

WEDDING BELLS RING
Wheat Yield—Ice Cream Supper—Ball Game
 (Special to The Sun).
FOREST CITY, R-1, July 14.—The threshers were most welcome in the community during the past week. The wheat yield should open our eyes to the apparent need of the soil. Land heavily manured and fertilized with guano, produced less than ten bushels per acre. One farmer sowed four acres and lined one which produced as much as the other three acres heavily manured and fertilized.

Married at the home of Mr. John Thomas on Sunday, July 13th, Mr. Sam Medford and Miss Nannie Hill. The young couple are well and favorably known and we wish them much happiness.

The ice cream supper at the Spring was enjoyed by many people. The proceeds amounted to twenty-four dollars and twenty-seven cents.

A ball game was played between Avondale and Sulphur Springs Saturday afternoon, the score being seven to six in favor of Avondale. Another game was played between Sulphur Spring and Piney Ridge in which the score stood eight to three in favor of Sulphur Spring.

There was an all day service at Sulphur Spring church Sunday. Rev. T. Harris filling his regular appointment and Profs. Blanton of Caroleen and Ray of Chesnee conducting the song service. Prof. Hildebrandt, who was unavoidably delayed en route, will be present to begin the normal course Monday.

Mr. Gus Martin and Miss Ethel Holmes were married Sunday, July 13th. Miss Holmes was reared in Sulphur Spring community in the home of Mr. Avery Henson. Mr. Martin is the son of Mr. William Martin. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom's father. Their many friends wish the young couple a long and prosperous journey through life.

Miss Margaret Young, returned from Union Mills Friday, where she attended the summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Biggerstaff, Mrs. Ida Blanton and Mr. and Mrs. Don Melton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Young, Sunday.

Mrs. G. Nelson of Spartanburg, visited her sister, Mrs. A. C. Mc-

Mahan Sunday.
 Mr. Oscar Henson and family of Greens, S. C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Henson.

CONCERT
Oxford Orphans Coming Next Monday Night

The Oxford Orphanage Singing Class will give a concert in the school auditorium, Monday, July 21, at 8:30 p. m. It is to be hoped that our people will turn out in large number to hear these children, who represent a most worthy cause. A splendid program has been arranged and the Orphanage children always do themselves credit. The concert is well worth more than the admission charged.

The demands upon all the Orphanages in the State for admission of destitute, needy children are, perhaps, greater than ever before, due to the fact that many children were left fatherless and homeless on account of that dreadful scourge of influenza last fall. By giving concerts from place to place the Oxford Orphanage, which takes in children of every class, whether children of Masons or not, is enabled to care for a larger number than could otherwise be admitted. Your presence at the concert will encourage the children and friends who are trying to get out a large attendance.

Miss Beason Entertains
 Miss Jim Beason entertained Saturday afternoon from three to six o'clock in honor of her charming little guest, Miss Mary Frances Green of Clifftide. Many games were played. Miss Carrie Beason assisted by Mrs. Beason served ice cream and cake. Those invited were: Misses Mary Frances Green, Helen Dobbins, Emma Justice, Lottie Harden, Doris Bell, Helen Justice, Johnie Lee McMurry, Nell Miller, Grace Harrill, Jim Beason, and Charles and rFances Justice.

Election Carried
 The special tax election at Gray's Chapel last week carried by a vote of 23 for and 8 against the levy. The people of Gray's Chapel, which is near the Polk county line are to be congratulated for they voted the limit, i. e. 50c on the $100 and $1.50 on the poll. Who is next?

SOLDIER RETURNS
Mrs. Jenkins Ill—Farmers Are Busy—Personals
 (Special to The Sun).

FERRY, July 14.—Miss Elora Alexander of Shelby spent a few days with her brother, Mr. W. P. Alexander last week. She was accompanied by her niece, Little Ethel and her nephew, Master Charles. She returned home Saturday, Charles remaining here for some time.

Mr. Grover L. Wood reached home last week from France where he had seen ten months service with the 81st division.

Mr. Hoyle Webster arrived from overseas last Thursday. Mr. Webster volunteered his services before the draft law became effective.

We are sorry to announce that Mr. R. S. Jenkin's mother is very sick at this time. She is a very old lady, being somewhere in her nineties.

The farmers are rushing between rains to get their crops laid by and most of them are through except plowing their cotton again.

Mr. J. C. Roach spent Saturday night and Sunday at Mr. Lloyd Williams' at Harris. His son, Mr. Roscoe Roach arrived at Mr. Williams' from France, Saturday and the father hastened at once to see him.

Mr. J. B. Mooney and family spent Sunday afternoon at Mrs. J. A. White's.

STOCKHOLDERS MEET
A Romantic Marriage—Likes Sun—Other News.

CAROLEEN, July 14.—The stockholders of the Henrietta Mills held a very pleasant and sanguine meeting here last week.

They found this large plant doing well on all lines of progress and growing in this prosperous field of the new business world.

Most of the families of Caroleen are now enjoying the bright light of The Rutherford Sun. We congratulate the good people of Rutherford county upon the efficient use they are making of the editor of The Sun in transforming the business of the county.

A romantic marriage took place at the Davis residence Sunday which will not appear in The Sun until certain companions of the groom return from France.
 S. M. DAVIS.

I buy all kinds of roots and herbs, if well dry and free from dirt.
 This week, we have a new car load furniture, cook stoves, ranges, etc. We will sell these at a cut price, instead of keeping for fall trade. If you want to sell pigs, or buy pigs, Hollis is the place. We buy pigs and always have a good lot of our own raising to sell. Any color or size you want.

We save you from $25 to $50 on each casket bought from us and we have a good truck and will deliver them anywhere within 100 miles of Hollis. We keep the medium grades as well as the most expensive. You will find gray vaults, made of steel, also copper coffins and vaults at Hollis. We set the price on produce and buy anything you have to sell for cash or trade.
