VOL. I NO. 7

SYLVA, N. C., JANUARY 10, 1913

$1.00 THE YEAR IN ADVANCE

FORM CLAY COUNTY.

Hayesville, Clay Co., N. C.
To The Jackson County Journal:
If you will allow me a little space in your paper I will write a few lines, as I used to be a Jackson county girl.

I take the Journal and enjoy reading the letters from all over the county almost as much as I enjoy a letter from home. The first thing I do when I get the Journal is to look for the letters. If I find a letter from Speedwell or Norton, I enjoy them so much; so I hope more will write to the Journal.

Christmas is all over and everything went off nicely out here. We had a little Christmas tree at a neighbor's home, for the little folks. The little tree was loaded with toys of all kinds, candy, oranges and apples. The children were all made happy. It was grand to see the little folks when Santa Claus came from behind the tree that was so loaded with nice things for them, they all screamed out for joy. So we had a jolly time with them, and the old folks enjoyed it as much as the kids. I have one little girl, 4 years old, and she asks me almost every day to "write old Santa Claus a letter to come back again."

Wishing the Journal and its readers a happy new year,

VILLIE SHEARER.

CULLOWHEE OPENS.

Cullowhee, N. C., January 7, 1913.
The Cullowhee Normal and Industrial School began the Spring term under most favorable conditions. There was an increase on the first day of about 50 per cent over that of the Fall term. The total for the year will probably reach 200.

There is not a finer body of students anywhere. Almost all are young men and women of character and purpose, with high aims and ideals. Jackson county should be proud of this institution within her midst and of the prospects for a still greater one in the near future.

DRINKS GASOLINE BREATH IGNITES.

News and Observer.

Capt. T. W. Davis drank what he thought was water Sunday, lit his cigar, blew the smoke, and the ignition of his breath told him the first he knew of his mistake. He had swallowed gasoline.

Captain Davis is not seriously sick as the result of the wrong beverage. But he has suffered somewhat. He was full of cold and neither tasted nor smelled one of the vilest of liquids. Thinking that water glass had water only, he swallowed the contents Sunday afternoon and striking the match for his cigar, he was horrified to see a blaze before him. The smell of gasoline, the fumes and the suffocation following gave him the paleness of death, but he had put the fire out with no damage worse than the overcoming. His face was not blistered nor is there any anger of blood poisoning.

Last night Captain Davis was somewhat improved at his home on South Dawson street. He still feels the effects of a mistake which took a most unusual turn.

HOW TO STAVE OFF A GOOD JOB.

Long about this time year lotso fellers taka noshun in their heads that they either get a job or change their occupashun. A great many rules have been laid down an lotso informashun given on how to get a job, but I aint ever heard anybody tell how to keep from getn one, so Im gonto tell how to do so myself.

First place, the feller wantn to keep from getn a good job ougho give up the one hes got an loaf. There are mighty few loafers that get desirable places. Everybody hates a quitter.

Secondly, tell your prospective employer that youca do anything—dont care what—an that youll be ready to start in a coupla weeks. The boss knows that the man who can do "anything" can do nothing very well; hes lookin for somebody with atleast a smatrin of experience whoen pitch right in with his coat off an his sleeves rolled up.

Next place; hang out lots at the pool rooms. Come to think about it, how many substantial, respectable, successful men have you ever heard of bein in a pool room, let alone goin there to hire somebody?

Again; be "one of the boys" by joinin a Booze Club. There aint a successful firm in the country that employ a feller who carries booze on his breath. Their aint many that takem with cigarette stains on their fingers. The fine-lookin, "manly" fellers whoen swear by note aint in danger very much either of getn a good job hooked toem.

Another useful innoculashun against good jobs is that chronic inflickshun of mindin other fokses business. People who do much of that pretty soon dont have any of their own to mind.—By "Rizo" in THE RALEIGH TIMES.

PEOPLE SHOULD GUARD AGAINST APPENDICITIS

Sylva people who have stomach and bowel trouble should guard against appendicitis by taking simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-i-ka, the German remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY because this simple mixture antisepticizes the digestive organs, and draws off the impurities—Sylva Pharmacy.

PIKES PEAK NOT THE HIGHEST.

What is the highest mountain in Colorado? "Pikes Peak," an ineteen persons out of twenty will answer incorrectly. The twentieth may know that the two highest mountains in the State are Mount Massive and Mount Elbert, both in Lake County, in the Leadville district. The altitude of each of these mountains, according to the United States Geological Survey, is 14,402 feet above sea level. The height of Pikes Peak is 14,108 feet. Moreover, there are fifty or sixty other peaks in Colorado approximately as high—over 14,000 feet. The lowest point in Colorado has the highest average altitude, estimated by the Geological Survey at 6,800 feet.

Although not the highest mountain, Pikes Peak is probably the best known peak in the United States. There was at one time a Weather Bureau station on its summit, and it now has a substantial railway station at the terminus of the highest railway line in North America. It can also be reached by an excellent wagon road and trail which connect the summit Colorado Springs.

MESSER IMPROVING

Asheville Citizen Jan. 8

Walter Messer, who was seriously injured in an accident on the South end several days ago at Waynesville is still at the Mission hospital but Dr. A. T. Prichard who has been attending the patient stated yesterday that he is recovering rapidly. The wounds borne by Mr. Messer at the time that the train passed over his body will keep him in the hospital for some time but there is a good chance for his recovery, according to his physician's statement last night.

NEW BANKS

More than $16,000,000 added to the banking capital of the Southern States by 303 new institutions formed during 1912 according to figures compiled by the Southern Bankers.

The distribution of new Banks and capital by states was:

Alabama	21	$468,200
Florida	46	$2,503,000
Georgia	54	$2,640,000
Kentucky	14	$500,000
Louisiana	16	$850,000
Mississippi	8	$193,650
North Carolina	25	$965,260
South Carolina	44	$1,114,000
Tennessee	46	$3,440,000
Virginia	27	$3,245,000

SENATOR HEISKELL.

Governor George W. Dougherty appointed Editor John N. Heiskell of the Arkansas Gazette of this city United States to succeed the late Jeff Davis.

The appointment is for the short term ending March 4.

T. M. Mason and family of Dillsboro are here.—Cherokee Scout.

Dr. C. Z. Candler, of Dillsboro, accompanied by his family arrived, arrived Friday to make Murphy their future home and will occupy the residence opposite Mayor Deeweese.—Cherokee Scout.

FURNITURE FACTORY FOR DILLSBORO.

It is reported, with some foundation, that Dillsboro is to have a new furniture factory in the near future.

The buildings are to be erected on the ground where the livery stables and other buildings were burned last spring. Messrs. J. J. and T. M. Mason are reported as being the managers of the new enterprise and it is known that lumber is being hauled and other preparation are being made for building up on this site.

There is no reason why this and other enterprises of like character can not be made a howling success in this county as we have the hardwoods and the waterpower.

The report of this enterprise has become currant in business circles here and it is generally believed that it is true.

WINTER BOOKLET.

Jan. 7.—The new winter booklet of the Greater Western North Carolina association is now off the press and is a handsome publication of 84 pages, attractively illustrated with photographs of scenes, hotels and private residences throughout the section. The reading matter is comprehensive and the whole is considered by those who have seen it to be the most attractive booklet ever published for distribution in advertising western North Carolina.

The decorations on the front cover page of the booklet are very artistic and attractive. In the background is a mountain scene with a motor scene, in the foreground. This is surrounded by six panels showing trout fishing, canoeing, golfing, tennis, horse back riding and water falls. A cluster of delicious looking western North Carolina apples is shown at the top. The whole is executed in colors and this coloring is in the natural shade. The back cover is like the frontispiece used on the summer booklet, showing a majestic mountain range in the background and two horseback riders gathering rhododen in the foreground.

On the first pages of the booklet appear scenes from all over the section with accompanying reading matter telling of the beauty of the whole. This is followed by golfing scenes on the links of the Asheville Country Club and a full description links here and at other points in western North Carolina. This article on golf occupies a prominent position and considerable space in the booklet.

The various cities and towns of the section are then considered separately, Asheville being given first place. The leading hotels here and in other towns are shown in the pictures under the proper headings. The general view of the hotel is given on one page, while on the opposite page appear three photographs of the interior, the lobby, dining room and a bed room.

In the back of the booklet there is a list of all the hotels and boarding houses of the section, the accommodation for guests and prices charged. One important detail which has been added to this for the winter booklet is the kind of heat which each place uses. The section is not advertised, however merely as a winter resort but as an all-year-round resort.

There is also some space given to a consideration of the opportunities offered to permanent settlers in lines of horticulture and agriculture.—GAZETTE NEWS.

LEGISLATURE OFFICERS.

News Observer.

Jan. 7.—In the caucus of Democratic members of the House tonight, the principal matter will be the selection of the democratic candidate for Speaker. This nominee will be the Speaker, and the representatives whose names will be presented to the caucus are George W. Connor, of Wilson; E. M. Koonce of Onslow, and J. Frank Ray of Franklin.

And the man who gets the majority of votes tonight will take charge of the House. It is now up to the winners to pick the winner, if they have not already done so.

We Have With Us.

The candidate who is presenting cards, and shaking hands with Senators and House members, so far as known are here set forth.

In the Senate branch they are:

Reading Clerk, R. M. Phillips, of Greensboro. It has been understood that Mark Squires of Lenoir, would be a candidate, but last night Lieutenant-Governor W. C. Newland received a telegram from Mr. Squires, saying he was not a candidate.

Principal Clerk—R. Otis Self of Webster, and W. H. Baine of Newbern.

Engrossing Clerk—W. Hooks of Fayetteville; Nicholas Deboy, of Raleigh; W. M. Russel of Durham; W. H. Wathington, of Greensboro; B. F. Perry, of Perquimans; B. H. Jones, of Forsyth; and T. H. Woodley, of Cleveland.

In the House the candidates are understood to be:

Principal Clerk—T. G. Cobb, of Morganton.

Reading Clerk—W. W. Wilson of Raleigh.

Engrossing Clerk—M. D. Kinsland of Waynesville; W. H. Howell, of Montgomery.

Sergeant-at-Arms—D. L. Jones, of Scotland Neck; J. H. Moring of Morrisville.

There may be others, possibly there are, but this is the list as it is known at present. Tonight will bring results.

For the Inauguration.

Preparations in Raleigh go on apace for the inauguration of Hon. Locke Craig as governor on Wednesday January 15. The Senate and House will undoubtedly after convening name committee to look after this. The Raleigh committees are busily at work preparing for the inauguration and will meet at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the office of the mayor. A big crowd is expected for the inauguration, and Lieutenant-Governor E. L. Daughtridge says that he looks for the greatest crowd of the past twenty-five years. Special railroad rates have been arranged for all who may come, and the military rate is one cent a mile. Inauguration day will be a big one in Raleigh.

Later.—Hon. Geo. W. Connor, of Wilson, was unanimously chosen speaker of the house, E. M. Koonce withdrawing and J. Frank Ray of Macon moving that the election of Mr. Connor be made unanimous. T. G. Cobb of Lenoir was selected as principal clerk of the house and Alfred McLean, of Harnett was chosen as reading clerk, he receiving 61 votes in the caucus, to 35 for W. W. Wilson of Wake; J. H. Waring of Wake, was elected sergeant-at-arms, and E. J. Jenkins was chosen as his assistant. M. D. Kinsland of Haywood was re-elected as engrossing clerk.

Senator Pharr, of Mecklenburg, was chosen president pro tem of the senate and W. A. Hooks was made engrossing clerk, and W. S. Hall, Cumberland, was made sergeant-at-arms of that body, with Geo. W. Hinsley chosen as his assistant; R. M. Phillips, of the Greensboro News was elected reading clerk of the Senate and R. O. Self of Jackson is the principal clerk of the Senate.
