MISS WEE RENE STEVENS EXCHANGES VOWS WITH MARCUS S. TURNER, JR.

In a ceremony at the Tabor City Baptist Church Sunday, August 20, at 4 p. m. Miss Wee Rene Stevens and Marcus Sharpe Turner, Jr. were united in marriage. The Rev. James H. Johnson, pastor of the bride officiated, assisted by the Rev. Bruce Pate, brother-in-law of the bridegroom of Kinston.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Albro Stevens of Tabor City and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Marcus Sharpe Turner, Sr. of Fair Bluff and the late Mr. Turner.

Truss filled with Fuji mums and glads with tropical ferns and burning tapers in seven branched candelabras formed the background to the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Furman J. Fowler, organist, and Miss Judy Nix, vocalist, both of Tabor City presented the wedding music. She sang "Treat Me Not To Leave Thee," "I Love Thee," and "O Perfect Love" for the benediction.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's dress, which she designed and made, was of white silk organza featuring short sleeves and a scalloped neckline of chantilly lace re-embroidered with pearls. A belt with a bow at the front of the waist line accented the full length flared skirt. The fingertip veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls with lilies of the valley forming a leaf appearance. Her gloves were white and the flowers she carried were sweetheart and tube roses.

Mrs. Charles E. Dusenbury, sister of the bride of Kinston was matron of honor. She wore a moss green, silk organza dress, waist length designed with a scoop neckline and cummerbund. The organza hat was made of rose pedals with a circular veil.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. R. Bruce Pate, sister of the bridegroom of Kinston, Mrs. John C. Turner, sister-in-law of the bridegroom of Fair Bluff, Miss Sue Taylor and Miss Judy Coleman of Tabor City. Serving as junior bridesmaids were Miss Marianna Stevens, of Bladenboro, and Miss Gay Gause, of Wilmington, both nieces of the bride. Their dresses and hats were identical to the matron of honor while the bridesmaids were in yellow with cummerbunds featuring a rose at the back with tiered panel skirts. Their organza hats had circular veils with rose petals.

All the attendants wore white gloves and carried white mums with ribbon streamers. Best man was Dr. John C. Turner, brother of the bridegroom of Fair Bluff. Ushers were Jimmy Turner and Bobby Waddell, cousins of the bridegroom of Fair Bluff, Victor Floyd also of Fair Bluff, and Conrad Fecher, nephew of the bride, of Tabor City.

Mrs. Stevens selected for her daughter's wedding a white imported linen dress embroidered with pink rosebuds and white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom was in a blue lace dress over taffeta with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

Reception
Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception at the church. Guests were received by Mrs. LaDosca S. Fecher, sister of the bride, of Tabor City, and introduced to the receiving line.

ends of the table were silver epergne's holding white bridal flowers and burning tapers.

Mrs. R. O. Gause, sister of the bride of Wilmington, poured lime ice and Mrs. Richard Gordon served mints and nuts. Others assisting were Mrs. Dale Wright, Miss Sheryl Sue Cox, Miss Ann Hardee, cousins of the bride, Miss Jodanna Herlocker, Miss Linda Nix, Miss Peggy Taylor and Mrs. Claude Huggins, all of Tabor City.

Mrs. Albro Stevens, sister-in-law of the bride, of Tabor City, kept the guest register. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Herlocker heard the goodbyes and invited guests to the bride's home to see the gifts where Miss Verlyn Hardee, cousin of the bride, of Tabor City, received.

During the evening the couple left for a wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina. The new Mrs. Turner wore the light blue dacron dress that she had made for traveling with a matching hat, white accessories and a shoulder bouquet of white roses.

Bride and Bridegroom
The bride was graduated from the Tabor City High School this year where she was active in the Future Teacher's of America Club and editor of the "Spectator." Too, she won the "Miss Homemakers" award. The bridegroom, a teacher in the Tabor City High School for the past two years, where he met his bride, was graduated from his home town high school and North Carolina State College. He has joined the faculty of the Barnesville, N. C. Schools where he will teach Vocational Agriculture.
Mr. and Mrs. Turner will reside in Fair Bluff.

MRS. WILLIAM RODDY HILTON, prior to her marriage Saturday, August 12, was Miss Sara Ellen Clemons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas Clemons of Tabor City. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Spoffard Roger Hilton of Georgetown, S. C. They will be at home 1502 Front Street, Georgetown.
