HOLDEN IS PRESIDENT
Dr. R. H. Holden of Shallotte was named recently to serve as president of the Brunswick Publishing Co., owner and publisher of the Brunswick Sentinel, weekly newspaper.
He succeeds W. J. McLamb. The Board met after the following directors were named: W. J. McLamb, Dr. R. H. Holden, E. H. Kirby, Carl Andrews, Odell Williamson, Sam Joe Crink and Raymond Bellamy.

DRIVERS GET LICENSE
Seventeen driver's licenses were issued last week by Examiner E. M. Wallace. He also issued four learner's permits. Five persons failed the tests.
BOY'S HOME EXPLAINED
A. D. Peacock, president of Boy's Home, Inc., spoke to the Shallotte Lions Club and impressed upon them the need for Columbus, Bladen and Brunswick Counties pledging their support to the new institution for homeless boys.

TEACHERS RESIGN
M. G. Isley, Whiteville grammar school principal, and Miss Willie Trexler, supervisor, resigned this week from the Whiteville school system.
Isley is accepting a position as principal of the Berry Hill School in Mecklenburg County. Miss Trexler will assume supervisory duties in the Lexington School system.

PHONE MEETS HELD
Interest in the cooperative phone system for rural Columbus County continued to mount today after meetings were held Thursday and Friday nights by Acme-Deleo Lions club.

Leon V. Cannon was named chairman of the drive to be held in the Deleo area.
SCHOOL BONDS SOLD
Half of the $740,000 school construction bonds for Columbus County and the Whiteville schools have been sold for total interest cost of 2.6533 percent.
Notification of the sale was received in the county attorney's office and the office of Miss Alice Harris, county auditor, today from W. E. Easterday, secretary of the local Government Commission, Raleigh.

"Excellent" was the term used by the committee commenting on the interest rate; however, it was slightly higher than the last bond sale by the county.

STILLS DESTROYED
Two more stills were destroyed last week when the sheriff's department conducted raids in Whiteville Creek area.
The storage capacity still with 300 gallons of mash was destroyed Thursday while a smaller still with 150 gallons of mash was burned Friday.

10th TRAFFIC DEATH
Howard Inman, 43-year-old resident of Route 3, Whiteville, became Columbus County's 14th traffic fatality when he died from injuries received Wednesday in a auto accident near Lilliborn.

Dupree's Landing Road. He suffered internal chest injuries and died at Columbus County Hospital at 12:30 p. m. Friday.

FIRE CHIEF NAMED
William S. Edmunds, Whiteville and Lake Waccamaw real estate agent, has been named fire chief of the Lake Waccamaw Volunteer Fire Department and Rescue unit.
Edmunds has had previous experience in volunteer fire organizations having served as chief of the Chadbourne unit in 1937.

JAYCEES MEET TUESDAY
