Four Horry Beaches Considering Merger

Freeholders of four towns along Horry county's Grand Strand will soon be asked to call an election on the proposed annexation - merger of Windy Hill, Atlantic Beach, Crescent Beach and Ocean Drive.

If 51 percent of the freeholders approve such an election, one will be called for the purpose of merging three beaches into a single city. All qualified voters will be permitted to cast ballots in the election.

Crescent Beach would serve as the center of the operation and its town government would prevail until a body of new officials could be named for the new city.

There would be two wards with two councilmen each for Windy Hill, Crescent and Ocean Drive. The Atlantic Beach ward would name one councilman. The mayor of the new city would be named at large.

He side-dressed the cotton with 160 pounds of nitrate of soda and 100 pounds of muriate of potash.
