RECORDER'S COURT NEWS ITEMS

Suit for Non-Support Dismissed. Local Merchant Under Bond for Selling Cigarettes to Minor.

Joe Pilkington, charged for the second time with non-support of his wife and child, presented sufficient evidence in rebuttal to cause Recorder Clark to dismiss the charge against him and put the cost on his mother-in-law, the prosecuting witness. The entire neighborhood apparently had been subpoenaed as witnesses and the preponderant weight of the testimony seemed to be in favor of the defendant. His Honor declared it was a case of two much mother-in-law and advised the defendant to secure other quarters than her mother's home for his wife and himself.

Sam Sykes, colored, drunk and disorderly paid $10.00 and costs.

E. L. Bowen, speeding, was fined $5.00 and costs.

J. R. Moore plead guilty to selling a sack of tobacco and a package of cigarette papers to the nine year old son of M. R. Wood, and gave bond in the amount of $100.00 for his appearance at the November term of Halifax Superior Court. Mr. Moore stated that the boy had frequently purchased tobacco from him for his father and he did not know that this purchase was for his personal use.

Robert Faucett and Moody Hedgepeth plead guilty to an affray and were fined $2.50 each and costs.

High School Football Squad to Play Emporia

The first foot-ball team to represent the Roanoke Rapids High School was picked on Thursday afternoon by Coach Walter A. Simpson who feels that there is very promising material for a successful team when the members have had the experience which can only be had by their participation in match games with opposing teams.

The game on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 P. M. with Emporia will be played at the Rosemary Baseball Park and will furnish an opportunity for this community to see the local boys in action for the first time.

On Wednesday afternoon the entire squad elected Francis Wyche as captain for this year. Wyche will lead his team from the position of quarter-back where real generalship is required.

The players who will probably play in the game with Emporia are as follows:

Death Of Mrs. Burton.

Died at her home in Raleigh on the 30th ult., Mrs. Mary Carroll Burton, widow of the late Hon. R. O. Burton, a distinguished leader of the Raleigh bar, and had lived in Raleigh about thirty years. She was a daughter of Mr. Thomas Carroll, of Ashland, Va. She is survived by four children. Mrs. Burton was a lady of rare grace and culture, and was a prominent member of the M. E. Church.

The remains were brought to Poplar Grove, the old family burying ground, near Rosemary, and interred last Saturday. The burial services were conducted by Rev. L. B. Jones and Rev. L. N. Taylor, of Roanoke Rapids. The following members of the family accompanied the remains: Mrs. George Little, Miss Annie Dally Burton, Miss Mary C. Burton, Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Haywood, of Concord; Mr. Henry W. Burton, of Charlotte; Mr. J. R. Carroll, Thomas Carroll, Middleburg; Mr. James H. Burton, Miss Francis Olivia Burton, Mr. James H. Burton, Jr., Littleton. The following acted as pall bearers: W. T. Shaw, O. W. Pierce, R. S. Travis, A. S. Allen, S. M. Gary, Geo. C. Green, Dr. D. B. Zollicoffer, W. E. Daniel, J. W. Sledge. -Roanoke News.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes

Was not only one of America's great poets but one of our great scientists as well. Hear what he says as to the value of the Church: "I find growing in the garden of my soul a tender plant called reverence and I go to church that it may be nourished and grow and bear fruit in justice, mercy and good will."

If Dr. Holmes found this to be true for himself, may it not be equally true for all of us?

LYCEUM COURSE BEGINS NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

The Temple Singers First Number SEASON TICKETS $3.00 ADULTS CHILDREN UNDER 16 $1.00

The lyceum course for the current season begins next Tuesday evening, October 11, at 8:30 in the Central School Auditorium. This year's course is better balanced than courses in former years, and probably no better course will be put on in any place in the State. Particular effort was made to select only the cream of lyceum attractions. Of the nine numbers in the course six are distinctly musical, a fact which pleases local patrons of lyceum.

Season tickets are now on sale at $3.00 each for adults and $1.00 for all children under 16.

The following schedule of attractions has been arranged:

1. The Temple Singers:- The members of this company are experienced professional singers.

2. The Ernest Toy Artists Trio: This company arranges its program so that they will appeal to the taste of both music lovers and laymen. It is a real group of artists.

3. The Floyds:- This is a group of refined entertainers headed by Floyd, the Magician.

4. The Tschaiowsky Quartette:- One of the finest lyceum attractions of the season. Their specialty is classical music made delightfully popular.

5. Loren Bates Trio:- This is a group of real artists also.

6. The Elizabethan Players in "The Taming of the Shrew," - One of Shakespeare's greatest comedies.

7. The Ernest Gamble Concert Company:- A good concert company directed by a musical genius.

8. The Kaufman Male Quartette:- This an unusual male quartette composed entirely of distinguished artists.

9. Dr. William Davidson Parry.

WILLIAM L. COOK

William L. Cook, who lived near Tilghman's Cross Roads, died Tuesday, Oct. 4, 1921, and was buried the following day at Smiths Methodist Church near South Rosemary, of which he was a member.

Bro. Cook had been in bad health for several months, and though his physician and friends had been doubtful of his recovery, the end was not expected so soon, or so sudden.

For almost 66 years he had lived the life of an honest, hard working, and upright citizen. Those who knew him best, and with whom he had had business dealings for years, said there was not a blot on his character, that he was honest and upright in all his dealings with them.

He was a kind husband, a devoted father, and a true friend. The esteem in which he was held was attested by the large crowd who attended the funeral, and the many beautiful flowers given.

The funeral services were conducted by Dr. D. B. Zollicoffer, of Weldon, and the writer.

The deceased leaves a wife, several children and grand children, (and other relatives) to mourn this loss.

Yes we shall miss our friend for a while. But let us take comfort in the fact, that while he cannot return to us, we can go him.

THOMAS GRAY

On last Saturday night, at the Rosemary Methodist Parsonage Anne Bell Gray and Earnest Thomas were happily married. Chas. M. Lance officiating.

This happy young couple will make their future home in Durham. Mr. Thomas family lived in Rosemary, and Miss Gray resided with her mother in South Rosemary.

EASTERN STAR MINSTREL GOOD

Presents Unusually Attractive Production for Local Talent at School Auditorium Wednesday Night Under Direction of Mr. C. Green.

SMALL BUT APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE

The Eastern Star Minstrel, produced under the direction of Mr. C. Green, presented a thoroughly attractive production to a small but appreciative audience at the Central School Auditorium on last Wednesday evening. The setting was pretty and the chorus was unusually good for an amateur performance.

Among the many attractive song hits were "Mamma" sung by Mr. Glover; "Strut Miss Lizzie", Miss Temple; Miss Chaffin and quartette, "Real Kind Mama", Mr. Faison; "Pray for Lights", Mr. C. Green.

Mr. C. Green's black face monologue was humorously given and provoked hearty applause. The Quartette composed of Misses Temple and Chaffin and Messrs. Glover and Wafford was exceptionally good. Miss Williams in an "Old Maid Monologue" kept the audience laughing during its presentation.

The second part of the minstrel consisted of a burlesque military act entitled "The Conscriptionists" produced by practically the entire cast was a big scream from start to finish.

Temple Singers A Company of Professional Singers

The Temple Singers who are scheduled to appear in the Central School Auditorium next Tuesday evening at 8:30 are one of the best Lyceum attractions on the road today. The quartette consists of: Miss Lucille Buzzo, soprano; Miss Katherine Strong, alto; Mr. Edwin Delbridge, tenor; Mr. Dimetrie Styop, baritone; Miss Bernice Coughill, accompanist.

The program will embrace some of the best from the music of four centuries, from jolly old English ballads and motion songs, a group of inspiring praise songs, and last of all modern songs, carefully chosen and sung with splendid interpretation.

MR. F. R. HARRIS DEAD

The people of the town of Jackson and surrounding community were greatly shocked last Monday night when the news began to spread over the town that Mr. F. R. Harris had died suddenly in his office.

Mr. Harris was seemingly in as good health Monday as usual, and was about his business all day. He left his home Monday evening after supper and walked down to his office and died immediately after reaching there.

Mr. Harris had been a practicing attorney at the Northampton Bar for twenty odd years and had made good in his chosen profession.

He was chosen by the good people of his county some years ago to represent the county in the legislature.

Mr. Harris had been afflicted with heart trouble for more than a year and while his death was a shock to his family and friends, it was not altogether a surprise.

FRUGALITY

Frugality has ever been esteemed a virtue as well among pagans as Christians; there have been even heroes who practiced it. However, we most acknowledge that it is too modest a virtue, or, if you will, too obscure one to be essential to heroism; few heroes have been able to attain to such a height. Frugality agrees much better with politics; it seems to be the base, the support, and, in a word, the inseparable companion of a just administration.—Oliver Goldsmith.
