Rev. A. G. Carter Protests Appointment of Vest

In Letter to Senator Simmons Rev. A. G. Carter Asks That He do What He can to "Save Us."

MR. SAUNDERS WRITES NEWS

The following from the Greensboro Daily News of March 22, relative to the appointment of the postmaster at Rosemary will be of interest.

Washington, March 21—What probably is one of the most caustic letters ever submitted in a postoffice appointment was made public here today by Senator F. M. Simmons in connection with the effort to defeat the confirmation of John L. Vest as postmaster at Rosemary, N. C.

The communication is from the Rev. A. G. Carter, pastor of the First Baptist church of Rosemary, who declares that it is a "shame" that Mr. Vest has been nominated. He expressed doubt that 15 patrons of the office want Mr. Vest to serve them and alleges that sentiment is strongly in favor of D. P. Wike, a former service man.

The Rosemary pastor asserts that the nominee, Mr. Vest, is "useless to the community." The choice of the Republican organization for the office the pastor says, spends his Sundays going over the community taking pictures and is seldom, if ever, in a church or doing anything for the morals of the neighborhood.

Senator Simmons as well as Representative Claude Kitchin was declared today to be aroused over the Rosemary appointment and determined to fight confirmation in every possible way. It is alleged that Mr. Vest is not satisfactorily identified with the business and civic life of the community, except as "an itinerant fruit tree and horse peddler," and that he has been nominated over a life-long Republican and ex-service man, Mr. Wike.

Rev. A. G. Carter says that he is a Republican but is protesting to Senator Simmons as one interested in the welfare of the community and not in politics. The letter from the Rosemary minister is an unusual document and a vigorous one. As made public by Senator Simmons, the letter with heading and text reads as follows:

"Rosemary Baptist church, Rev. A. G. Carter, pastor, Rosemary, N. C., March 10th, 1922.

"Senator F. M. Simmons, Washington, D. C.

"My Dear Sir:

"I am sure you have received right much mail from this section of the state already in regard to the postoffice at Rosemary, but I want to say in this last appeal, as it seems that something will be done soon, that if you can possibly save us from what seems to be a 'shame' please do so. It is beyond reason to think of a man who has meant so little to a community in every way as Mr. Vest has could get a position over a young man who has stood for everything uplifting, who served in the war, and who made the highest grade of any one in the examination.

"It is true that I voted a Republican ticket and have always done so, but I think I am not writing from a political standpoint—I am thinking of the welfare of the community.

"Mr. Wike has proven to all parties concerned that the people of this community want him to serve them, and I would not be far wrong to say that Mr. Vest could not get 15 people who are recognized as good citizens to say they wanted him in the office.

"I have been here five years and have never heard of Mr. Vest being in a church or having any part in building up the morals of the community. He takes his Sundays in going over the community making pictures.

"If Mr. Vest gets the place it means that a man that has not had a job (only loafing) for about a year, who is as useless to

High School Baseball Team Begins Work

Coach W. A. Simpson of the local high school called the baseball team for practice about ten days ago and the following players reported: Pitchers, Matthews, Welch; Catcher, Edmundson; First baseman, Bray; Second basemen, Wyche, Cannon, Bain, Vincent; Short, Gray; Third baseman, Vaughan; Fielders, Hux Anderson, Speight.

The following schedule of games for the season have been arranged for or are pending:

Missionary Program at Baptist Church

At the eleven o'clock hour Sunday morning, March 26, a missionary program will be rendered at the Baptist Church by members of the Sunday School. The public is cordially invited.

a community as Mr. Vest, will get a place in the office as clerk. If Mr. Wike gets the place it means that a young woman who has been acting as postmaster for the last two years and who has given perfect satisfaction will still have a job.

"Please, sir, if you can save us at this time, do so by getting the people there to give this community the man that they want to serve them, who is Mr. D. P. Wike.

"Yours very truly,
"A. G. Carter."

Of interest to our readers will be the following letter relative to the Vest appointment written by Mr. W. S. Saunders to the Greensboro Daily News.

"Always finding you ready and willing to get before the public facts as regards politics, applicants for office of whatever nature that tends to deal with or affect the public, I herewith submit a few facts in regard to the postoffice and applicants for the said office at Rosemary, N. C. I suppose you have seen and read the misleading and unjust criticism in regard to Mr. John L. Vest, who has been recently appointed Postmaster at Rosemary, N. C.

"They have him classed as an insignificant peddler, but until yet he has never been required to pay a peddler's license. How strange! How wonderfully he has performed to get by in the community without paying a peddler's license!

"Well, honestly speaking, they both, Mr. Vest or Mr. David P. Wike, would in my judgment make an efficient postmaster. They are both, I am sure, good, clever gentlemen.

"As to their examinations, they have practically the same rating, except the five extra points given Mr. Wike for war service. Now I am reliably informed that Mr. Wike never went overseas, and that his work was of a clerical nature.

"As to the letter written by Rev. A. G. Carter to Senator Simmons as a last resort, this letter has not helped Mr. Carter in his ministry here, as it is entirely misleading, and too, the lady to whom he refers that has given such wonderful service to the public is a first cousin of Mr. Carter's wife, and I am informed that should Mr. Wike get the appointment she is to stay on in fact Mr. Carter said so in his letter.

"I am anxious that the Department make an investigation of this matter and do it in the open. I would like to go around with such an agent and see those fellows face to face that are raising such howl.

"There is only one thing that makes Mr. Vest a real bad man that is he is a Republican, otherwise, he would be an ideal man for this post."

LIGHT DOCKET AT MARCH TERM

Halifax Superior Court Finishes Criminal Docket in Three Days. No Major Cases Tried.

CIVIL DOCKET STARTED THURS.

With one of the lightest criminal dockets for several terms, Halifax County Superior Court convened on last Monday, with Judge Oliver Allen, of Kingston, presiding. Cases disposed of during the three day session are as follows:

J. C. Bell, Jr., carrying concealed weapons, $50.00 fine and costs.

D. W. Garner, driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, $25.00 and costs.

W. H. Barnes, reckless driving (running over a child) judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Willie Lomax, assault with intent to kill, was given three years upon the county roads. This sentence was later changed to five years in the State Prison. Lomax is the Littleton negro who frightfully mutilated with an axe a negro storekeeper, Yelloday, on the outskirts of Littleton. Yelloday has been in the Roanoke Rapids Hospital since the commission of the crime several months ago, and the fact that he is alive today is a striking tribute to the skill of the surgeons on the Hospital staff. His entire jaw bone on one side is gone, together with teeth and an eye. He still has a hole in one side of his head which is to be closed by a skin grafting operation. Lomax's sentence was changed upon the attention of the Judge being brought to the fact that he had broken jail by an assault upon the jailer during the latter part of January, being later recaptured.

Sam Jones, assault and battery, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

James Flipp, larceny, sixty days in jail.

Ed Pierson, Roanoke Rapids negro, temporary larceny of an automobile, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Sallie Pilkinton and Vance Lynam, both erstwhile citizens of this community, prostitution, three months in jail for Sallie, two years on the county roads for Lynam. Myrtle Capps, seventeen years old, who pleaded guilty to the same offense in connection with this case, was released in custody of her parents.

E. B. Williams, assault and battery, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Guy Harris, selling whiskey, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

George Ward, assault and battery, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Willie Etheredge, larceny and receiving, six months in jail to be hired out.

Alex Daniel, carrying concealed weapons, three months in jail to be hired out.

D. W. Johnson, on appeal from judgment in Roanoke Rapids Recorder's Court, drunk and disorderly, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

FASHION SHOW

The fashion show recently held in the Auditorium was a success from every stand point. It was given under the auspices of the primary department of the schools and served to show a new side of the versatility of our teaching staff, who served as models for the show.

The costumes shown were from the stocks of B. Marks, Patterson Store Co., Mrs. Kate Jenkins, L. G. Shell Co., G. D. Shell and Miss Annie Medlin. Beautiful suits, frocks and hats for all occasions were exhibited on the models. The display was in keeping with the progressive spirit which animates the town.

The scenes were arranged as incidents in the life of the immortal Jiggs and his family. Jiggs as portrayed by Mr. Ned Manning, Mrs. Jiggs by Miss Christine Temple and the fair daughter by Miss Rouse Hayes were presented in the spirit of the cartoons so successfully as to draw many appreciative laughs from the audience. The wedding scene was ended with a dance by Miss Louise Bain. The lovely movements of the dance and the delicacy and grace of the dancer were much admired.

The receipts from the performance are to be used for some needed primary equipment.

TOWN SCORES FIRST PATTERSON TAX CASE

Judge Instructs Verdict Favor Municipality After Hearing in Superior Court This Morning. Goes to Supreme Court on Appeal.

APPROXIMATELY $3,000.00 IS INVOLVED

The suit of the town of Roanoke Rapids vs Mr. Jno. L. Patterson to collect taxes alleged by the town to be due upon the personal property of the defendant for the year 1920 resulted in a verdict in favor of the town after a hearing before Judge Allen in Halifax Superior Court this morning.

Evidence was introduced to the effect that Mr. Patterson left Roanoke Rapids on January 3, 1920 and has since that time lived in Richmond, Va. Counsel for the municipality argued that as Mr. Patterson was an actual resident of Roanoke Rapids on January 1, 1920, the date provided by law for the listing of property for taxation, he should have so listed, and that the town was entitled to levy and collect on his personal property for the year 1920. The defense argued that Mr. Patterson was not called upon to list personal property with the municipality as he intended to leave the town before January 1, 1920, had procured a residence in Richmond for temporary occupancy after January 1, 1920, and on January 1, 1920, was engaged in the erection of a building in Rosemary, which contained an apartment for his own use and occupation, expecting at that time to make Rosemary his home.

There was no conflict in testimony and after argument by counsel upon the defendant's motion to non suit, the motion was overruled and the jury instructed to bring in a verdict for the town of Roanoke Rapids. The defense appealed to the Supreme Court.

The town was represented by Mr. George C. Green and Messrs. Travis and Travis and W. E. Daniel appeared for Mr. Patterson.

Novel "Pony" Costumes In "Listen To Me"

If pretty girls in beautiful costumes are an asset to a musical play, then "Listen To Me", coming to the Peoples Theatre next Tuesday night March 28th, should stand the stringent test of its daily capacity when it plays this city. Le Comte and Flesher have the chorus girl market seemingly cornered in Chicago when it applies to beautiful girls of artistic ability. This is probably due to the prevailing desire of chorus girls for extended seasons. When other attractions have prematurely closed, Le Comte and Flesher have maintained a season of forty weeks' duration.

The chorus girls in "Listen To Me" have plenty to do for this wonderful extravaganza contains an abundance of work for the singer and dancer. Gorgeous costumes are displayed by them in the many numbers they do. They make their debut in Satan's palace as devilettes in costumes of red satin, forming an impressive picture in support of the gorgeously gowned six temptations. At the North pole they become more pronounced in the Eskimo clothing of white fur trimmed satin frivolously partaking of the midnight frolic, until they forcefully appeal to the appetizing eye costumed in the characteristic of candy in fantastic candyland. The limit of costuming is eventually revealed when these agile and gracious little girls glide merrily into prominence in their silvery lined pale blue satin postman's suits at Cupid's post-office.

It is these clever girls who are responsible for the universal appreciation that has descended upon the success of this delightful musical play, for they are ever before you throughout the superb extravaganza.
