

Bride-Elect Is Feted At Party In Scotland Neck

Scotland Neck—Miss Elizabeth Hines, whose marriage to Gene House will take place December 11 in the First Presbyterian church of Roanoke Rapids, was honored with a supper party at the Holly Oak Club in Scotland Neck last week by Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Winslow.

The living and dining rooms were decorated throughout with pine boughs, oak leaves and fall flowers, creating a lovely autumn setting.

Approximate fifty young friends of Miss Hines and Gene House were present including Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Brower, Jr., of Weldon.

Mrs. John Miller of Bluefield, West Virginia, mother of Mrs. Guy Leedy, came Sunday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Leedy and family of Roanoke Avenue.

Students Give Fashion Review At Club Meeting

Woodland—Mrs. Clyde Jenkins, home economics teacher in the Woodland-Olney School presented a group of her pupils in a fashion review at the meeting of the Woodland Junior Woman's Club, in the Clubhouse Tuesday evening.

Mrs. S. P. Taylor, vice-president called the meeting to order and presided during the routine business session.

Mrs. Raymond Benthall, program chairman introduced Mrs. Jenkins and her class of girls, who have just completed a sewing project.

Jean Page read the fashion forecast and called attention of details of style and workmanship in each garment as it was modeled by the maker. Blouses, skirts and short coats of matching and contrasting fabrics were featured.

Mesdames Dale Bell, Frank Holoman, Betty Page, and Miss Dare Griffin, hostesses, served pie and coffee during the social hour.

Miss Elizabeth Hines spent Monday visiting in Norfolk, Virginia.

Tommy Smith and Miss Dorothy Mountford attended the air show in Rocky Mount Sunday.

Study Club Will Call Off Annual Christmas Meet

The Christmas meeting of the Roanoke Rapids Study Club has been called off out of respect for the late Mrs. A. Meikle, who was a beloved member of this organization. Through the years of its existence, one of the high lights of the club year has been the December meeting traditionally held in the home of Mrs. Meikle.

At their regular meeting Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. M. S. Brown on Roanoke Avenue, it was decided not to have the Christmas meeting this year. However, the club voted to continue its Christmas project of sending gifts to the County Sanatorium in Halifax as a memorial to Mrs. Meikle.

Mrs. Gordon L. Price, president, was in charge and during the business session Mrs. Frank Cole was appointed leader of the Scout troop which the Study Club sponsors.

The opera "Carmen" was the topic for study during the afternoon and paper prepared by Mrs. Almond S. White was read by Mrs. Brown in the absence of Mrs. White.

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed during which a delicious sweet course with coffee was served to the following members: Miss Susan Holladay, Mesdames A. E. Akers, Edmund Berkeley, Dave Clark, L. W. Clements, Cranford Hoyle, Heath Lee, Gordon L. Price, W. A. Thorne, C. A. Wyche and Edward Ford.

Junior Contract Club Meets With Mrs. Burrows

Enfield—The Junior Contract Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Harold Burrows on Friday evening of last week. Arrangements of fall flowers were used throughout the home.

At the close of the game, high score prize was won by Mrs. Collins Cuthrell, and second high and bingo was won by Mrs. Robert Ivey.

A sweet course was served to the following members and guests: Mesdames Leon Madrey, Robert Ivey, J. Q. Hoffer, D. B. Barnes, R. E. Shervette, Jr., T. E. Marshall, W. B. Burchette, Sidney Randolph, Herman Futrell, R. W. Baughman, George Randolph and Collins Cuthrell.

Enfield Baptist Ladies Bible Class Meets

Enfield—The Baptist Ladies Bible Class met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. W. A. Pope on Main Street.

The Thanksgiving motif was carried out in decorations.

Mrs. Stella Broach presided, and Mrs. U. H. Hardison led the devotional. After leading in the opening prayer, Mrs. Hardison read a few verses of scripture and talked on "Prayer and Thanks"—closing her remarks with a Thanksgiving poem.

During the business discussion it was decided to exchange inexpensive Christmas gifts, as in former years, at the December meeting, which will be held in the home of Mrs. Robert Kimball. At this time $13.45 was donated on the Church building fund. A report of the sick was heard, and plans were made for several members to visit the County Home on Tuesday afternoon, at which time they were to carry a basket of fruit to one of the inmates who was sick.

After the meeting was adjourned, games were enjoyed and prizes awarded.

The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Anne Pope, served a sweet course to the following members: Mesdames Stella Broach, C. O. Strickland, T. W. Gray, Joe Marshall, J. E. Condrey, W. H. Twisdale, B. R.
