual in that it loosed the bonds from the prisoners' hands. In his desperation the latter was about to commit suicide. This was averted by Paul's assurance that all were safe. The fact that the doors were opened and the prisoners free and yet no one escaped, showed him that something unusual had occurred. Therefore, he came trembling and prostrated himself before Paul and

(2) The great question (v. 30). In the presence of the supernatural he erled out, "What must I do to be sayed?" One's salvation is not far off when he utters this cry with sincerity.

(3) The vital answer (vv. 31, 32). "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ," is the only way to be saved. "There is none other name under heaven giv- ing. en among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Though the way of salvation is restricted, it is simple and easy. No one who has believed on Christ has failed to receive it. The faller's faith was not blind faith for they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house, They were taught the meaning of belief in Christ.

(4) The evidence of a transformed life (vv. 33, 34). (a) He was haptized (v. 33). As soon as one believes on Christ he wants to be baptised. (b) He tenderly washed the stripes of Paul and Silas, showing that he was no longer the brutal lailer (v. 34). (c) He rejoiced (v. 34). The one who really accepts Christ is filled with

(d) A transformed home (v. 34). He believed on Christ and was baptized, and he household.

SCOUTS MUST "RAISE GRUB"

The gardening season of 1918 is here, the war is still on, and America is sending more men across the ocean to prevent the enemy reaching our glorious country, says Chief Grub Scout

Hal B. Fullerton. America must feed these men, and feed them well. They are our boys who are risking everything, even their lives, to save our country, our homes, from the horrible fate of each and every country in Europe that our cruck enemy has overrun.

That means more work, bigger work, better work for the boy scouts than the splendid work they did hist year. Get busy; keep busy!

This year every seemt is asked to be responsible for securing one adult to agree to work with him on the scout's individual garden or on the troop garden or on the local council garden. The adult might be a scout's father, his bruther or his sister's best fellow, his unde or, indeed, any man who will faithfully stick to the job until the crops are harvested.
