The Timber Supply Menaced.

Lumber is certain to lose its present importance in North Carolina and become one of the minor industries if measures for conserving present timber supplies are not taken speedily.

Mr. Carter's address showed that unless the young forests in North Carolina and adjacent States are protected from fire and wisely managed, these regions which are now shipping lumber to other parts of the country soon would be forced to import supplies for their own use.

Although North Carolina still has a considerable amount of timber, cutting is progressing at a rapid rate and the remaining old-growth forests are bound to disappear unless a definite conservation program is adopted by the State.

ROUMANIA SEEKS LOAN HERE Money Absolutely Necessary for the Reorganization of the Finances of the Country.

Purchase.—Roumania is seeking to place a loan in the United States giving as security her six per cent national bonds, without lien on her forests or her oil properties.

According to Le Progress, the country's most pressing problem is the reorganization of finances, which are in a confused condition, partly due to the dumping in Roumania of several billions of Austro-Bulgarian crowns, Russian and Ukrainian rubles and other worthless moneys.

At the beginning of the war the Roumanian national debt was only 500,000,000 lei and that now it is more than 30,000,000,000. The standard paper money of the country at the present is that issued by the National Bank of Roumania.
