Increasing Values

You're right on the eve of a new advertising era. It will be as big as you care to make it—or as small.

Advertising is one of the greatest forces in the world. Advertising has accomplished purposes which no other agency has ever been capable of doing.

The printed word reaches farther, is more effective and brings things to pass more quickly and satisfactorily in almost every instance than the spoken message.

You will agree that the great Liberty loan and various other war work drives were brought to a satisfactory conclusion through the printed message in the newspapers of the country. You will also agree that it is the only agency that could have accomplished so great a task in so short a period of time.

Think of the many millions of dollars that have been passed along to the aid of Uncle Sam and his great cause in behalf of humanity. Newspaper advertising played an important part in every drive; in fact, it may be safe to say that the newspapers were potent factors in each and every undertaking looking toward the comfort and maintenance of our troops abroad as well as those of our camps and cantonments in this country.—Asheville Citizen.

Hamrick-Gordon

Mr. Cuber Hamrick and Miss Lillie Gordon stole a march and surprise on their many friends by getting married last Sunday afternoon in the Island Ford road, near Mrs. Julia Huntley's on R-1. Mr. Hamrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hamrick of the Mt. Olivet section. He was educated at Piedmont High school and is an industrious young man. Mrs. Hamrick is the accomplished daughter of 'Squire and Mrs. Lee R. Gordon of Hollis. She was educated at Hollis. Both the bride and groom are from two of the county's best families and have a host of friends who wish them much joy and success on their journey through life.

Auto Collides With Buggy

What came near being a serious accident but was not, occurred Saturday morning between the Seaboard depot and Spindale when a Willis-Knight car driven by Mr. John Miller collided with a buggy whose occupants were two young ladies. Mr. Miller attempted to pass the buggy when there was another car on the road, opposite the buggy. Both left wheels of the buggy were torn off, the rear axle was bent but the ladies escaped unhurt. The car was not damaged. It is said that both cars were going rapidly and in opposite directions. No one was hurt.

REV. A. J. VALLERYMAKES STATEMENT*Says Tanlac Has Overcome His Troubles And He Feels Like a New Man

"I feel that it would be helping others to tell what Tanlac has done for me," said Rev. A. J. Vallery, living at 834 Chelsea Ave., Memphis, Tenn.

"About three years ago," he continued, "I had a general breakdown that made me very nervous. I had a sour stomach and would spit up undigested food. The pains in my stomach hurt so at times that I thought they would kill me. I also suffered with rheumatic pains in my joints and my kidneys were in bad shape, my sleep was poor and I felt so tired all the time that I could not do my work."

"Since taking Tanlac I have been relieved of indigestion and those pains are all gone. My kidneys don't trouble me any, I am not nervous like I was and I can sleep fine every night. My strength and energy have been restored and I feel like a new man."

Tanlac is sold in Rutherfordton by the Thompson-Watkins Co., by the Robinson Co., and leading druggists everywhere.

Golden Rule Of Three

Federal Prison New Era.

Three things to be—pure, just, honest.

Three things to govern—temper, tongue, conduct.

Three things to have—courage, affection, gentleness.

Three things to love—the wise, the virtuous, the innocent.

Three things about which to think—life, death, eternity.

Three things to despise—cruelty, arrogance, ingratitude.

Three things to admire—dignity, gratefulness, intellectual power.

Three things for which to wish—health, friends, contentment.

Three things for which to fight—honor, home, country.

Three things to give—alms to the needy, comfort to the sad, appreciation to the worthy.

Three things to desire—the blessings of God, an approving conscience, the fellowship of the good.

Three things for which to work—a trained mind, a skilled hand, a regulated heart.
