Waging Great War on Tuberculosis

In a news article issued today from the headquarters of the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association announcement is made that in Halifax County there were 46 deaths from tuberculosis last year and that at the present time there are eight times as many active open cases of tuberculosis, the majority of whom are taking no precautions whatever to keep from killing themselves and infecting everyone they come in contact with; because in a great many instances they are not even aware that they have tuberculosis. As a step toward correcting this condition and saving the lives uselessly sacrificed to tuberculosis the Association asks Mr. Average Citizen, "How Much Do You Care?"

It is pointed out that "tuberculosis is no respecter of persons unless a high standard of resistance is maintained by keeping in good physical condition all the time; that tuberculosis is not hereditary as is generally believed and that the best check on your physical condition is a thorough looking over at regular intervals." All of which is true and good advice.

The Association goes a step further and volunteers to send an examiner to this county who will spend as much time as required in giving a thorough physical examination for tuberculosis to anyone who is suspicious that they have tuberculosis and wishes to know positively.

This service is provided by the Association from receipts derived from the sale of tuberculosis Christmas Seals and no charge is made for the examination. The only requirement being that someone sufficiently interested make the preliminary arrangements and provide a place for the examinations.

Let's address a request to the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association, Sanatorium, N. C., for the services of the specialist and uncover some of the work of our great foe tuberculosis and then let us support this work by a generous purchase of Tuberculosis Christmas Seals when they are placed on sale at Thanksgiving.

Annual District Meeting of Womans' Auxiliary

The annual district meeting of the Womans' Auxiliary was held in All Saints' Episcopal church yesterday with a large number of delegates in attendance.

The meeting opened with a celebration of the Holy Communion, the rector of the church being the celebrant and Rev. Boston Lackey, assistant of Christ church, Raleigh, and vicar of St. Saviour's church, Raleigh, assisting. Immediately following this service a sermon of eloquence and power was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Lackey from the text, "Ye are not your own, ye are bought with a price." He told of how the seed was not its own but had to sacrifice in order to gain fruit, that education was given us not for our own sakes but that we might share it with the world, that patriotism demanded a person's all for the good of all, that religion was a privilege not just for the good it did its possessor but that the possessor might impart it to others.

Reports from the various chapters of the Auxiliary represented were made and at twelve thirty the visitors repaired to the rectory and luncheon. At the afternoon session, addresses were made on Social Service by the rector, on the work of the Church Periodical Club by Mrs. Shore, of Raleigh, and the Box Work and United Thank Offering by the Diocesan president, Mrs. T. W. Bickett, of Raleigh. After adjournment a tea was given by Mrs. S. F. Patterson in honor of Mrs. Bickett and Mrs. Shore. Last night a stirring missionary address was made by the Rev. C. A. Ashby, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Raleigh.

Roanoke Rapids to Celebrate Armistice Day With a Community Sing

All loyal citizens feel that Armistice Day must not pass without some form of celebration in our community, and as it is now being widely recognized that one of the happiest and most enthusiastic ways in which people may celebrate any event is to come together for an hour or two of song and music. A big Community Sing is being planned for Friday night, November 11th. The sing will be held in the auditorium of the Central School building, and everybody is invited. The Sunday schools in Rosemary and Roanoke Rapids are being requested to sing special songs, and the various organizations around town will send in the names of their favorite songs, so that these songs may be printed on the program and we all may sing them. Begin to get yourselves, your family, and your friends ready for the big night! Come to the sing; you may hear an old favorite song you haven't heard for years—you may hear a new song you'll like. At any rate, you'll show that you are a good American if you help your town in a same celebration of Armistice Day.

Aurelian Springs Fair

Last Wednesday the 26th, was a red letter day in the history of the Aurelian Springs Community for it was then that the biggest fair ever given was successfully staged. The weather was in keeping with the occasion as was the large crowd of happy visitors. The fair opened with a parade and the combined bands of Aurelian Springs and Seaboard, under the expert direction of Rev. William Towe, furnished just the sort of music to get the crowds in the fair mood. The address of the day was delivered by Mrs. Jane McKimmon, of Raleigh. Mrs. McKimmon, is the State Home Demonstration Agent. She was introduced by Prof. A. E. Akers. In an address full of common sense and practical ideas the speaker told her hearers how a successful home could be managed. The exhibits of farm products, live stock and poultry were very good. The school exhibits did not quite measure up to the standard of former years on account of the short time they have had to make the necessary preparation.

Refreshments were served by the Girl's Clubs. A traveling show entertained the crowds for an hour and a half in the afternoon and a basketball game was also staged to interest the visitors. About fifteen hundred people were present and the fair of 1922 went into history as having been a distinct success.

Winthrop College Alumnae Organize

On Saturday evening the Winthrop College alumnae of Roanoke Rapids were entertained at a nine o'clock dinner at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Smith. The entire first floor was decorated in garnet and gold, the Winthrop colors, and autumn leaves, candles, etc. carried out the Hallowe'en idea. The first hour consisted of conversation of old times and present college news. Each class, which had a representative present, was called upon to give its songs and yells. The Alma Mater, Athletic Song and College Call were sung by all.

The alumnae association was organized with the following officers: President - Miss Ethel Byrd, Vice president - Miss Annie Workman, Sec. & Treas. - Miss Katharine Mellette, Gleaner - Miss Nancy Beyer. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Coltrane were elected honorary members of the association.

The guests were then ushered to the dining room where the dinner of the following menu was served: Fruit cocktail, baked chicken, dressing, gravy, brown mashed potatoes, creamed asparagus on toast, rolls, butter, olives, fruit gelatin salad, saltines, hot chocolate with marshmallows, orange sherbert, cake, after dinner mints. Misses Helen Jenkins and Hazel Cobb were waitresses and were dressed in Hallowe'en costumes.

Miss Ethel Byrd acting as toastmistress called on the following to give toasts: Miss Annie S. Workman "To our New Winthrop College Club;" Miss Nancy Beyer "To Our College;" and Mr. Coltrane gave one "To the Winthrop Girls."

The place cards read as follows: Misses Annie Workman, Margaret Hodges, Sue Wright, Charlotte Hodges, Christine Temple, Ethel Byrd, Katharine Mellette, Nancy Beyer, Alice Stribling, Edith Keel, Ruby Wheeler, Adele Holman, Mary Keyserling, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Coltrane and Mrs. Charlie Webb.

After singing the College songs again the guests departed feeling that the "get together" had not only renewed their admiration for their Alma Mater but also had created an incentive for the alumnae association to have a monthly repetition of the occasion.

Girl Scout News

The Girl Scout activities are being carried on with much enthusiasm.

On last Friday night the Hallowe'en parties were given by the three girl scout troops.

The Red Rose and Golden-rod troops entertained the Boy Scouts and the members and teachers of the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades. They met first at Central building and later ended the evening's fun around a huge bonfire. Marshmallows were served.

The Pine Cone troop entertained the members and teachers of the 9th, 10th and 11th grades and the Franklin Foot Ball team at the new school. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the event. Fortune telling and games amused the guests. Refreshments consisting of apples, candy and peanuts were served.

At the last regular meeting of the troops the announcement was made that Mr. Sam Patterson had shown his interest by buying uniforms for all members and officers. The uniforms have been ordered and Girl Scouts will soon be recognized by their attractive khaki costume. The scout members and workers would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank Mr. Patterson for his splendid gift which will do much to make possible more effective Girl Scout work.

The J. W. Club Has Hallowe'en Party

On last Wednesday evening the members of the J. W. Club met to enjoy their first party, a Hallowe'en one. The building was beautifully decorated for the event. Much fun was created by the funny costumes. Fortunes were told by Miss Christine Temple after which several games were played. Bobbing for apples created much fun, Peanuts and candy were served after which ghost stories were told ending a very delightful evening.

DENTAL CLINIC

The dental clinic which is being conducted in the Roanoke Rapids Public Schools has had a very successful week in the Central School. The response of parents and children has been splendid. The "dentist's chair" has no horror for the children. Some of the smallest tots have walked up bravely and said, "I want my tooth pulled." Up to this date seventy-five children have been treated. The work will continue in the Central School next week.

Mr. J. D. Muse of Cameron, N. C. is the dentist in charge. He is employed by the State Board of Health and works with the Department of Medical Inspection of Schools. The money for this clinic is appropriated by the State and the service of the dentist is free to all children between the ages of six and thirteen.
