

PIEDMONT S. C.

Dear Editor—As I am a constant reader of your most valuable paper and have a lot of friends that read the Journal I would like to tell them a little about Piedmont S. C. a mill town on the Southern railroad in the suburb of Greenville one of the most successful mill towns in the South, and Piedmont is one of the best mills if not the very best in the State, as I have looked over a large number of them. Our President is a high toned christian gentleman,

He takes a great deal of pains to provide his people with every need to up build them. We have four large churches which are well attended, a large opera house Y. W. C. A. for our girls, and a Lyceum building for the boys, which are kept up by the Company.

Mr. Buchanan is our Supt., and one of the best men I ever met, kind and good to his men, and we have a good set of overseers through out the mill, if any one of my friends is thinking of moving to the mill, they will not make a mistake in coming to Piedmont.

Yours Very Truly,
T. C. Pressley.

FOURTH CLASS POSTMASTER EXAMINATION

Saturday, February 8, 1913.
The United States Civil Service Commission announces that on the date named above an examination will be held at Webster, N. C., at a result of which it is expected to make certification to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of fourth class postmaster of class [a] at Dillsboro, and other vacancies as they may occur at that office, unless it shall be decided in the interests of the service to fill the vacancy by reinstatement. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $532 for the last fiscal year.

Age limit, 21 years and over on the date of the examination, with the exception that in a State where women are declared by statute to be of full age for all purposes at 18 years, women 18 years of age on the date of the examination will be admitted. Applicants must reside within the territory supplied by the post office for which the examination is announced. The examination is open to all citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements.

Application forms and full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the postmaster at Dillsboro or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Applications should be properly executed and filed with the Commission at Washington within 7 days before the date of the examination, otherwise it may be impracticable to examine the applicants.
