MT. PLEASANT NEWS

Birthday Dinner—Pounding— Demonstrator Needsd

(Special to The Sun).
FOREST CITY R-1, Dec. 1.—Thanksgiving was spent pleasantly by most of the people of the community. The service at the church adding to the day.

Rev. A. H. Sims, the pastor, being in the community, had services Friday and Saturday evenings at 7:30 p. m. and Sunday at 11 a. m.

The members of Mt. Pleasant church pounded the pastor Thursday. Misses Estelle and Annabell Logan spent the week end at home.

Misses Geneva Allison and Thelma Grant, of Old Fort, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Misses Ida Cannon and Selma Price.

The friends of Mr. A. D. Lancaster surprised him with a birthday dinner Sunday. Every one went away feeling good and wishing him many happy birthdays.

Messrs. Clyde and Francis Holland returned last week from the Farm school at Asheville.

Mr. Basil Horn, of Forest City, was seen in Sandy, Much Sunday afternoon.

We shall be glad to see our Home Demonstrator. The people are realizing how bad she is needed.

Mr. J. S. Morgan went to Pitts, N. C., Sunday.

Miss Louise Rollins spent the week end at home.

Miss Leona Holland spent the day with Miss Dorothy McDaniel Sunday. Mount Pleasant is expecting to sing at High Shoals, Sunday Dec. 7.

JUBILEE AT HOLLIS

Celebration And Thanksgiving At Hollis Saturday Night

(Special to The Sun).
HOLLIS, Dec. 1.—Big Springs church held a rally on November 30. Mr. Sanky Blanton, who is attending school at Piedmont High School, did the speaking. After the speech the church raised $2,833.00. Only about one half the members were out. The committee will see the rest and make it $3,800.00 or $4,000.00 on the $75,000,000 campaign.

We have already paid in cash and bonds and stamps our part in the million dollar campaign and had a nice sum left to be added to the other objects.

Big Springs has a move on, and will meet at Hollis Saturday night, Dec. 6th and have a Thanksgiving meeting and celebrate our success in going beyond the top in both drives. We have a good pastor and his salary will be raised again.

When all help, much can be accomplished. This community has the cash and does not mind spending it when necessary.

There will be speaking and music Saturday night.

Mr. J. P. D. Withrow will treat the crowd. It will be a grand jubilee and thanksgiving. Everybody is invited to be present.

Miss Lovelace Entertains

(Special to The Sun).
CLIFFSIDE, Dec. 1.—Miss Julia Lovelace entertained a number of her friends at her home on Park Ave. Saturday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Blanche, who is home on a visit from Union Mills.

Many interesting games were played, after which delicious refreshments were served consisting of fruits, cake and candy.

Those invited were: Misses Ella Melton, Josephine Hunt, Edna Blanton, Annie Padgett, Mabel Campbell, Mary Sue Green, Ethel Bridges, Lillie Jarrett, Ophelia Green, Pantha Smart, Alma Freeman, from Rutherfordton, and Beatrice Hawkins, of Avondale. Messrs. Middleton Williams, James Blanton, Flay Freeman, Clarence Collins, Dewey Blanton, Worth Williams, Burgin Wilson, Clarence Campbell, Baxter Splawn, Bewrette Erwin, Howard Green, George Pruett, and Mr. Bridges, from Ellenboro.

—Born to Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Queen on Rutherfordton R-3, a fine daughter last Tuesday night.

ROBBINS-McMAHAN

Prominent Couple Wed—New Home—Personals

(Special to The Sun).

FOREST CITY R-1, Dec. 1.—A marriage of which will be of much interest to the friends of the contracting parties was that of Mr. J. M. Robbins and Mrs. Eva D. McMahan, which was solemnized at Sulphur Springs Baptist church Sunday at 11 a. m. Rev. J. T. Harris performed the ceremony in a most impressive manner.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, where a delicious course dinner was served to the following guests: Rev. J. T. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robbins and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Robbins and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wall, Misses Ruby Robbins, Lou Miller and Minnie Hunt-singer, Mrs. G. Nelson, Master Guy Nelson and Mrs. M. M. Young. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins will make their home at the groom's old home place. They are both prominent and well known. We wish for them a long life and much happiness.

Mr. L. G. Allen will move to the residence occupied by Mrs. Eva D. McMahan and Mr. Roy Hardin will occupy the home vacated by Mr. Allen.

Mr. L. R. Rollins will occupy the hotel at Sulphur Spring, where he has taken charge of the store. Mr. Robbins is a bright young business man and we wish him success in his new undertaking.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wall will move to their new bungalow in the flat wood.

Miss Mary Wood, of Fairview, was the guest of Mrs. L. R. Robbins last week.

Mr. Lemuel Robbins spent his Thanksgiving with homefolks.

Miss Ollie Teal spent the week end with her parents at Forest City.

Mr. Matt Strickland and wife, of Hawkinsville, Ga., are the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Grayson Blake.

We note with pleasure that The Sun's "Hump" continues to grow, especially when a new name appears on Forest City R-1.

Willie's Prayer

Dear Santa Claus prayed little Will,
In words truly shocking,
I've been a good boy,
So please fill heaping up this stocking
I want a drum to make pa sick,
And drive my mamma crazy,
I want a doggie I can kick
So he will not get lazy.

I want a pistol I can shoot
Right at my sister Annie,
And a trumpet I can toot
Just awful loud at granny.

I want a nice hard rubber ball
To smash all into flinders
The large mirror in the hall
And lots and lots of windows.

I want a little hatchet too,
So I can do some chopping
Upon our grand piano new
When mama goes a shopping.

I want some candy that will make me sick
So ma all night will hold me,
And make pa get the doctor quick
And never try to scold me.

And Santa Claus, if pa says I'm naughty,
Just tell him its a story,
And if he whips me I'll die,
And go to kingdom glory,
Amen.

—ANONYMOUS.

HARRIS-HEMPHILL

Young Lady Buried— Moving—Sickness—Personals

(Special to The Sun).

UNION MILLS R-1, Dec. 1.—We are sorry to not that Mr. Elijah Parker is quite sick. Dr. Buchanan has been called in to see him. Also the little son of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Harris. We wish for them a speedy recovery.

Amie Sue Hemphill, fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hemphill, of Marion, was buried in the Cove cemetery last week. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor Rev. J. I. Bowden. The parents, relatives and friends have our deepest sympathy.

Messrs. Ernest and Yates Hemphill, of Asheville, are visiting relatives and friends in the Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Verno Harris made a business trip to Rutherfordton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harris have moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. Joe Taylor and family, who have moved to Forest City. The young people of this community gave them a serene Saturday night.

Miss Nannie Rhodes has been seriously sick for some time. Her many friends wish to see her out again soon.

Misses Lillian and Clara Harris spent Thanksgiving with home folks.

Mr. Clark Harris and Miss Carrie Hemphill stole a march on their many friends and were happily married at Forest City November 20th, immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for Knoxville, Tenn., where they will make their future home. Mr. Harris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Harris and holds a position with the Knoxville Railway and Light Company. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hemphill, both of this community. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy, prosperous married life.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and relatives for their kindness and much appreciated help shown us during the sickness of our little son, Raymond, also the death and burial of our darling Merriman. The flowers were much appreciated.
