SPEEDWELL

The Jackson County Singing Convention will hold its January session in the court house in Webster next Saturday and Sunday Jan. 18 and 19: Date given in last weeks Journal being a mistake.

The Cullowhee High School is progressing nicely with about 150 students in attendance, with a strong faculty of teachers.

The boys and girls of Western North Carolina should avail themselves of the opportunity of attending this school. Cullowhee High School is located in the beautiful Cullowhee Valley 8 miles from the railroad, away from the many attractions that tend to carry the mind of the student away from their books.

It would be wise for the city people missed. to put their boys and girls in school in the country, away from the noise and bustle of the city. The writer is of the opinion, that if the boys and girls were educated in the country schools, they would be more inclined to become citizens of the country.

The Rev. Abernathy of the Cullowhee High School preached on excellent sermon at Speedwell on the the first Sunday.

When the Pictorial Review began publication of the "Love Letters of a Confederate General," there was considerable comment and speculation as to who was the author. The Pictorial Rewiew has now published the author'r name. They were written by Major-General, George E. Pickett. With permission we copy an extract from one of these letters:

Upon Hearing of the Birth of the "LITTLE GENERAL."

"God bless you, little Mother of our boy-bless and keep you. Heaven in all its glory shine upon you; Eden's flowers bloom eternal for you. Almost with every breath since the message came, relieving my anxiety and telling me that my darling lived and that a little baby had been born to us, I have been a baby myself. Though I have known all these months that from across Love's enchanted land this little child was on the way to our twin souls, now that God's promise has been fulfilled and it has come, I can't believe it. As I think of it, I feel the stir of Paradise in my senses, and my spirit goes up in thankfulness to God for this, His highest and best-the one perfect flower in the garden of life-Love.

Blinding tears rolled down my cheeks, my sweetheart, as I read the glad tidings. And a feeling so new, so strange, came over me that I asked of the angels what it could be and whence came the strains of celestial music which filled my soul, and what were the great, grand, stirring hosannas and the soft, tender ,sweet adagios that circle around and around, warmed my every vein, beat my every pulse. And-oh, little Mother of my boy-the echoing answer came -"A little baby has been born to you, and he and the new-born Motner live."

I wanted to fly to you both, kneel at your bedside, take your hand and his little hand in mine and lift our hearts in thankfulness to the Heavenly Throne. But when I applied to the great Tyee for a pass to Richmond, saying, "My son was born this morning," he replied, "Your country was born almost a hundred years ago." It was the first word of reproach Marse Robert ever spoke to me; but he was right and I was reckless to ask. Things may be quieter tomorrow, sweetheart, perhaps even tonight, and I may be able to come in for an hour I must not write another word. though I want to write on and on and send messages and kisses to the little baby and caution its Mother to be careful and to tell her she is ten thousaand more times precious than ever, but I know I must not."

Lovingly and forever and ever Your Soldier. July 17th, 1964-Our boy's birthday. Blessed Day.
