NO WONDER WE'RE PUNCH-DRUNK

Prime Minister Churchill, speaking in the House of Commons, and his defense minister Earl Alexander, addressing the House of Lords, have told Britain that the enemy in Korea has nearly doubled his strength and can now launch a major offensive at any time and sustain it over a long period. Churchill also said he never believed the Reds wanted peace, even when the truce talks started last July.

At almost the same time, America's elder statesman, Bernard M. Baruch, testifying before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee of the Armed Services committee blasted the American leaders who "picture us winning the 'cold war' one month, and in mortal peril the next." We are losing the arms race with Russia, he said, and pointed out that the Administration had decided on stretch-out of defense goals from 1954 to late 1955 or 1956, while "our highest military authorities have stated . . . that from now through 1954 will be the period of maximum peril for this nation."

Some weeks ago, General J. Lawton Collins, Army Chief of Staff, told the Senate that if fighting continued in Korea or there should be an attack in Europe, we "would have no reserves of some of the most important types of ammunition, and our front-line troops would have to limit their ammunition expenditures to what came off the production line." He went on to say that some of the "most important" types of ammunition had already been rationed on the front lines in Korea because "production still does not equal normal battle expenditures."

In Panmunjom, the enemy adds threats to his insults and arrogance, while we struggle to "contain" our own prison camps. In Berlin, a city-wide armed camp is walled off, East from West by barricades of steel and stone, and the Reds have thrown a three-mile buffer zone around the 375 mile border of East Germany, in protest to the signing of the Allied-West German pact.

At the time President Truman announced our intervention in Korea, he boasted that America had never lost a war. Today, we can't be so sure.

"ANGLING FOR BIG ONES ON WINDY HILL PIER"

Viewed from the south "T" over the Atlantic Ocean, the Windy Hill Fishing Pier here shows the spacious facilities offered salt water fishermen. Stretching 900 feet into the ocean, the Windy Hill Fishing Pier has its own patio and snack shop, souvenirs, fishing tackle and bait. Chief catches for the early summer fishing season have been spots, whiting and drum, with occasional big blues and trout. The pier is under long term lease by A. J. Horton, of Hickory, N. C., and managed by J. B. Hatley, of Windy Hill Beach. (Photo by Claude Dunnagan)

LORIS CIVITANS CHOOSE NEW OFFICERS, NEW HOUR

At the meeting of the Loris Civitan Club last week new officers were elected and the time of future meetings was changed to 1:00 P. M.

Meeting on Tuesday, May 27th, at the Loris Hotel, the Civitans elected J. R. Suggs president, W. K. Rogers vice-president, and D. B. Bailey secretary - treasurer. These new officers were installed immediately after election and will preside for the first time when the club holds its next meeting June 10th.

The Civitans present at last week's meeting unanimously voted to change the time of the meetings, at least for the month of June, to 1:00 P. M. Luncheon will be served promptly at 1:00 P. M. at the Loris Hotel on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month.

Urging the entire membership to give the new officers their full support and co-operation, those present last week resolved that the programs at these midday meetings would be interesting but brief and that the entire meeting would last no later than two o'clock.

W. C. Carter Resigns As Deputy Sheriff

Resignation of Deputy Sheriff W. C. Carter of Loris was announced Monday night by Sheriff C. E. Sasser.

Mr. Carter told the sheriff in his letter of resignation that he had accepted a job as police inspector at the Savannah River atomic energy plant.

He explained that the new job would pay considerably more than his salary as deputy. This, he wrote, made it seem advisable to accept, because of the needs of his family. He has a wife and two children.

A deputy for six years, Carter wrote that he always had tried to follow the sheriff's policy of enforcement of the law. He asked that he be relieved effective June 1. It is understood that he is taking a week's vacation beginning at once.

PVT. THOMPSON GETS BADGE

WITH THE 2ND INFANTRY DIV. IN KOREA—Pvt. Larcell Thompson of Boardman, N. C., recently was awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for excellent performance of duty in combat with the 2nd Infantry Division. The badge, a symbol of the front line fighting man, distinguishes the combat soldier from rear area and service troops. It consists of a miniature replica of a Revolutionary War flintlock rifle mounted on a blue background and superimposed on a wreath.

Private Thompson is a member of Company A in the 38th Infantry Regiment, a part of the Division.

Pitt County farmers are becoming very conscious of the threat from nematodes. In many cases tobacco growers are using soil fumigation to control the pests.
