TORPEDOED!

Don't blast your liver and bowels, but take "Cascarets."

You have had women who can't get feeling right—like those headache, dizziness, indigestion, bad taste and foul breath, dizziness, sleep, etc. You have had men who can't get feeling right—like those headache, dizziness, indigestion, bad taste and foul breath, dizziness, sleep, etc.

Are you keeping your liver and bowels clean with Cascarets, or do you feel your bowels every few days with cholera, gas, and indigestion pills? Cascarets work while you sleep, they cleanse the stomach, remove the acid, indigestion, fermenting food and food masses, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the accumulated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

IMPORTANT HAPPENINGS OF THIS AND OTHER NATIONS FOR SEVEN DAYS GIVEN

THE NEWS OF THE SOUTH

What is Taking Place in The South and Will Be Found in Brief Paragraphs

Foreign

Commenting on the reported intention of the United States Asiatic Squadron to visit Australia, the Sydney Daily Telegraph recently said editorially: "The American fleet may be viewed as an embolism and a menace to the work of those who would spread suspicion and misunderstanding between the people of the British empire and of the United States."

Swedish Relief

Swedish Relief, French foreign minister, and Sir Eyre Crowe, assistant under-secretary for foreign affairs of Great Britain, exchanged ratification of the treaty guaranteeing British aid to France, if, without pretension, she is attacked by Germany.

Ten persons were killed and 120 injured

90 of whom suffered gunshot wounds in a riotous demonstration at Cairo, Egypt. Three police stations were set on fire by mobs, which liberated prisoners and paraded through the streets, carrying wounded rioters.

It is stated by those in position to know that the thoughts of the peace treaty's friends in the senate are concentrated on accomplishing some compromise for a ratification in the session beginning December 1 and to that end steps are understood to have been taken by them to ascertain from President Wilson what reservations the chief great powers would accept.

Domestic

The body of little "Billy" Dansey, for whom a nationwide search had been conducted since his disappearance from his home at Hammon, N. J., several weeks ago, was found by a hunter in a swamp near that place. After viewing the body, Corporal Cunningham expressed belief that the boy was the victim of foul play.

Whisky and Beer made their last stand in the Supreme court of the United States

Despairing of any hope that President Wilson would lift the ban in time to enable them to dispose of their stocks before constitutional prohibition settles down upon the land, the liquor interests of the country are concentrating all their efforts toward obtaining even a brief hiatus.

Settlement of the controversy over disposition of the German liner was indicated by shipping board officials, who intimated the ship would be tendered immediately to Great Britain.

The liquor interests gave another setback when Judge George Carpenter handed down a decision in the United States district court at Chicago which nullified the wartime prohibition act and the Volstead enforcement act were constitutional.

The Chicago Federation of Labor has endorsed the action of the International Association of Machinists in calling for a vote "to authorize grand lodge officers to co-operate with other unions in declaring a strike on the railroads of the United States at such time as may prevent a condition that will establish involuntary servitude."

Ernest Lammie, a man from the Fifth Minnesota district, who was to speak at a local theater earlier than the league of nations, was taken from the stage by members of the American Legion escorted to the railroad tracks and locked in a refractory car. Members of the train crew forced the doors and released him 20 miles from Chicago.

On the eve of a final vote on the peace treaty

President Wilson gave the senate to understand that when it modified the reservations already adopted, it was to do so in haste to the white house and lock it in his desk.

American exports in October, 1918, were valued at $222,000,000, an increase of $12,000,000 over those in September and of $10,000,000 over those in October a year ago.

The secretary of war announces that in view of the fact that the number of men preserved for the American forces in France and Germany for the infantry and engineer corps have been obtained, enlistments for those countries will be discontinued.

President Wilson placed the government again in control of the nation's food supply by transferring the authority of food administration to Attorney General Palmer. Revival of the wartime functions of Administrator Hoover resulted directly from government efforts to avert a famine in sugar, but the powers delegated to the head of the department of justice will be also to help put down the ever-mounting cost of living. For the present the attorney general will not put into operation all of the machinery permitted under the executive order.

Advances of speculation leading many ways were opened up when officials and diplomats turned over in their minds the possible results at home and abroad that are to follow termination of the special session of congress without senate ratification of the treaty.

President Wilson has considered the possibility of negotiating a new peace treaty in the event of the rejection by the senate of the present treaty but it now develops that he virtually has rejected that alternative as impracticable.

It is stated by those in position to know that the thoughts of the peace treaty's friends in the senate

are concentrated on accomplishing some compromise for a ratification in the session beginning December 1 and to that end steps are understood to have been taken by them to ascertain from President Wilson what reservations the chief great powers would accept.

The Mexican embassy has received information that General Angeles, one of Villa's right-hand lieutenants, has been captured

Angels had recently prepared a plan of campaign for Villa, the object of which was to cut off Mexico City from the north and to make it possible to formulate a plan of invading the City of Mexico itself.

Another effort to bring industrial peace to the United States is to be made by a conference of former federal and state officials, business men and economists, the personnel of which has already been announced by President Wilson.

Lack of adequate training of pilots was responsible for some fatalities in the recent trans-continental derby

Lieut. Belvin W. Mansard, the winner, told a house sub-committee. Officers of high rank whose experience had been confined to desk work entered the race because there were no superior officers to pass on their ability. Junior officers were tested to determine their fitness to compete.

Advertisement for EASY NOW TO SAW LOGS AND CUT DOWN TREES. Only one man, or even a boy, with the improved Ottawa Engine Log Saw can easily cut twenty-five to forty cords a day, and at a cost of less than 2c per cord. This machine, which outdoes all others, has a heavy, cross cut saw driven by a powerful, especially designed 4-cylinder gasoline engine. It's a first money-maker for you, using it, and does more than ten men could do, either cutting down trees, sawing logs, or burning branches while you rest. When not sawing, the engine can be used for other work requiring power.

Advertisement for Ottawa Engine Log Saw. The entire machine is mounted on truck wheels to make it easy to move to the trees or logs, and from cut to cut on a log without stopping the engine. For moving on the road, the truck wheels are placed parallel with the skids and the rig hauled straight ahead. The wheels turn on a two-way spindle. You do not have to take them off, but can change direction of wheel travel by merely taking out a pin.

Advertisement for Ottawa Engine Log Saw. The Ottawa can be fitted for sawing down trees. It sits level with surface of ground, thereby getting all the timber and leaving no stumps sticking up. An automatic "ratchet" clutch stops the saw in case of undue resistance. Two men can fall forty to fifty trees a day in ordinary timber. The whole outfit is compact, simple, durable against a lifetime of hard wear. It sells for a low price and is fully guaranteed for reliable operation in the hands of every one who has trees to cut down and logs to work up.
