BERRY DANCE

These two will speak after the parade at the parking lot between railroad and First Avenue. Winners of the Merchant's association sponsored Trade Jubilee will be announced at this time. The prizes are a two weeks cruise and a week in Miami, Fla. If the two winners prefer they may have the award in cash.

Two Are Hostesses For Pioneer Meeting

Mrs. Davis Bruton, Jr. and Mrs. Marguerite Smith were hostesses for the meeting of the Pioneer Study Club at the Bruton residence on Lewis Street Monday evening.

The home was graciously decorated with arrangements of spring flowers while the coffee table held a May Pole with streamers attached to ribbon streamers which were presented to the guests during the evening.

In addition to the club women present Mrs. James H. Johnson, Mrs. Don Hughes, Miss Jacquelin Mishoe, Miss Estelle Stanley and Miss Judy Nix were recognized as special guests.

Mrs. P. H. Layfield, Jr. gave the program on the "Coat of Arms" referring to the club insignia which she drew last year. She was introduced by Mrs. H. L. Reaves, program chairman.

Mrs. W. W. Woody discussed the three productions by the Tabor City Chorus, "The Mica-do," "Kiss Me Kate" and "The King and I" and pointed to their relation in the Coat of Arms as to Music, Art, Drama and Dance. In conclusion Miss Nix, who played the lead role for the chorus, sang vocal selections from the presentation with Mrs. Furman J. Fowler as piano accompanist.

A sweet course was served by the hostess during the evening.
