RUTHERFORD, N. C. THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1869.

Virginia Election.

The reconstruction election in Virginia, took place on the 6th. We see by the telegrams of the Associated Press, and a special to the Raleigh Sentinel, that the democrats have carried the State. Electing Walker, and a majority of the Legislature. If Virginia can stand it, we can. "Ephraim is joined to his idols."

Northern Elections.

Governor Geary, of Pennsylvania; Governor R. B. Hayes, of Ohio; and Governor Chamberlain, of Maine, have been re-nominated for Governor. The elections take place this Fall. There is no doubt of the success of the republican ticket in all of the States mentioned.

The National Debt.

We have before us the monthly statement of Mr. Boutwell, Secretary of the United States Treasury. The National Debt has been reduced since the first of March, (four months). Thirty-six millions four hundred and sixty thousand four hundred and seventy-nine dollars. At this rate, the Debt will be reduced one hundred millions a year. Good for Mr. Boutwell. We hope that weekly sales of Gold and the buying of United States Bonds, with the proceeds, will be kept up, and made as large as possible. Economy in running the government, and a rigid collection of the revenue, will decrease the Debt, lessen the interest and strengthen the National credit.

Terrible Disaster Near Richmond, Virginia.

A terrible accident occurred at a barbeque given to the Walker colored men on Kitchens Island, adjacent to Vauxhall's Island, Richmond, Va., on the 2nd inst. A suspension bridge about fifty feet long and five feet wide connected the island. It appears that it was the intention to admit none but those who had tickets; but it appearing that a great many Walker men had no tickets, the order was given for all to be allowed to cross. This was done, and the crowd being so large the bridge gave way. Mr. James R. Branch, Politician Kirkland, Peter Campbell, colored, Robert Ashley, and Mr. Lotsey, were killed. Several were severely wounded. This is a day of re-joicing was turned into mourning.

The Cuban Revolution.

The island of Cuba bids fair to successfully assert its independence. Within the last six weeks, men, money, and ammunition, to a large amount, have reached Cuba; and the drooping courage, and hitherto unsuccessfull insurgents, have regained their courage, and defeated the Spaniards in every encounter. The cruelties which have characterized the arms of Spain, are too revolting to be mentioned. The days of the infamous Inquisition, are hardly sufficient to rival the recent outrages practised by the corrupt minions of kingly power. We earnestly hope that the day will speedily arrive, when every Spaniard will be forced to return where he belongs, and Cuba, glorious, fertile, rich, exuberant Cuba, will become a part of these United States.

The Interest on the State Debt.

The first day of July has passed, and the interest on the public debt of the State is unpaid. We do not propose to denounce any officer of the State government for neglect of duty, but we do think arrangements could have been made to pay the January and July interest. A bill was passed authorizing the Public Treasurer to borrow money at a rate of interest not to exceed eight per cent, for the purpose of paying the interest as it became due. We are totally unprepared to believe that the State of North-Carolina cannot borrow as much money as she may need for this purpose. The finances of the State are in the hands of the dominant party, and the people will hold that party to a strict account of its doings with regard to the credit of the State.

Something New under the Sun.

The Raleigh Sentinel in announcing a meeting to be held in that city to select delegates to nominate a candidate for the Senate, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Col. R. I. Wynne, calls the democrats "conservative constitutional Union men." We would suppose on the part, they are conservative because they are so very peaceable; that they are constitutional because they never tried to trample the Federal and State constitutions under foot; that they are for the Union, because they loved it so well that they never seceded from it. Come, Joe Turner, you can't fool the people with a name that bears the marks of any thing but the truth. Try again. Got a new Ticker, may be you will do better.

The Duties of the Executive and Superintendent of Public Works.

It is important that the duties of these two offices be properly understood, that the object of the framers of our State Constitution be carried out. The Constitution article III, Executive Department, commencing at section five, says:

Sec. 5. The Governor shall reside at the seat of government of this State, and shall from time to time give the General Assembly information of the affairs of the State, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall deem expedient. Sec. 6. The Governor shall have power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons, after conviction, for all offences, (except in cases of impeachment,) upon such conditions as he may think proper, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law relative to the manner of applying for pardons. He shall annually communicate to the General Assembly each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon, stating the name of each convict, the crime for which he was convicted, the sentence and its date, the date of commutation, pardon, or reprieve, and the reasons therefor.

Sec. 7. The officers of the Executive Department and of the Public Institutions of the State shall at least five days previous to each regular session of the General Assembly severally report to the Governor, who shall transmit such reports with his comments to the General Assembly. The Governor may at any time require information in writing from the officers in the Executive Department upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices, and shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

Sec. 8. The Governor shall be commander-in-chief of the militia of the State, except when they shall be called into the service of the United States. Sec. 9. The Governor shall have power extraordinary occasions by and with the advice of the Council of the State to convene the General Assembly, in extra session by his proclamation, stating therein the purposes for which they are thus convened.

Sec. 10. The Governor shall nominate and by and with the advice and consent of a majority of the Senate elect, appoint all officers whose offices are established by this constitution, or which shall be created by law, and whose appointments are not otherwise provided for, and no such officer shall be appointed or re-elected by the General Assembly.

It will be seen that the control and supervision of the Public Works of the State are not placed in the hands of the Executive. Not one word is said concerning the Internal Improvements of the State. It is reasonable to suppose from the nature of the office of Superintendent of Public Works, that the control heretofore exercised by the Executive over these works, ceased with the adoption of our present Constitution.

The management and supervision of the works of Internal Improvement in which the State is interested, is a matter of vital importance. The office of Superintendent of Public Works was created for the purpose of relieving the Executive of the duties and responsibilities connected with these works, and to place them directly under the control and supervision of an officer who would be compelled to give them his whole attention, and, if possible, make them pay the State a handsome revenue. It is well known that the Executive has not time to superintend these works. The legitimate duties of the Executive office are sufficient to keep that officer employed all his time without the addition of the supervision of the Internal Improvements, and other works of the State.

He was not required to give any personal attention to these works. Hence, it is that the State has received very little revenue from the corporations to which State aid has been extended. Money has been invested, the credit of the State loaned interest paid, and no material aid returned to the State.

We are entering upon a new career. "Old things have passed away, and all things have become new." Our State Government has been re-organized, and new men, fresh from the people placed in power. A Legislature of new men imbued with all the ideas of the Nineteenth century voted millions for Internal Improvements. It is expected that the officer placed in charge of the Internal Improvements of North Carolina, will lend his energies and give his whole time to the duties of his office, as defined, and make each corporation, in which the State is interested, pay a handsome dividend. Section ninety-seven of the act defining the duties of State officers, declares as follows:

The Superintendent of Public Works shall have charge of the State's interest in all railroads, canals, and other works of Internal Improvement, and also of all public buildings which are the property of the State. The Superintendent of Public Works claims that the duties heretofore exercised by the Executive relative to works of Internal Improvement now devolve upon him. The Governor contends that his duties are the same as heretofore, and that the Superintendent of Public Works has no right to appoint directors and vote the State's proxy. Desiring that this matter should be settled as once, the Superintendent of Public Works called upon the new Attorney General for his opinion upon the subject. That officer gave an opinion, in favor of the Superintendent of Public Works. This should have settled the matter, but the Governor, after the meeting at Morehead City, sued out an injunction against the Superintendent of Public Works, to restrain him from taking control of the public works of the State. We do not desire that any power which rightfully and properly belongs to any officer of the State, shall be bridled or taken away from that officer. Believing that the law clearly places the control of the public works in the hands of the Superintendent of Public Works, we earnestly hope the matter will be decided in his favor, inasmuch as the organization of our railroad is to take place in a few weeks, the people in this part of the State, feel a deep interest in this matter. They believe the interest of the State will be greatly enhanced by placing all the public works of the State in the hands of the Superintendent of Public Works. They believe, not because they have lost confidence in Gov. Holden, but because they know the Governor cannot give these works the attention that is intended should be given by the Superintendent of Public Works.

The Supreme Court will probably decide this important question before the adjournment of the present term.

Eligibility to Office.

The question has a negro right to hold office in the State of Georgia, was settled a few weeks ago, by a decision of the Supreme Court of that State, in the affirmative, in the case of Richard W. White, plaintiff in error against the State of Georgia, on the relation of Wm. J. Clement, defendant in error. The facts, briefly recited, are as follows: Wm. J. Clement and Richard W. White were the sole candidates for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Chatham county, Georgia. White received a majority of votes, though Clement received a larger number. Action was brought in the Superior Court of that county by Clements, white, who had received the less number of votes, to eject White, said to have one eighth negro blood, from the office, on the ground that he was ineligible, and in that Clements in his stand, as having the next highest number of votes. The question whether or White contained one-eighth or more of negro blood went to the jury, and they found for the plaintiff. Thereupon the Court passed judgement, deposing White from his position as Clerk of the Superior Court, and declaring that Clements was entitled to hold that office.

The North-Carolina Railroad.

The report of the President, Superintendent, and Secretary of this Road for the fiscal year, ending May 31st, 1869, shows that the receipts of the road were $653,117.42. Total expenses of operating the road, $261,223.09. Leaving as net profits, $391,894.33. An increase over last year, of $89,245.52.

The debt of the Company, as shown in the report, is $477,859.89. Considering the assets on hand of $110,523.93 as applied to this debt, we take the sum of $367,335.96, and from this the probable deduction of $94,556.39 for 1864 and 1865, and it will leave a debt of $272,779.57.

Maj. Smith, President of the road has done more for the road than any other President, since the completion of the road. The road-bed is in splendid order. All the work necessary to keep the road in running order, the building of engines and cars, is done at the Shops of the Company. A large sum is saved in this way. The cars now run through from Charlotte to Augusta without any change. This will make the route through North Carolina the quickest, cheapest, and best. Freight is now passing over the North Carolina Road from Augusta and beyond. His thought this arrangement will be able to compete successfully for freight from Atlanta and the through travel to New Orleans.

The stock of the North-Carolina Road has risen ten dollars in the last year. It is now worth twenty-five dollars per share. This comes from putting men in control who pay attention to their business, instead of running all over the State making blackened speeches.

Fifteenth Amendment.

Vermont, Rhode Island, Maryland, Georgia, Virginia, Texas and Mississippi are yet to vote on the XVth Amendment. The votes of four more States are necessary to make it a part of the Constitution, and its ratification having been made a condition precedent to the restoration of Texas, Virginia and Mississippi to the Union, we may place them on the side of ratification. The vote of one State will then be required, which will be supplied by Vermont. Rhode Island has qualified, and may possibly refuse to ratify it. Such action, however, will not defeat the adoption of the Amendment.

We do not care how soon the Secretary of State of the United States announces that this Amendment is a part of the Constitution. The question of suffrage will then be settled for all time to come, without a revolution, and the substitution of an anomalous form of government upon the ruins of this republic, which is not likely to take place.

With the adoption of this Amendment, the colored citizen of North-Carolina is a MAN, and entitled to all the rights and privileges of any citizen of the United States, the same in Massachusetts and South-Carolina.

The Wilmington Star endeavors to create the impression that the adoption of the XVth Amendment will place the question of suffrage entirely in the hands of Congress, and that every State will be completely at the mercy of Congress so far as suffrage is concerned.

Such is not the case. Every man will then be entitled to vote, and will vote in every State, and no State will have any power to abridge suffrage. This is right and just. The Republican party will have kept its word, and the privileges granted South, will be enjoyed throughout the whole Union. So note it well.

Rebel Spirit.

Notwithstanding our Democratic friends claim that they are loyal to the government as any citizen, still the fidelity of their assertions will find a place occasionally to leak out. The spirit of rebellion is still alive in their bosoms, and they need not try to hide it.

We had an instance of this in our little village last night, at the Court House, during the exhibition of the different characters by the Magic Lantern. Upon the appearance of Davis and Lee, the champions of the Rebellion, we were deafened with rebel shouts, but when the portraits of our distinguished President, Gen. Grant and Sherman were exhibited the cheers of the Rebels were turned to groans and hisses. This was not only an instance of the rebel spirit that still dwells among us, but a mark of ill manners, entirely unbecoming in any one. We were also pained to see some of this same class believe unbecomingly during the exhibition of the Scriptures scenes.

We call upon all good R-Republicans to prepare to give these rebels another blow in the coming election; we repeat, the spirit of rebellion is still alive, and we should work to prevent them from gaining any power, if we would maintain a Republican form of Government.

Give the Rebels the power and your government and liberties are no more; we say put them down, and keep them down, until they have repented fully for their past sins.

Rev. Solomon Pool, Assessor of the 4th District of North-Carolina has resigned. We are informed that Gen. Willie D. Jones, of Wake, will be his successor. Gen. Jones is a staunch republican, and a man of excellent business qualifications. He will make a good officer. We trust he will be appointed.

It will be remembered that the election for Township Officers is near at hand. We would ask the Republicans of this and surrounding counties, are you prepared for this battle? This will be an election of no little importance, and your enemies are watching with an eagle's eye, how they may plan your defeat and their success.

They will have no stone unturned, to secure the election of Democrats in the different Townships. Don't let them deceive you. They are working secretly, but earnestly, and will bring their whole force into the fight.

We trust the R-Republicans to prepare for the battle. Organize thoroughly. Hold a meeting in your Township at some point, at least once a week, until the day of election. Go into every neighborhood, and never stop until you get every R-Republican aroused to a full sense of his duty. The victory is not only to the Township but to the county and the State. Let us then strive to make it as brilliant a victory as possible. Let every man turn out, and work up to the polls and deposit his ticket for none but true and tried R-Republicans.

Know-Nothing Elections.

We want no "milk and cider" men in Office. Nominate none but tried men, and then all pull together in harmony. Strive to keep down anything calculated to cause any split or disunion in the party and see that every man has his shoulder to the wheel. Don't be satisfied simply to gain the victory but work to make your majority as large as possible.

We know with the right management, we can carry every Township inutherford county by hand-some majority. Then we say, work! work! WORK!!! We want to see the county of Rutherford give a majority of at least 800 votes for the Republicans, in this election. This is not unreasonable, and all that is necessary to success, is for all to work together.

Tennessee.

Just at this time, political matters in Tennessee are somewhat mixed up. Gov. Senter, Speaker of the Senate under Brownlow, and Governor, is the candidate of the milk and cider republicans. He is supported by Mr. Brownlow, who has given up the ground he occupied while Governor, and is now hand and glove with the democrats. Col. W. B. Stokes is the regular republican nominee, and will receive the support of all true republicans. He is supported by President. The patronage of the government has been bestowed upon the friends of Col. Stokes. The democrats have no candidate. They will support Gov. Senter, or any body not in sympathy with the republican party, for the purpose of dividing the vote, hoping to elect Senter. We have no fears of the result. This contest will show who are to be trusted in Tennessee.

We are astonished at Senator Brownlow. Old age makes many changes. We presume he is in his dotage, and is not responsible for what he does. Some men live too long. We think W. H. Seward and W. G. Brownlow have lived beyond their time. Their reputation suffers every day they draw breath from now on.

Major Marcus Erwin has consented to address the people on the 15th of the day, at Asheville, on Saturday the 17th instant. -Standard.

We learn that Maj. Erwin is a republican. We would like very much to know just where the Major stands. We think he is a man of too much sense to hold on to anything as dead as the democratic party. Maj. Erwin was once a "tower of strength" in this District. The people respect his abilities, but dam his party and principles. Come out Major, we want to know where to place you. Asheville is too hot for you, move over here, we have a thousand republican majorities in this county.
