A distinct earthquake shock was felt in Central Georgia. As far as could be learned no damage was done to property or life, although nerves were badly rattled and buildings, especially those of frame construction in Macon, quivered slightly. A wedding was in progress in Macon at the time and the shock halted the ceremony until the bride could be resuscitated.

The schooner L. M. Dantzer was boarded and searched at Mobile, Ala., by United States revenue officials, and, although the government officials refuse to make any statement, it is said upon good authority that munitions of war destined for Mexico were found on board. The Dantzer was searched some time ago by the revenue cutter Winona at Pascagoula, but nothing suspicious was found. Captain Fremont, a commander well known in Southern ports, was said to have been in charge of the Dantzer, but Washington officials have been unable to reach him.

As the result of racial troubles at Coalmont, Tenn., seven miles north of Tracy City, one negro coke puller is dead and two others wounded and S. Crick, a white miner, is shot through the knee, according to a special to Nashville, Tenn., from Tracy City. More than two hundred shots were exchanged. Sheriff Shrum and a posse of deputies have the situation in hand and further trouble is not expected.

"Goodbye, dear; something dreadful is going to happen." With these words, J. E. Herworth, an electrical helper, fired a shot through his temple as he faced a telephone, while talking to his sweetheart, Miss Agnes Fromm in Milwaukee. Herworth called the girl over long distance telephone from Fon Du Lac, Wis., and questioned her some time relative to her love for him. He was engaged to the girl and expected to be married in a few months.

Hans Gericke, winner of last year's international balloon race, and Lieutenant Stelter, who were killed by the bursting of their balloon while making a flight near Grossenhain, Germany, showed that they were three miles above the ground when the accident occurred. STEEL TRUST BACK OF T. R. TRUST PLAN

Charge Challenged, Gov. Wilson Returns With Prompt and Convincing Answer.

COUNTRY WAITED FOR CLASH

Wondered if It Was to Produce a Parallel of Parker Episode—More Proof if It Is Wanted.

When the country read on the morning of Oct. 8 the charge of Woodrow Wilson before his audience in Colorado that the steel trust is back of the Roosevelt program of trust regulation and in the same papers Colonel Roosevelt's demand for proof of the assertion it sat up and took notice. Would this produce a parallel of the famous episode of the 1904 campaign, when the colonel called Judge Parker a liar for asserting (what has been so recently proved) that the corporations were contributing to the Roosevelt campaign?

There was eager waiting for Governor Wilson's answer. It came promptly the next day in his speech at Kansas City. Concisely, convincingly and dispassionately Governor Wilson met the Roosevelt challenge, and should the controversy be pressed further the Democratic candidate will give the Ball Moore all he wants, for the corroboration whereof he spoke is abundant.

Wilson's Charge.

At Pueblo, the center of the western steel industry, Governor Wilson said: "Evidence of what I am about to say comes to me by way of corroboration every day in forms that I cannot question. It is a very interesting circumstance that the United States Steel corporation is behind the third party program with regard to the regulation of the trusts.

"Now, I do not say that to prejudice you. I am perfectly ready to admit that the officers of that corporation may think that the third party is the best thing for the United States. That is not my point. My point is that these gentlemen have grown up in the atmosphere of the things they themselves have created and that the laws of the United States so far have attempted to destroy the things that they have created and that they now want a government which will perpetuate the things they have created.

Roosevelt's Challenge.

The same night at Albany, N. Y., Colonel Roosevelt upon reading reports of Governor Wilson's speech said:

"As far as I know the statement has not the slightest foundation in fact. Mr. Wilson has no business to make such a statement unless he has the proof, and if he has any proof I demand that he make it public immediately. If he has not let him retract his statement as the only manly and honorable thing to do."

Wilson's "Retort Courteous."

The next night Governor Wilson made this reply before the great audience that greeted him in Kansas City:

"I understand from the newspaper reports that Mr. Roosevelt was distressed by my suggestion the other day that the United States Steel corporation was back of his plan for controlling the trusts. He interpreted my remark to mean that they were supporting him with their money. I was not thinking about money.

"I do not know whether they are supporting him with their money or not. It does not make any difference. What I meant was that they are supporting him with their thought, and their thought is not our thought. I meant, and I say again, that the kind of control which he proposes is the kind of control that the United States Steel corporation wants.

"I am perfectly willing to admit that they think it is the best for the country. My point is that this is a method conceived from the point of view of the very men who are to be controlled and that that is just the wrong point of view from that to conceive it.

"If Mr. Roosevelt is willing to have Mr. Perkins suggest how the corporations ought to be regulated why will he not be willing to take suggestions from the same quarters as to the details of the regulation? Mark you, ladies and gentlemen, I am not discussing individuals. I know Mr. George Perkins. I have no quarrel with anything except his judgment. He does not look at these things in the way men who do not wish to accustom their minds to monopoly look at them."

GOOD ROAD FOR RANDOLPH

Have Built Excellently Graded and Gravelled Road From County Seat to Montgomery County Line.

High Point.—The citizens of Asheboro and Randolph county have built an excellently graded and gravelled road from their county seat to the Montgomery county line. This connects with a splendid road across Montgomery and Moore counties all the way to the Cumberland county line. This new road will be extended soon from Asheboro north to Randleman, and from there very likely still farther north to Greensboro. In whatever direction extended, however, it will be within eight miles of macadam at Archdale, and it is the opinion of High Pointers that High Point should arrange to put this eight miles in proper condition. It is very probable that as soon as the Winston road is completed, which will be soon, the building of this new connection and the strengthening of the Asheboro road all along the line will be taken up.

Appropriation For State Militia.

The secretary of war announces the allotment among the several states and territories of the fund appropriated by the last Congress for the maintenance and outfitting of the organized militia. The North Carolina soldiers will receive $76,963.61. Thirty-one thousand three hundred and fifty-three dollars of this sum is to be used in purchasing ammunition and supplies and $45,610.01 for camp purposes and the promotion of rifle practice. The total appropriation for the United States is $4,000,000 and the allotment for each state is based on the enlisted strength of its militia.

Fifth District Republicans Meet.

The Fifth district Republican executive committee in session at Greensboro named C. W. Curry of Greensboro as the candidate for Congress to oppose Major Stedman. Mr. Curry has been a citizen of Greensboro several years coming here from Philadelphia. He is a traveling representative for bridge material and supplies, and was an unsuccessful candidate for election as a city commissioner of Greensboro two years ago.

Formation of State Baseball League.

A conference will be held in Greensboro to consider a movement looking to the formation of a state baseball league. If Raleigh and Durham will take franchises and put teams in the field, the league is regarded as assured, as Wilmington and Asheville are anxious to get in the game. Winston-Salem, Charlotte and Greensboro are ready to co-operate with the other towns named in organization of the proposed league.

Western Carolina Colt Association.

A novel and entirely new show for North Carolina was pulled off at Mooresville when 64 finely-bred colts were exhibited at the first meeting of Western Carolina Colt Association. The attendance was large and there were no colts entered for prizes except those under one year, although there were quite a large number brought to the show that range from two to three years of age, for which there were no prizes but special mention was made.

Report Is Without Foundation.

Collector G. H. Brown, asked about the reported removal of the office of collector of internal revenue from Statesville to Charlotte, expressed his surprise and said that the question was the first intimation that he had received of such a thing, and that, so far as he knew, the report was absolutely without foundation.

Return True Bill Against Carr.

The grand jury returned a true bill charging embezzlement against E. F. Carr, the express messenger, who was found in a chest in his car when the train pulled into the Asheville station. At the time Carr declared that a masked robber had boarded his train at Biltmore and at the point of a pistol had compelled him to turn over a package of money. Afterwards, under alleged third degree methods of Southern Railway Company's officers he told a different tale and was held under bond.

Unveiling to be November 21.

The monument to the Confederate heroes of Gaston county, which has been erected on the grounds at the court house at Gastonia will be unveiled November 21. It was first decided to have this exercise this month but owing to a delay in receiving the life-size figure of a Confederate soldier which is to be placed on the cap of the monument, the date of the unveiling had to be changed. A splendid program is being arranged by the Gastonia chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Saved By His Wife.

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. Ding's New Discovery," writes Mr. F. "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me."
