

LIQUOR SELLERS PLAN TO EVADE LAW

RECENT WILD RUMOR THAT IS BEING TALKED OF IN TAR HEEL STATE.

DECIDE TO MAKE TEST CASE

Story Comes From Well Known Citizen Who Heard Plan Unfolded—
"Reported" Attempt to Open Wholesale Whiskey House in Salisbury.

Charlotte.—Gossip has arrived on the through train from Washington, D. C., to the effect that Washington liquor dealers, representing "unlimited capital," are planning to make an active effort to open up wholesale whiskey houses in several North Carolina cities for distributing liquor in adjoining states.

Report has it that the promoters of the scheme claim that such "right" is conferred by the interstate commerce law bearing on interstate shipments.

"It is said" in a roundabout way that, after conferring with lawyers of the District of Columbia, the whiskey men concerned have made up their minds to make a test of the North Carolina state prohibition law, by opening up first wholesale liquor house in Salisbury; that if it is able to withstand the legal attack that is certain to be made, then other "distributing houses" will be opened in Charlotte and at other points to sell liquor to customers residing in other states.

The story comes through a well-known citizen who heard the plan unfolded by another man, the latter having returned from Washington several days ago, and who, it is understood, is interested in the whiskey business.

It appears that the issue which they propose to force, is out of "dry" territory into another state. The liquor men claim, it is said, that whiskey can be shipped into a "dry" state, the rule must work both ways, and that, under the interstate commerce laws, it can be shipped out of a dry state into another state.

Certain recent decisions in cases coming up from Tennessee and other states, it is understood, have given the Washington liquor men the idea of making this effort.

Politics in Hoke County.

The first Democratic primary held in Hoke county resulted in the nomination of the following officers. These were appointed by the governor under the act creating the county. Capt. Thomas McBryde was named for representative in the legislature. Capt. J. W. McNeil, of Fayetteville, received a majority of 77 votes over Q. K. Nimocks (also of Fayetteville) for state senator from the thirteenth senatorial district, composed of Hoke and Cumberland counties. The nominees for the county officers are: For sheriff, Edgar Hill; clerk, superior court, W. B. McQueen; treasurer, W. J. McCraney; register of deeds, J. M. McNair; coroner, D. K. McDuffie; commissioners: J. W. Johnson, J. A. McPaul, S. J. Cameron.

Blind Tiger Released on Bond.

Horace Melton, the blind tiger, whose last conviction cost the leading witness his life, has been released on a bond of $200 for good behavior during the next two years. Sympathy for the family of the accused man, who is now their only support, caused the action of the court, the sentencing of Clyde Melton, brother of Horace, to the penitentiary for eighteen years, left Melton's mother and other immediate members of the family practically without support.

Special Provision for Extra Funds.

The finance committee of the state board of agriculture made special provision for extra funds for a number of the divisions of the state department of agriculture to carry on their work until the next semi-annual meeting of the board in December.

Safe Cracker is Arrested.

C. C. Campbell, a white man 45 years old, was arrested while robbing a store at Proctorville, ten miles south of Lumberton. He had opened the safe by working the combination. Campbell has but one eye but carries a glass eye in his pocket to be used as occasion requires. He seems to be an old hand at the business, and claimed to be from Mississippi. The pentagony authorities of that state were communicated with and it was learned that a $50 reward was offered for him.

Politics in Henderson County.

The canvass of the returns from the primary held in Henderson county by the executive committee served to show that the primary was only a culling out process by which the greater part of candidates in the field will be eliminated from the second primary. Only two candidates were nominated, these being Dr. W. R. Kirk, for coroner, who had no opposition, and J. B. Patterson, for surveyor, who had little opposition for the reason that no candidate engaged in the conflict against him.

LAND OF THE LONG LEAF PINE

Short Paragraphs of State News That Have Been Gotten Together With Care by the Editor.

Clayton.—The first new bale of cotton in this section was brought in by B. H. Spence, a tenant with C. W. Horne. It graded good middling and sold for 15.15.

Salisbury.—A good roads convention has been called by Chairman J. W. Peeler, of the Rowan county good roads association, to be held at Rockwell September 7th.

Fayetteville.—Judge Stephen C. Bragg convened a one-week term of Cumberland superior court for the trial of criminal cases here. An extraordinarily heavy docket is to be tried, consisting of 132 cases.

Henderson.—A. H. Hoyle came into Henderson, loaded his two-horse wagon with terra cotta pipe and started for his country home. The horse ran away and he was thrown out and crushed to death.

Raleigh.—The state department of agriculture estimate that the condition of cotton has declined during the past ten days something like 15 per cent, from 85 to 80 per cent. This 80 per cent status is applied also to corn and other crops.

Salisbury.—Effective September 1st passenger train No. 21, between Salisbury and Norwood, which leaves Salisbury at 9:20 a. m., will go by way of Whitney. This change is made in the interest of improved service and to accommodate the large number of citizens now gathering at Whitney.

Spencer.—Senator Lee S. Overman accepted an invitation to speak in Spencer on Labor Day. This will be his first appearance in public since leaving the senate chamber at Washington. Among the other speakers for the day will be State Treasurer R. B. Lacy.

Mount Airy.—The meeting of the farmers union here was attended by a goodly number of the leading farmers. The organization has fully determined to operate a dry prizer at this place. Some of the members are of the opinion that it might be best to continue the warehouse also, but this will be decided later.
