Religious Intolerance Is Intolerable

In our way of thinking there's few wrongs as bad as being without religion and a belief in God but one can approach that degree of wrong by petty intolerance of denominations and religious faiths other than that to which he himself belongs.

Obviously each Christian follower has chosen his denomination because he believed it to be the nearest thing to the doctrine taught in the Bible. Every individual has the choice to make and you have no definite assurance that you are any more right in your belief than he is in his.

The important thing to remember is that we should encourage religious activity regardless of the denomination and regardless of whether it builds membership in our own church and denomination or not.

Unfortunately our Tabor City community does not always follow this type of reasoning. Newcomers are sometimes led to believe that they will be looked upon with more favor if they have religious affiliations with the majority. This within itself is religious persecution, the very evil which prompted the discovery and settlement of the New World—America.

Pride In The Yam Market

In less than a month, the Tabor City Marketing Association will begin the auction of our most famous crop, yams, and shortly thereafter will come the festival which has earned for our community invaluable recognition throughout the State.

Yams this year are a certainty to bring farmers their best price of all time. There is little doubt that the overall average this season will exceed the $3.83 per bushel that was recorded on the local market last season.

With good prices in store for the crop, it becomes more and more evident that farmers are not producing enough of this food to realize full financial gain that is theirs for the asking.

Farmers have reason for curtailing their production because in the past the yam selling business has been terribly erratic with good prices one year and poor prices the next. However, prices seem to have hit new highs in every commodity in recent years and the yam has been no exception.

Last year yams could have been a fine money crop for farmers here, but they neglected to plant sufficient acreage to feel the financial gain. This too could have been a good year for the farmers' yam income, but we greatly fear that again there is not sufficient acreage for maximum gain.

All of which bears out the general obstacles which beset farmers everywhere. They gamble on every known factor. First they have the elements and nature to worry about and even after successfully overcoming that hurdle, they have to face a possible sacrifice price for their products.

In a few words, they have to guess on the price and in recent years they have guessed wrong by failing to plant enough on the high price years and planting too many on the low price years.

And just for the record, our production here does not determine the price of yams to any major extent. Production the nation over does, of course, but we hardly have such a strangle hold on production as to determine the market price in Tabor City.

OUR DEMOCRACY — by Mat

The Smith a mighty Man was he...

—BUT THE MIGHT OF THE AVERAGE AMERICAN WORKER TODAY IS INFINITELY GREATER, FOR HE HAS THE HELP OF ELECTRIC POWER. THE POWER HE USES IN A YEAR IS EQUIVALENT TO HIS HAVING MORE THAN 200 INVISIBLE HELPERS.

THE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION STARTED BY THE STEAM ENGINE IS CONTINUING AT AN ACCELERATED RATE WITH THE DEVELOPMENT OF "ELECTRIC MANPOWER."

IN THE LAST 10 YEARS ALONE, THE ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER INDUSTRY HAS ALMOST DOUBLED ITS CAPACITY—UNTIL THE UNITED STATES ACCOUNTS TODAY FOR NEARLY ONE-HALF OF THE ENTIRE WORLD PRODUCTION OF ELECTRIC POWER.

MUCH OF THIS EXPANSION OF CAPACITY HAS BEEN MADE POSSIBLE BY THE INVESTMENT OF THE MONEY PEOPLE SET ASIDE IN LIFE INSURANCE AND SAVINGS FOR THEIR FAMILIES.

THE BIG ADVANTAGE

A thrifty man went to a lawyer for advice. After the interview the man met an acquaintance and told him about it.

"But why spend money on a lawyer?" asked the other, "When you sat in his office, did you see all the law books there. Well, what he told you, you could read in those law books."

"You're right," admitted the advice seeker. "But the lawyer—he knows what page it's on."

and several were in the office to get "POSTED" notices for their property. You can hear a lot of conversation about land that is posted but farmers in our area certainly have plenty of reason to put up posted signs. Hunters unfortunately seem to presume they can hunt anywhere they want to and by far too many just pick up their gun and dog and start hunting without bothering to ask the land owner.

Farmers say hunters have started many fires on their property through carelessness, damage their fences and tramp across their crops. So it would seem, farmers have some mighty good reasons for keeping strangers off their land.

CARTER'S COLUMN

By W. Horace Carter

Everyone has his own peculiar experiences with flat tires and blowouts and we had ours last week. On the road between Tabor City and Loris we ran over a piece of wood about six inches long and as big as your arm without even seeing it.

Apparently the front tire turned it upon the end because the back tire hit it directly on top and drove it completely through the middle of a perfectly good tire, knocking a hole through it big enough that you could throw a cat through.

Only other time we ever had such an experience was about six years ago when we ran over a flat end wrench on the Green Sea road with the same results. The wrench went all the way through a tire that time and was inside the ruined tube. We can't have just a plain ordinary flat or a blowout. Has to be some freak way of ruining a tire.

With the coming of these cool days of last week, farmers start thinking about the hunting season

LETTERS To The EDITOR

To curb moral delinquency and help the moral rearmament program let the public know there are churches they may join and be baptized any day. This is too important to be relegated to one day a week. Joining a church is a personal matter between the person and God, it does not have to be a public affair. Many people are self-conscious about doing things in public and do not join. William R. Sullivan, 720 West Tenth Pl., Los Angeles 15, Calif.

Farmers this year are raising a record crop of almost 59 million turkeys—13 per cent more than last year.
