Why should Italy Flume?

Finish the Job—Buy Victory Bonds.

The "Old Guard" never surrendered—It abdicated.

It takes a "V" to begin the purchase of a Victory Bond.

If you are not going to take your share of Victory Bonds—don't "tell it to the Marines!"

Italy seems to be following the custom of so many of her sons in foreign lands by playing the Monkey at the Peace Conference.

Germany is to decide the acceptance of the Allied Peace Treaty by popular vote. What a spectacle to see Hindie and the Crown Prince electioneering around the polls.

Herr Erzberger, who is visibly moved and affected every time Foch has a conversation with him, should not be forced to attend the Peace Conference—he'd probably have a jumpin' fit.

Think how useful those German helmet trophies will be for defensive measures to those belated husbands whose "sick friend" has kept them out until the small hours of the morning and friend wife is peeved, sceptical, and belligerent.

It is up to every citizen of Roanoke Rapids who wishes the best possible government to stand behind the new Board of Commissioners and give them co-operation and support. Five men, unassisted by popular aid and opinion, in session only two hours a month, will not be able to achieve much, it matters not how firm their purpose may be. We must have leaders, but the town will be well governed only when it governs itself well. Incidentally; unformed and unintelligent criticism is about the sorriest form of support there is.

M. McRAE FAISON
RESIGNS FROM OFFICE

With the resignation of Mr. M. McRae Faison, Roanoke Rapids loses the biggest postmaster it has ever boasted. Few be they who will question this statement from the Toledo viewpoint and few will be those who are unwilling to admit that Mr. Faison has handled his job with its thousands of daily contacts with all kinds of people with unflinching tact and courtesy and that the business of the office has been carried on with smooth efficiency. In him we lose a good citizen and an unflinching booster in every feature of community progress and the Loyal Order of Moose, in our humble opinion, gets a cracking good organizer. The town generally wishes Mr. Faison success and prosperity in his new undertaking and has full confidence that the results he achieves will measure up to his size in every respect.

Mr. George N. Taylor, who succeeds Mr. Faison by temporary appointment which will most probably be made permanent, gives positive assurance that regardless of the short comings of Burleson, the local office at least will be handled satisfactorily. Mr. Taylor who has recently returned from the service of his Country overseas, is fully qualified to handle the postoffice's constantly increasing business to the satisfaction of its patrons, and we venture to predict that his services in civil life will be as cheerfully and efficiently rendered as were those more strenuous services he rendered for us all on the fields of France.

DIGESTION WAS BAD
Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.
Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone. I was very weak. I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon righted with a few doses of Black-Draught." Seventy years of successful use has made Theford's Black-Draught a standard, household remedy. Every member, of every family, at times, need the help that Black-Draught can give in cleansing the system and relieving the troubles that come from constipation, indigestion, lazy liver, etc. You cannot keep well unless your stomach, liver and bowels are in good working order. Keep them that way. Try Black-Draught. It acts promptly, gently and in a natural way. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. You will feel fresh tomorrow. Price 25c. a package—One cent a dose. All druggists. J. 69
