GREAT REPUBLICAN CONVENTION MEETS

ORGANIZATION COMPLETED IN SHORT ORDER BY MOREHEAD, BUTLER AND DUNCAN.

"BIG FOUR" INCLUDES LINNEY

Convention Sends Telegram to Lodge Commending Republican Cause in Matter of Treaty and League.

Greensboro.—John Morehead, Marion Butler and E. Carl Duncan completed the organization of the republican party of North Carolina. The formalities were gone through with at the state convention of the party and some two thousand delegates endorsed the new organization by cheering vociferously while the three shook hands on the stage of the Municipal theater here.

Frank Linney, unable to attend the convention on account of sickness, was included with Morehead, Butler and Duncan in the "Big Four," who will attend the National convention at Chicago as delegates at large. Morehead was re-elected as national committeeman without opposition and Frank Linney succeeds himself as state chairman.

John J. Parker of Monroe was nominated for governor, and A. A. Whitner, Hickory, for allied States senator. Judge Pritchard was endorsed as a candidate for president.

The convention sent a telegram to Chairman Lodge, of the senate foreign relations committee, commending him and his colleagues "who have prevented the confirmation of the league of nations unamended as attempted to be forced on the American people by President Wilson."

Lenoir.—Town commissioners of Blowing Rock have called an election for March 29 to vote on the question of issuing $15,000 street improvement bonds.

Winston-Salem.—On account of influenza in the town and country districts, the March term of Yadkin superior court, which convened at Yadkinville, adjourned soon after the clerk had called over the docket.

Raleigh.—The North Carolina Medical society will hold its annual convention in this city April 20-22, according to the plans for the meeting, while the North Carolina Hospital association will meet on the day before this convention opens, April 19.

Goldboro.—After making a raid near Goldsboro, in which they destroyed a large moonshine still, revenue officers journeyed over to Duplin county, where they were successful in locating and destroying a steam outfit still of 500 gallons capacity.

Rutherfordton.—Spindale, a suburb of Rutherfordton, is on a great boom and has many new enterprises among which are a new roller mill, ash and door factory, garage and shoe shop. Other enterprises will be promoted at an early date.

Greensboro.—The organization meeting of the Co-operative Dairy Produce company was held here, officers being elected and plans made for the conduct of the business.

Lenoir.—Clerk Oscar Coffey, of the Watauga county superior court, has sent in his resignation to Judge T. B. Finley, according to news received here by friends of Mr. Coffey. The office does not pay a sufficient amount is the reason given for Mr. Coffey's resignation.

Wilson Public Utilities.

Wilson.—Wilson town is setting in a state of preparedness to defy, to a certain extent, coal strikers and at the same time save thousands of dollars in operating her public utilities by harnessing Contentine creek, three miles away. Contracts have been let which require the expenditure of $111,000 for the construction of a dam, lines, etc. divided as follows: Dam and buildings, $73,000; two generators, $19,317; substation and transmission lines $8,200; turbines and governors, $10,400.

Republicans Would Pay the Freight.

Raleigh.—Raleigh suffragists declared themselves hostile to the suggestion that they write all members of the general assembly to come here and ratify the Susan B. Anthony suffrage amendment without expense to the state.

If the general assembly will agree to do that the governor will be urged to call the legislature into extraordinary session. This amendment could be ratified in a day and it would be no more trouble than calling state conventions of both parties.

Plans for County Commencement.

Charlotte.—Plans were made for the county commencement, to be held April 9, and the district preliminary contests, set for March 25, as well as for the field day exercises on April 3, at the final meeting of the year of the Mecklenburg County Teachers association.

Silver cups and medals to be presented to the winners in the various contests, including declamation, recitation, glee club, story telling and spelling, at the commencement, will be given by Charlotte firms.
