Hear Prohibition Orators. Hickory-Former Gov Malcolm R. Patterson and Rev. R. D. McAlister, noted Tennesseans, made four addresses in Hickory churches in the interest of the world-wide prohibition movement and while here urged local people not only to fight the enemy within, but to smite him without. The addresses were delivered in the First Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and Corinth Reformed churches and were heard by large audiences. It was be lieved that many Hickory people pladged contributions.
