

INSPECT FARM LIFE SCHOOLS

SUPERINTENDENT JOYNER AND A COMMITTEE LEAVE ON INSPECTION TOUR.

TO BE ESTABLISHED SOON

Craven County School First Under Act of the 1911 Legislature—To Get Information in Regard to Planning Farm Life School.

Raleigh.—The members of the board of trustees of the Farm Life School of Craven county, Dr. J. Y. Joyner and Dr. D. H. Hill, left for Baltimore to inspect the agricultural high school of Baltimore county at Sparks, and to visit other noted farm life schools of the country with a view to getting ideas, information and suggestions for the planning of the farm life school for Craven county, which is to be established now as speedily as possible.

This Craven school is to be the first under the general act of the 1911 legislature. After the $15,000 bonds were voted by the county, there was litigation as to the constitutionality of the act instituted by the purchasers of the bonds to test their validity. The supreme court has sustained the act and the validity of the bond issue.

So there is to be no further delay in establishing the school.

It is the determination of the Craven county and the state educational authorities to make it an effective demonstration of the possibilities there are in the farm life school act, whereby the counties can establish schools and provide a portion of the maintenance fund, and receive from the state an annual appropriation of $2,500.

Hazers Injure A Student.

In the light of recent college hazing developments in this state and the determined movement likely to result for ending for all time this practice in North Carolina, there is special interest in the fact just developed at Raleigh that Russell Ferrall, a freshman at Wake Forest College, is recovering in the infirmary there from the effects of hazing. He is a son of Prof. W. J. Ferrall of Meredith College, Raleigh. Nothing heard from him here for several days there was special inquiry made of the college authorities about him and the information came that he was laid up in the infirmary as the result of hazing.

To Ask Pardon For Old Negro.

Governor Kitchin when he comes to Fayetteville to make a campaign speech will hold a hearing of the petitioners who are requesting the pardon of John Dunn, a respectable Fayetteville negro, who was condemned to the roads for 12 months on the charge of retailing after his case had been fought from the magistrate's court to the doors of the highest tribunal in the land, the United States supreme court. The petition for the pardon of Dunn, who is sixty years old and is said to be in bad health, is signed by some two-score business and professional men.

To Work Roads by Taxation.

Under Iredell county's new road law, ratified by the voters when the $400,000 in bonds was voted for road improvement, all roads of the county will hereafter be worked by taxation the new law becoming effective this month, when the old system was abandoned. A network of fine roads is being built throughout the county under the bond issue and the county commissioners held a special meeting and made provision for the upkeep of all the public roads by appointing paid overseers for each township, whose business it will be to look after the roads of their respective townships.

Extend Scope of Animal Husbandry.
A joint committee from the state board of agriculture and the A and M. College has elected Prof. D. T. Gray director of animal husbandry for the college and the department of agriculture. For seven years he has been professor of animal husbandry in the Alabama Agricultural College. The A. and M. College and department of agriculture are planning to greatly extend the scope of animal husbandry, both in college course, and in an effort to advance practical stock raising.

The Men Who Succeed
as heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. E. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders, and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

Who are The Money Makers ??

You will say the big rich men whose homes are known to everybody.

Not so. Many large enterprises are financed by the savings of clerks, work people—the masses who deposit part of their income in savings banks.

Little savings reach large aggregates wonderfully fast. Little extravagances multiply into large losses.
