JAIL DELIVERY IN HALIFAX MONDAY

Three Colored Prisoners Make Get Away After Attacking Jailer Richards With Heavy Plate. Trusty Prevents Escape of Others.

LEADER RECAPTURED TUESDAY

For the first time since the county erected its modern, steel celled jail at Halifax, a jail delivery was attempted, partially successfully, late last Monday afternoon. The attempt was staged when County Jailer S. A. Richards unlocked the lower tier of cells for the purpose of locking up a trusty, Howard Clay, for the night. It was about six o'clock in the afternoon and too dark for the jailer to see that all of his boarders were not securely fastened in their cells.

Immediately upon his entry into the partition Mr. Richards was assaulted by three prisoners, Willie Lomax, Togie Lynch, and Willie Wright, all colored. He was struck on the head and wrist with a heavy plate and severely cut and bruised. His assailants secured the keys of the jail and made their get away.

The escape of all the other prisoners in the tier was prevented by the action of the trusty, Clay, in swinging to the spring lock door before the rest of the prisoners could reach it.

Willie Lomax, leader of the gang, was arrested on Tuesday at the home of his inamorata near Littleton, and again placed in durance vile—and permanent too, if Jailer Richards utmost precautions in the future can make it so.

Lomax was serving time for assault with an axe upon some colored friends in this township. Lynch was serving six months sentence for selling whiskey, while Wright was awaiting trial for robbing a Seaboard Air Line freight car at Weldon.

LIGHT DOCKET IN RECORDER'S COURT

It was a light week in the Recorder's Court with only a few cases and those of a minor nature.

John Soney and Mary Wyche, colored, charged with a statutory offense moved over to Halifax jail in default of bonds in the sum of $100.00 each.

So did Alex Walden and Marjiah Jones, likewise colored and charged, in default of bonds in the sums of $100.00 and $50.00 respectively.

Bill Coleman, drunk and disorderly, paid a fine of $10.00 and costs.

Noah and Laura Pierce, charged with indulging in a family row, were dismissed upon the payment of the costs.

W. H. Birdsong donated a dollar and the costs for the privilege of riding on the sidewalk with a bicycle.

Willie Newsome, accused of vagrancy, was given until night fall to choose some other place of rest and go to it.

Thomas Lynch, another sidewalk bicyclist, paid $1.00 and the costs.

THINGS TO FORGET

If you see a tall fellow ahead of a crowd,
A leader of men, marching fearless and proud,
And you know of a tale whose mere telling aloud
Would cause his proud head to in anguish be bowed
—It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a skeleton hidden away
In a closet and guarded and kept from the day
In the dark and whose showing, whose sudden display
Would cause grief and sorrow and lifelong dismay—
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a thing that will darken the joy
Of a man or a woman, a girl or a boy,
That will wipe out a smile or the least way annoy
A fellow or cause any gladness to cloy—
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

LONG - MONCURE

Old Aquia Church, in Stafford County, Virginia, with its altar resplendent in decorations of sweet peas and evergreens, was the scene on January 21st, at 6 P. M., of the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the marriage of Miss Caroline Clark Moncure, daughter of Mr. R. C. L. Moncure, Sr., of Stafford County, to Mr. Willie J. Long, of Garysburg, North Carolina.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. N. Taylor, of Roanoke Rapids, N. C., who accompanied the groom and party to Virginia.

The bride was gowned in a beautiful brocaded white satin with heavy velvet court train, and wedding veil, with crown of lilies of the valley, and corsage bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Virginia B. Moncure, as maid of honor, who was very attractively dressed in yellow satin, wearing a large picture hat and carrying a bouquet of yellow rose buds.

Preceded to the altar by Messrs. James Ashby, Frank P. Moncure, Henry W. Moncure and Louis A. Moncure, attending as ushers, the groom attended by his best man, his brother, Mr. William L. Long, of Roanoke Rapids, N. C., who were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Virginia E. Moncure, the bride was led to the altar and given away by her father, Mr. R. C. L. Moncure, Sr.

Just before the bridal party entered the church Miss Wheeler, of Falmouth, Va., sang "O Promise Me," accompanied by her sister, Miss Wheeler, upon the violin, and by Miss Baseler upon the organ. As the bride entered the church Loehngren's Wedding March was beautifully rendered by Miss Baseler.

Following the ceremony the bridal party, and relatives of the bride and groom repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Moncure, of Stafford, where a buffet supper was tendered the bride by her maternal aunts, Mrs. R. A. Moncure, Mrs. A. J. Pyke, Mrs. H. W. Moncure, Miss M. Pickett Waller, and Mrs. Wm. Wight. Just before supper was served the Misses Wheeler, accompanied by Miss Baseler upon the piano, rendered most beautifully "At Dawning" and "Love Leads the Way," after which a delightful supper was served composed of old Virginia ham, sandwiches, chicken salad, olives and coffee; the wedding cake was then cut by the bride, and served with fruit punch.

At 8:30 P. M., the bride and groom departed for Washington, D. C. where they entrained for Jacksonville, Fla., upon their wedding tour.

After the departure of the bride and groom dancing was indulged in until 12 o'clock accompanied by music of the jazz band from Quantico, Va., Marine Barracks.

Many beautiful wedding gifts of silver and cut-glass were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Long will make their home at Garysburg, N. C.

The out of town guests were Dr. and Mrs. T. W. M. Long, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Long, Dr. F. G. Jarman, Mr. E. H. Ricks and Rev. L. N. Taylor, all of Roanoke Rapids, N. C., Mr. G. K. Burgywnn, Petersburg, Va. and Mr. L. M. Long, Garysburg, N. C.

Dr. and Mrs. Job Taylor Entertain Mme. Lipkowska

A very brilliant and perfectly appointed social function was given Friday night, last, in the Ball Room of "Le Chateau," the Hamilton Street residence of Dr. and Mrs. Job Taylor. This was given in honor of their house guests at the Manor, their Roanoke Avenue residence, Madame Lydia Lipkowska and Mr. Wm. Salzer, of New York.

It was a strictly formal affair. The gentlemen in full evening dress and the ladies in their charming evening gowns, together with the beautiful house decorations and colored light effects made a beautiful occasion long to be remembered by those present.

The guests sat at "Bridge" until 10:30. At this point Madame Lipkowska sang to the charm and delight of the guests, after which dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

Miss Norma Shaw accompanied the Madame and showed her grasp of the technique of the difficult music. She deserves especial commendation for the manner in which she handled the piano.

Through the evening the Weldon orchestra played.

Delicious punch was served in the front lounging room upstairs during the evening. At the proper time dainty refreshments were served.

The News and Observer of January 21st says of this as follows:

"Madame Lydia Lipkowska, the great Russian Prima Donna of New York Metropolitan and Chicago Grand Opera fame, is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Job Taylor of Roanoke Rapids.

A very brilliant function was given by them last night to some hundred and fifty guests, in honor of the madame.

This took place in the Ball Room of their residence "Le Chateau."

Madame Lipkowska rendered a few selections to the cultured audience and thrilled them with the superb quality of her voice.

She gave a variety of songs which brought out the wonderful range of her remarkable voice. From the gentle cooing of the lover to the tragic note of the passionate, she handled with consummate art and skill, swaying her hearers to feelings of pathos or ecstasy as she modulated her voice to express the interpretation.

She demonstrated the pure lyric quality, the wonderful tonal range and remarkable harmonic resonance her great voice possesses in both the higher and lower register.

She is a soprano, who in the peculiar sweetness, strength and harmony, of her voice is without a peer and stands above a range of great artists who have secured fame in the noted opera companies of the United States.

Madame Lipkowska's great work was the creation of the "Snow Maiden" in the imperial Opera House of Petrograd. She too, won lasting fame in Grand Opera in Vienna, Berlin, Monte Carlo, Brussels, Paris, London, New York and Chicago.

She is preparing to give this purely Russian opera next season with the Chicago Opera Co. and the lovers of artistic interpretation, fineness and lyric voice quality are looking forward to hearing her in the "Snow Maiden" on this side.

This was a great event in the social life of Roanoke Rapids.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, there is great suffering among the Jewish people of Europe, thousands of whom are reported as being entirely destitute and in a dying condition, due to the lack of food and other necessities; and

WHEREAS, our own land has been blessed with a prosperity that not only guarantees our own safety, but which enables us, and should impel us, to share our bounties with our less fortunate fellow human beings in other lands;

NOW, THEREFORE, I CAMERON MORRISON, Governor of North Carolina, do hereby set apart by this Proclamation the week beginning Monday, February 6, and ending Sunday, February 19, as Jewish Relief Week. I ask that all newspapers of the State give wide publicity to this week, devoted to such a worthy cause; and I especially ask that on Sunday, February 5, notice be given in all the churches that the following week will be observed as Jewish Relief Week, and that the ministers, Sunday School superintendents and teachers, and others, urge their people to seize this opportunity of helping the suffering and contribute to the relief of these worthy distressed people, so far as their means of relief will permit.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at our City of Raleigh, this sixteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, and in the one and forty-sixth year of our American Independence.

Cameron Morrison,
Governor.

WHY YOU SHOULD BE AN ACTIVE MEMBER OF THE CHURCH

The noblest and strongest characters the world has ever known have been earnest Christians. The Church is the visible means by which GOD has established the Kingdom of Righteousness. Directly or indirectly all Christian influences have come from the organized Church. I would not care to live or bring up children in a place where no Church existed. If everyone should follow the example of the non-church member there would be chaos. It is selfish for me to expect to have the benefits of the Church while I am refusing to identify myself with the Church. I need the Church and the Church needs me, therefore I should join it and do all in my power to establish its influence in the community. The Son of GOD gave His life to redeem me, and invites me to join with Him in the saving of the world—Caswell.

RIP VAN WINKLE

Tony Sarg's Marionettes in Rip Van Winkle, Washington Irving's American folk story, made famous by Joseph Jefferson and perpetuated by George Mitchell, will appear at the Junior-Senior High School Auditorium on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 4th under the auspices of the High School.

On Tony Sarg's miniature stage the many familiar characters will be seen as big as life. There's Captain Hudson and his dwarfish crew of the phantomship, Half Moon, hapless Rip's scolding wife, Nicholas Vedder, the fat innkeeper, Derrick Van Bummel, the learned schoolmaster, little Judith, together with Rip Van Winkle himself, and of course his famous dog, not to particularly mention the rabbit and pig and other friends of Rip.

Although it is generally accepted as a foregone conclusion that the Marionettes will please the children, the audiences that greet these miniature actors always contain a liberal sprinkling of sisters and cousins and aunts to see that the children are personally conducted.

Six hundred strings skillfully manipulated by eight actors who speak the parts, or rather act the roles, keep the little puppets not more than three feet in height, moving amid the most picturesque environment that could be imagined, for all of the scenes, and the costumes, properties and all details are designed especially for this production by Tony Sarg, who makes cartoons for magazines, funny antediluvian movies, illustrations and the like.

There are beautiful illusions including the sailing of the Half Moon up the Hudson, the discovery of the treasure in the cave, in effect the same as the
