THE ONLY PULITZER PRIZE WINNI NG WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN THE UNITED STATES

- SERVICE -• WITHOUT SELFISHNESS . WITHOUT FEAR WITHOUT FAVOR The Goal of The Tribune Now and Forever

The Tabox

10c PER COPY-S3.00 A YEAL

JOYCE ANN STEPHENS

A buffet dinner was includ-

VOLUME XVI. NUMBER 23

)

2

)

1)

"Tabor City - The Town With A City Future" WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1961

Two Local Gridders Make All-Eastern

Junior tackle Sammy Wil- Devil team have been the obliams and senior halfback-end jeeus of interest by college Leon Edward Fonvielle have scouts.

been named to the first team in the Raleigh News and Observ-the team, and an outstanding performer at tackle both oftorming him of the two selec-tions from the 1961 Red Devil fullback, has been in touch aut for foot, all, proved to be in the croice-a key man in the team's often-Forvielle and Williams have reason for the team's highly attracted the attention of sevsuccessful 6-3 season mark, eral colleges. good for second place in the Waccamaw Athletic Association standings. selections for the top spots are made.

bers were not immediately uary available.

A rest of the News and Gobserver, in-torming him of the two selec-tions from the 1961 Red Death withiams was one of the de-tentive stars for the Devils. Forvielle, though late getting a key man in the Coach Stevens said that both Fonvielle and Williams have Fonvielle has had contacts from the University of North Carolina and Duke, as well as tential student's college entrance exam before making a

These tests are given in Jan-

"I'll See What I Can Do," Santa Says

Entered By SBI Investigator

An agent of the Federal an attempt to find the cause Duke, Coroner J. B. Long and other area investigators in the Saturday.

night at the home of i.co D Duboise, with whom Williams also resided. The body was said to have been found partially lying in the bedroom where the victim an adjoining hallway.

An autopsy was performed by bruises or burns.

concert. The moving story of He said that Williams did not

An agent of the receral Bureau of Investigation has joined county law officers in an attempt to find the cause and other details surrounding the somewhat mysterious death For Next Term arrived Monday to assist Co-lumbus County Sheriff Ben

High school students in the of their effspring as the joyial Monday Night weekend death investigation of soon sign up for the course;

at approximately 8 a.m. courses of study; College Preparatory, Pre-Nurring, Business Preparatory, Business, Herman Watson, according to and Vocational.

act as advisors to students in completing their elective slips. and the principal plans to interview individually each student. The main purpose of the interview will be to discusa with each person his plans for usually slept, and partially in the future.

Radio Station

Ebony Enterprises, of Chadbourn, has received word from the Federal Communications that final approval has been ed Williams, treated the given to the group's effort to coming Saturday, with more "burns" and put him to bed, secure an all Negro radio sta-111181.

transmitting station and of Chadbourn.

ourn area.

Bladenboro

groes.

Santa Claus came to town Saturday morning, and a horde Employce awards also went of children from Tabor Chy to Roy Lee Taylor, first place, and the surrounding area were and Kathleen Whaley, second in hand to greet him. Led by Police Chief Jessie Barker in the town police car with siren blaring. Santa made a turn through the main part second. Chadbourn, R. D Bird, of town in a mule-drawn wagtown in a mule-drawn wag-before taking up his stand second, Farmont; Ruth Cowon before taking up to building on Finh Street to hand out Twin City CAP coudy to all the little ones who came to welcome him. Parents all but lost control from the wagon into the building to start the goody giveaway. 🔶 🦦

Swamped with fervent re-quests for Christmas, urgent pleas to "remember me" and shonts of thanks and assurance that "Fe been good all year." Santa remained his usual jolly self for the better part of two hours as he worked against termendous odds in an effort to hear all the small voices. Ken Lovell and Jesse Bark-et served as Santa's right-hand hear me, trying to keep the crowd

Along the route of Santa's attance into town, store fronts and windows made it plain to ill that Christmas is indeed ust around the corner. Colorul decorations and gaily dis-played merchandise were testinony to the preparedness of local merchants for the sea-

He will return to town this

Nesmith Honored By Bank For 25 Years Of Service

Bank Employee Wins First Place In Competition

Joyce Ann Stephens, employee of the Waccamaw Bank aid Toust Company in Tabor has won a first place ality. ward in the bank's new busi-nest contest held during the cent tobacco season.

Presentation of the award trophy and special gift was made at the annual Christmas party of the bank at the Chest-ertield Ion. Myrtle Beach, Satunday

Eunice Stevens, also of the bank's office here, received a sectial place award. Ben L. Nesmith, excentive vice-president of the Wacaeet an engraved gold watch as a momento of his 25 years service. Mr. Nesmith has a total of 37 years experience in banking, 25 of them with the Wuc-camaw Bank.

place, Beulaville; Bobbie Park-er, first, and Connie Dennis, second, Shallotte: Patsy Nob-les, first, and Louise Rhodes,

Has Yule Party

Senior officers and cadets of the local Civil Air Patrol Unit Swamped with fervent re-

Clyde Prince, special recogni-tion was given to four cade's for outstanding achievements: David Miller: Jimmy Floyd, Wendell Vaught and Robert Elliott.

the 10 years ago.

nger. At the close of the program St. Nick's Saturday USA will cach cadet now upon mouse of the first of four that he will to sell a number of boxes of to sell a number of boxes of boxes of the sell a number of boxes of boxes of the sell a number of boxes of boxes of boxes of boxes of boxes.

candy to raise funds to buy uniforms for the women cad-ets.

BEN L. NESMITH, JR

an, first, and Joyce Cooke, sernti, Whiteville Edyth Smith. thist, and Judy Young, second, Hunter. second. Kenansville: Nancy  $J_0$  officers and employees of the Clark, first, and Beulah  $Guy_-$  bank with their spouses, and Clark, first, and Beulah Guy-bank with their spouses, and widows of deceased directors.

ed in the program. In addition to Mr. Nesmith, Gainey, tirst, Riegelwood. service awards went to direct-ors Dr. Ralph C. Sadler, 36 First and second place winners were presented gifts of years, Edgar Munice, 25 years, electrical appliances, silver-Helen K. Lewis, 25 years, and ware, clothing and luggage. Prince O'Brien, 25 years. Trophies went to the first place vinners. TC Man Dies The party was attended by

187 bank directors, their wive In Accident Tabor Native Found Dead In Mondapy Morn Charleston Sat. An auto accident in rural

Rorry County took the life of Mrs. Joye Gale Turbeville, Mrs. Joye Gale Roberts of Tibor City, was found dead ton the floor of her apartment in the floor of her apartment in the floor S C tast Saturday Solon Soles. 62, of Tabor City the floor of her apartment to Charleston S. C. last Saturday moming. Charleston police are hold-Nichols, who on her way to work at the Taber City Foods, work at the Taber City Foods, drove off on a private side road to make a short visit at a neighbor's house. She tailed to see a drainage ditch which served the road and her car plunged into the ditch. Dailey Strickland, a witness, old County Coroner Littlejohn Tuesday at the Inman Funeral Blanton, that Mrs. Jernigan Home Chapel at 11 a. m., and was driving at very slow speed After the chapel program. However, the chapel at 11 a.m., and was driving at very slow speed bich was conducted by Rev. burial followed in the Mt. Zion and he was surprised to see cemetery, The Rev. Douglas N. Baker and Rev. Morgan B. her drive into the canal. He immediately their assistance, and took them in his car to the Loris hospital Mr. Soles was dead on arriv-Games were played under eris of Tabor City, moved with the direction of Mrs. Marioa her family to Charleston about the

Mrs. Jernigan is confined in the hospital. Coroner Blanton stated the death was accidental and no She is survivied by her moth-

went to inquest will be held. a son. Charles, a daughter, Survivors include two sons ee a Ann, seven brothers, Earl Soles of Tabor City and Acceleration of the second promets, Earl Soles of Tabor City and Education and Bill, all of Charleston, Benny in the in Germany: seven daughters, and Douglas with the Air Force Fis., Mrs. Marie Grooms of the Common Second Douglas with the Air Force Fis., Mrs. Marie Grooms of Second Douglas with the Air Force Fis., Mrs. Marie Grooms of Second Douglas with the Air Force Fis., Mrs. Marie Grooms of Second Douglas with the Air Force Fis., Mrs. Marie Grooms of Second Douglas with the Air Force Fis., Mrs. Marie Grooms of Second Douglas With the Air Force Fis., Mrs. Marie Grooms of Second Douglas Marie Grooms of Marie Grooms of Second Douglas Marie Grooms of Marie Grooms of Second Douglas Marie Grooms of Marie Groom Denver Colo., Mrs. Doris Capps of Belton, Mo., Mrs. Lula Mac Grainger of Loris, Rt. I. Mrs. Annabelie Hodge of Whiteville, Rt. 3, Mrs. Kath-leen Jernigan of Nichols, Rt. 4, and Mrs. Betty Butler of Loris: and twenty-six grand-children. Funeral arrangements have ot been announced yet. The ervices will be held upon the eturn of Horace Soles, son of he deceased authorities, who had spent the The homeroom teachers will Coroner Long said the body of the dead man bore numer-

According to information ened the program with the brilliant "Jesu, Joy of Mun's authorities said that Duboisc and Williams came home Fri-Duboise said that he undress-

LEON EDWARD FONVIELLE SAMMY WILLIAMS Campaign Nears Story Of Nativity Sung By Chorus In

Christmas Concert The Tabor City High School Chorus, under the direction of Campaign for $300,000 to give song and Biblical verse to a finding are not yet known, the college its own quarters on capacity crowd at the Tabor its own campus comes to an City Baptist Church last Sun-end Friday and workers are day night. Making an intense effort to put Accompanists Mrs. Davis biotches that looked like bruises or burns.

it over the top before that

Bruton, Jr., pianist, and Mrs. Furman Fowler, organist, op-

E. E. Prince, chairman of the Coastal Educational Founda-tion, said Monday that the tot-Coastal Educational Founda-tion, said Monday that the tot-al stood at $267,940, leaving the campaign but $32,100 short of its minimum goal. the major presentation of the of its minimum goal. Action was to be seen throshout the county as # orderly.

oral orstaught of purchasers f Christmas gifts. St. Nick's Saturday visit was made a last minute push to put the total over the goal, with Conway reporting a total of $111,886; Myrtle Beach $70,-Loris and upper Horry 847. $43,617; Galivants Ferry and Aynor area $10,485; Horry Aynor area $10,485; Horry county teachers $17,880; Bucksport $715; and firms do-Bucksport $715; and fifths dot and the county but Carroll Fonvielle. With headquarters elsewhere In addition to "The Song of $11,010.

'End; $267,940

2

But even as the workers pushed toward the end of the laby of the Christ Child," featcampaign it was apparent there are people in the county who recognize the need for the two-year branch of the Univ-ersity of South Carolina in Horry, who recognize their re-sponsibility toward helping helping keep it here and yet who have not been contacted.

To these Mr. Prince sent this message: Please call your local radio station or drop a card to Coastal Carolina College Campaign, Box 91, Conway, S. C. someone will be sent to you with full information.

You cannot escape necessities; but you can - conquer them.

em. —Seneca It is not from nature, but GREAT LAKES, ILL.—Jan-son Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Roberts of from education and habits, w, that our wants are chiefly de-rived. -Henry Fielding Conter, Great Lakes, III. It is not from induce, but Mis. Joseph F. Roberts of is scheduled to ed this year by the Fourth. Pifth and Sixth grades. The play will be present-ed this year by the Fourth. Pifth and Sixth grades. The play will be present-ed this year by the Fourth. Pifth and Sixth grades. The public is invited and urged to attend.

the Nativity combines excerpts from various carols with the Biblical verses, read for this Investigators are trying to determine where Williams was performance by the Rev. James Johnson, pastor of the Tabor City Baptist Church. Featured soloists for "The Song of Christmas" were chornight. SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPPER us members Kay Phipps, Nor-The Fidelis and the Glean-ers Sunday School classes of the Tabor City Baptist Church ing some $16,000 and the towwill meet Thursday night at 7:00 for a covered dish supper as the building is completed.

Christmas," were two solos with choral background, "Lul-and Christmas party in the reuring sopranos Judy Harrel- creation room of the church. son and Norris Gore, and "Rise Up Shepherd and Foller," with Members of both classes are invited to attend.

Roger Elliott as soloist. Mrs. James Johnson, guest WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING soloist for the concert, sang the The Tabor City Woman's Club will meet at 8:00 Thursspiritual, "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," and also a solo part in "Companions All Sing Loudday night in the home of Mrs

J. A. Herlocker. All members are urged to be present and ly," from "The Song of Christbring gifts for the Christmas

Mrs. Bruton and Mrs. Fowlbasket.

er played a piano-organ duet "A Christmas Eve Memory," arranged for this performance by Mrs. Bruton, and concluded the program with Handel's 'Hallelujah Chorus.'' annual Christmas play Fri-day at 7 p. m. under spons-orship of the Parent-Teach-er Association. The play will be presented this year by the Fourth.

JANSON ROBERTS

Green Sea Presents

The Green Sea Element-ary School will present its

Yule Play Friday

persons on a full-time basis, Reynolds said.

two remaining visits will be the weekend before Christmas say anything to him about how proval of building specificaon Friday and Saturday, the 22nd and 23rd. tion plans and the issuing of a struction permit.

before returning home Friday structed by S. C. Carter of ome see him f these visits. see him on any or all Chadbourn, will be leased by the broadcasting company. The spokesman for the group

MATTIE BAKER CIRCLE The Mattie Baker Circle of the Carolina Baptist WMU met would be installed as soon Tuesday night with Mrs. Ken-Construction of the studios. neth Elliott. Six members and one visitor were present. tower Mrs. Howard Watts lead m will be begun immediately, on land on U. S. highway 76, a-bout one and a half miles west the opening prayer. Mrs. Har-old J. Grainger, Circle chairman presided during the busi-

Ebony Enterprises, and all ness session. Mrs. Elliot, pro-gram chairman, presented a program on "Missions in Your Negro concern, is made up of 14 stockholders in the Chad-Home."

Stockholders from Chad. bourn are Fred Williams and cross The Sea" will be taught at the church Thursday after-ful group that police say admit-Oscar McDuffie. Reynolds, S. M. Lennon, A. L. Singletary and Alfred Horne are from toon.

Jerry Arnette, Mrs. Daily Strickland, and Mrs. A. E. Small. Mrs. Brendell Grainger Dr. G. W. Caines and Chester

Graham are from Whiteville. Reynolds said the local stawas recognized as visitor. During the social hour the ion will transmit news, music and some live talent. hostess served a dessert course. The next meeting will he

It is the second radio outlet the United States totally eld with Mrs. Harold Watts. owned and operated by Ne-

The station will employ four stant prayer.

Hayes And Ward M. P. Campbell He invites all children to Charged; Rabon, He has promised to "see what I can do" about all Christmas Bullard Bonded requests. Speaks To Rotary Club

Two men have been arrested on charges of receiving stolen

M. P. Campbell, superintend-ent of the Loris area schools, goods in connection with thefts totalling some $5,000 by four spoke to the Tabor City Rotar teen-aged boys and a 23-yearllub here Monday night. He old man, Horry County Police reported today.

was the guest of C. H. Pinner Campbell discussed the school County Police said Everett teaching profession and its Hayes, respected Green Sea wage scale, contrasting the farmer, and Elks Ward, State fact that North Carolina pays Line night spot operator, were much higher school teacher arrested on charges of receivsalaries than South Carolina ing stolen goods. Magistrate Terry Sanford for having the Ben P. Harrelson at Green Sea courage to face up to the eduaid Hayes had posted $1,500 cation problem in spite of op-A study course, "Hands A- bond and Ward bond of $500, position, Campbell also noted that all good teachers are underon. Others present were: Mrs. ted the series of thefts were free on bond: James Buddy paid and all poor teachers are verpaid."

Raben, 23, of Bayboro, free on $2,000 bond, and McArthar He said that many teacher ved the job so well that they Bullard, 19, of Rt. 1. Loris. yould almost teach for nothing but noted that few young free under $3,000 band people in South Carolina ar Still in jail pending the entering the teaching profesposting of bond and the sion because of the low pay amount of bond required, polscale ice mid, were Leamon Junior President Ben L. Nesmith Human life is a constant Floyd, 18, Rt. 3, Nichols, want and ought to be a con-stant prayer. -Samuel Osecod 17, of Loris $5,000 -Samuel Osecod 17, of Loris $5,000 announced that next tary Friend X'es.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA

Reverend P. H. Layfield has innounced that the annual annual Christmas Cantata will be held at 7:30 Sunday evening at St. Paul Methodist Church, "His Came Shall Be Called Jesus" will be presented by the chur-ch choir. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Todd of Chadbourn were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith. Ed Dennis of Clarkton was isiting in Tabor City on business Friday.

The Post Office will be open each Wednesday and Saturday afternoon from now until Christmas, according to Postmaster Rich-ard Gordon. He urges everyone to mail early to avoid last minute rush and possible delays.

-Samuel Osgood 17, of Loris, $5,000.