800,000 households in the U. S. By 1975 there will be an estimated 62,400,000. This indicates 50,000 to 600,000 will be replaced in 1975 and an additional 800,000 to 1 million will be built to absorb the net increase in population.
Public construction, therefore, is expected to be about 50 per cent above the 1950 level by 1975. It is estimated the general rise in construction will be about 30 per cent between 1950 and 1975.
