The day after the publication of this card, the Governor expressed to personal friends outside of his own party his regrets at having allowed himself to be betrayed into such an undignified position, and at once determined to no express himself to the public.

On Wednesday, Governor Caldwell wrote a card, which, on Thursday morning, he sent to the Sentinel and Telegram for publication in yesterday's issue of the papers, but hearing, late on Thursday evening, of a rumor about the streets of Raleigh, that Mr. Turner had demanded personal satisfaction in the usual manner with gentlemen, and in consequence of such demand, he had written the card alluded to, the Governor directed the card to be withdrawn and withheld from the public. But upon consultation with some friends yesterday, and submitting to some slight changes and modifications in the original, the card is now given to the public, as an apology and vindication of the Executive of North Carolina, for the mistake he has made in allowing a personal matter to interfere with his proper course as a high public official of the State.

A CARD FROM GOV. CALDWELL.

To the Editors of the Telegram:

GENTLEMEN:—Will you allow me space in your paper to say that I regret having written and published the article in your issue of the 18th inst., entitled "Base Liar." I confess that, occupying the position I do, it was ill-advised for me to take notice of attacks made upon me, either officially or personally, by the newspaper press; and I should also have remembered that it is a license (a reprehensible one, however) which partisan editors have taken, from time immemorial, to say hard things of their political adversaries and public functionaries.

I would most certainly have taken no notice of the article of the Sentinel, to which my card was intended as a reply, had it not been that I regarded it as an attempt on the part of Mr. Turner to make a breach between myself and my brothers-in-law, with whom I have always been, and hope ever to be, on the best and most friendly terms, personally. I may have been mistaken in the purpose of the editor of the Sentinel, but the article in his paper was "the feather which broke the camel's back."

Without further remarks, I feel it to be due to the public, to Mr. Turner and myself, to make this acknowledgment and say that, occupying the position I do, I regret the occurrence, and hope that nothing may hereafter happen, which will be calculated to throw me so much off my guard as to tempt me to commit a similar indiscretion.

As a private citizen, I have always desired peace and harmony, and more especially as the Governor of a great State, do I wish to see an end of crimination and recrimination, and an era of good feeling permanently established among our people.

Having thus made all the reparation I can make to the public for the hasty article above alluded to, and trusting that all parties concerned may accept this in the same spirit which dictates it,

I am, gentlemen,

Very respectfully yours,

TOD R. CALDWELL.

Raleigh, May 19, 1871.

At 9 p. m. Monday, 22nd inst., this was placed in the hands of Mr. Caldwell, by the gentleman named therein; and, then follows the correspondence below:—

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 20, 1871.

Hon. Tod R. Caldwell:

Sir: I demand of you a retrax of the card published in the Raleigh Daily Telegram of the 13th inst.

My friend, Col. John M. White, will receive your reply.

I am, Your Humble Servant,

JOSIAH TURNER, JR.

RALEIGH, May 23, 1871.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr.,

Columbia, S. C.

Care Col. J. M. White,

Raleigh, N. C.

Sir: Your note of the 20th instant, demanding of me retraction of a certain card published by me in the Raleigh Daily Telegram of the 13th inst., has been received through the hands of your friend Col. J. M. White.

Your note, together with the further consideration of the matter, I have placed in the hands of my friend, Maj. Wm. A. Hearne, to whom all further communications relative to this subject may be addressed.

Very Respectfully,

[Signed] TOD R. CALDWELL.

YARBOROUGH HOUSE,

May 24, 1871.

Maj. W. A. Hearne:

Sir: I had the honor to deliver to Hon. Tod R. Caldwell, at 9 o'clock p. m., on the 22nd inst., a note addressed to him by Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., of date the 20th inst., in which the latter demanded a retrax of a card, published by Caldwell over his own name in the Telegram newspaper of the 13th inst.

Mr. Caldwell has been pleased to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. Turner's note referred to, in a letter, dated the 23rd instant, in which he designates you as his friend, charged with the matter referred to in Mr. Turner's note to him.

I beg to say to you, that I have waited with very considerable patience for Mr. Caldwell's reply to Mr. Turner's note, and that I shall be glad to receive it at his and your earliest convenience.

I am, &c., respectfully yours,

JOHN M. WHITE.

YARBOROUGH HOUSE,

Raleigh, May 24, 1871.

Col. J. M. White,

Yarborough House,

Raleigh, N. C.

COLONEL:—A note from Hon. Josiah Turner, delivered by you to Hon. Tod R. Caldwell, dated Columbia, S. C., May 20, 1871, in which is demanded retraction of a card published in the Raleigh Daily Telegram of the 13th inst., over the signature of Tod R. Caldwell, has been handed to me by the latter gentleman.

The character of the note submitted, suggests that Mr. Turner has not seen a card published by Mr. Caldwell in the Telegram of the 20th inst., a copy of which is herewith enclosed, but if I be mistaken in this, the peremptory nature of Mr. Turner's note will not allow me even to inquire here what there is personally offensive in the card of the 13th, which the letter of Messrs. Ruffin, Cain and Jones of 15th, published by Mr. Caldwell on the 17th, together with the card of the 20th, does not explain away and remove, and hence it is difficult, if not impossible, for Mr. Caldwell to do otherwise than decline any compliance with the terms of Mr. Turner's note, or take further notice of the matter until it shall have been put upon another footing than that of absolute obedience to a personal command.

Very truly,

WM. A. HEARNE.

YARBOROUGH HOUSE,

Raleigh, 24th May, 1871.

Maj. W. A. HEARNE,

Yarborough House:

Sir: Yours of this inst., has been received. I respectfully insist that your letter is not responsive for Mr. Caldwell, to Mr. Turner's first letter, inviting Mr. Caldwell to meet him in Columbia, S. C., (to which no reply was made), nor to his note of the 20th inst., which I delivered to Mr. Caldwell on the 22d inst.

I therefore, respectfully request you to inform me, whether or not, I shall construe your letter of this date to mean a flat refusal on the part of Mr. Caldwell to comply with Mr. Turner's demand of the 20th inst., above referred to.

I am, Very Respectfully,

JOHN M. WHITE.

YARBOROUGH HOUSE,

(230 P. M.)

Raleigh, May 24, 1871.

Col. John M. White,

Raleigh, N. C.

Sir:—I have the honor to acknowledge your letter of 1 o'clock P. M. Thus far in this correspondence I had thought we only had reference to Mr. Turner's note of the 20th inst., demanding retraction, &c. But it appears that you now desire to introduce new matter into the correspondence between you and myself, and so the better to clear up the whole subject. I have to ask that you state in full your grievance or cause of complaint from the commencement of this affair until the present moment.

Very Truly,

WM. A. HEARNE.

YARBOROUGH HOUSE,

Raleigh, 24th May, 2871.

31 o'clock, P. M.

Maj. W. A. Hearne,

Yarborough House:

Sir:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of 2.30, P. M., of this date.

I have no desire to introduce any new matter into the correspondence between us, nor to prolong the same, nor was spent my purpose in advertising to a fact, tending to show, that your first note of to-day was not responsive to Mr. Turner's demand, which is plainly stated in his note of the 20th inst., already referred to.

I therefore renew my request, that you inform me, whether or not, I shall construe your letter of this date to mean a flat refusal on the part of Mr. Caldwell, to comply with Mr. Turner's demand of the 20th inst., already referred to.

I am, very respectfully yours,

JOHN M. WHITE.

Yarborough House, 4.30 p. m.

Raleigh, May 24, 1871.

Col. JOHN M. WHITE,

Raleigh, N. C.

Sir: Your note of 3.30 p. m., I have the honor to acknowledge, at the hour indicated above.

In reply to this, as also to the substance of the last paragraph of your preceding note, I respectfully submit that no such construction can be put upon either, as a flat refusal on the part of Mr. Caldwell to comply with Mr. Turner's demand of the 20th inst. But we have stated, and so maintain, that as long as Mr. Turner's demand of the 20th inst., stands couched in its present peremptory terms, accompanied by a threat, implied, it will be impossible for Mr. Caldwell to make any further explanation or acknowledgment than he has already made through the published correspondence of Messrs. Ruffin, Cain and Jones, before referred to, and over his own signature in the Raleigh Daily Telegram of the 20th inst.

Very Truly,

Wm. A. Hearne.

Yarborough House,

RALEIGH, May 25th, 1871.

Maj. Wm. A. Hearne,

Raleigh, N. C.

Sir:—your note of 4 30 P. M., of yesterday has been received. I regard what you are pleased to say, as a substantial declaration on the part of Mr. Caldwell, to comply with Mr. Turner's demand, contained in his note to Mr. Caldwell of the 20th inst., and I shall act in that view of the matter.

I am, very respectfully,

Your Obt. Servant,

Jno. M. WHITE.

YARBOROUGH HOUSE,

Raleigh, May 25, 1871.

12 o'clock, M.

Col. John M. White:—Sir: I have your note of this moment, in which you say, you "shall act in that view of the matter" that my note to you of yesterday was "a substantial declaration on the part of Mr. Caldwell, to comply with Mr. Turner's demand," &c.

In reply, I have only to say that I await your further pleasure.

Very Truly,

WM. A. HEARNE.

YARBOROUGH HOUSE, (11:30 a. m.)

Raleigh, 25th May, 1871.

Maj. Wm. A. Hearne, Raleigh, N. C.

Sir: Mr. Caldwell having declined to make the retraction demanded of him by Mr. Turner in his note to Mr. Caldwell of the 20th inst., I have the honor to deliver to you, for Mr. Caldwell, the enclosed note, addressed to him by Mr. Turner, and to ask an early reply to the same.

I am, very respectfully,

Jno. M. WHITE.

Columbia, S. C., May 25, 1871.

Hon. Tod R. Caldwell:—Sir: For causes contained in your card published in the Raleigh Daily Telegram of the 13th inst., I demand that you grant me the redress due from one gentleman to another when offence is given. My friend, Col. John M. White, will receive your reply and make all necessary arrangements for our meeting.

Your humble servant,

JOSIAH TURNER, JR.

YARBOROUGH HOUSE,

Raleigh, May 25, 1871.

Col. John M. White, Raleigh, N. C.

Sir: I have the honor to hand you herewith, in reply to the enclosures of yours of this date, a letter from Hon. Josiah Turner, from Hon. Tod R. Caldwell.

Very truly,

WM. A. HEARNE.

Raleigh, N. C., May 25th, 1871.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr.,

Columbia, S. C.

Care Col. John M. White,

Raleigh, N. C.

Sir: Well known as it must have been to you from the inception of this correspondence, that the official position occupied by myself in North Carolina, rendered it impossible that this correspondence should have any result of the sort which you suggest in your note of this date, I had hoped that some other direction might have been given to it. With this most reasonable expectation, that under the above circumstances, you would give me what gentlemen consider to be an opportunity for explanation and reparation, you have refused to comply, and have contented yourself with applying for compulsory redress, universally recognized by gentlemen to be impossible. I do not therefore see how the affair can be extricated from the difficulties with which, at your instance, it has been surrounded.

Very respectfully,

TOD R. CALDWELL.

MADAME DELACAMP'S

Alone in a Mountain Gorge

Single enclosed find the wife of one of the Middle States, lived Madame Delacamp, many years ago, with her husband, a doctor, who died of a fever that ever stood back her husband's name of death—Her name, once covered in a shroud with wild-rose and honeysuckle, appeared in a way by a cluster of undergrowth, and only survived the north and east by deep, tragical ravine that led away back to the mountain gorge.

Here, smiling the ambient air, waited from nature's green sward clinging to the mountain side, bathing her brow in early, morn's gentle dewdrop, she lived solitary and alone for many long years, and her husband's name, in midnight still, and the wild's doleful howl, frequently aroused her from pleasant midnight slumbers.

Now and then she would emerge from her unknown home and mingle with the inhabitants of the world, for one or two months at a time. She was eccentric in her acts and all viewed her as a living curiosity.

While in her home, she apparently had but one object, and that was the relief of her affliction. Under a web on her head, she would become an object of curiosity, and she carried for her own protection, while straggling across her shoulder was suspended a curious sack made from the

Skins of Rabbits and Raccoons

Arranged in alternate strips. This bag contained some old parchment, curious relics, a few light garments, and a smaller sack containing coarse powder made from certain roots known only to herself, the secret of which she clung to as with the tenacity of death. She sailed forth from her wild mountain home, to seek the Good Samaritan, with this unknown vegetable powder which she claimed possessed a wonderful power over all Diseases incident to the female sex. She termed it "woman's pleasure," with which she professed to cure all affections and derangements of that organ, and kindred complaints free of charge. With such singular magic did she relieve all who applied, that within a few years her name and fame became known far and wide, and hundreds of suffering females applied for relief and returned to their homes healthy and happy. Many were anxious to know her great secret, and large sums of money were offered if she would divulge it—but she stubbornly refused.

During her solitary life, she became intimate with only one woman, a noted midwife some miles distant, to whom she promised

Divulge the Secret

Before dying. In a few years, as the female shades of night began to close around her towering frame, she imparted this great secret to this friend.

She had gained quite a reputation for relieving the suffering of her sex, and strange it may appear—she scarcely ever failed to cure those old chronic female complaints that had resisted all ordinary modes of treatment. Many years ago the secret of this while engaged in the Practice of Medicine, by some stranger, succeeded in procuring the secret of this wonderful vegetable Regulator, which had never been known to the Medical Profession.

He gave it a fair impartial trial in the treatment of various forms and stages of female complaints with such decided satisfaction, that in 1860 he called public attention to its virtues.

"Gross' Medico Chirurgical Review."

Combined with other known vegetable Tonics, having great power over the uterine organs, with Black Root to act upon the Liver and Bowels, and Sulphate of Iron to correct the blood, he has formed a wonderful combination for the cure of all Female complaints, considering it the only Female Regulator known, and uses offers this valuable compound to the afflicted female, under the name of English Female Bitters.

The Medical Profession at large, have long felt the need of just such a medicine, consequently it is not strange that they so eagerly prescribe and recommend these Bitters to their female patients.

It would be useless to pile of smiling approvals and eulogiums from physicians and the public who have cured their wives, their daughters and their friends, by the use of these Bitters, no sickly female would hesitate to use them. This Female Regulator is adapted for old, young, married or single females who suffer chronic forms of Uterine derangement. They cure painful, suppressed, scanty, profuse or irregular Menstruation, chlorosis or Green Stomach, Abortion or Whites, Hysterical, Falling of the Womb, Uterine or Irritable, biliousness of the Womb, pain in the side back or loins, sick Headache, palpitation or fluttering of the Heart, hurried Breathing, swimming of the Head, cold Feet and Hands, loss of Appetite, Indigestion, Weakness, Barrenness, physical Prostration, &c., &c. Many of these are relieved by the use of only one bottle.

The Liver and Stomach

Are thoroughly aroused and restored to a healthy action, by the use of these Bitters. Its peculiar Iron and Vegetable combination, places it far ahead of any similar preparation before the public.

Females, after confinement and convalescence from any debilitating complaint, who remain weak and feeble, with little or no appetite, great once aroused, and strengthened by their use. As a Family Tonic for men, women and children, it has no equal. One tablespoonful contains more medicinal properties than one bottle of any of the common and pleasant "nutritive" or "stimulating" preparations of the common Beverages of the day say their cure all diseases, they well know they are "pulling the wool" over your eyes, and laugh at your credulous business as being humbugged whenever the article stands in whiskey. If you really desire a valuable Iron and Vegetable Tonic for yourself and family, one bottle of E. F. B. will last longer and do more good than one dozen of the ordinary "grocery" Bitters, as only one tablespoonful in water, is sufficient for a whole family.

A Female Regulator,

It has no equal on this continent, acting powerfully and promptly in all cases, were to originate exist. It is just the medicine for young girls, who have some difficulty in retaining the bloom on their cheeks, and who do not feel exactly right. For the mother at the "change of life," it soothes and quiets until the critical period is passed, as sweetly as if enjoying the brightest points of opal ray, fitting through the lens of optical glasses. The medicine is sold at the low price of $1.00 per bottle, or six for $5.00, and can be had of all Druggists and Merchants throughout the Country. Address
