IMPORTANCE TO YOU.

MARTIN, ROLLINS & WRIGHT
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

April 22, 1913.

Mr. A. J. Dills, Secty.
Sylva, N. C.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your inquiry relating to the new court house at Marshall, in Madison county, I beg to state that it is one of the best in Western North Carolina. Almost every judge who has held court at Marshall for the past several years has complimented the people there upon having such a nice, new convenient court house within which to transact the public's business. The people of Madison county now take a great deal of pride in the new court house and it has seemed to stimulate everybody and the county has gone forward more rapidly since the new court house was built than it did before. In my opinion there is no county in the State in greater need of a new court house than Jackson County, and I feel sure that every judge who has held court in Jackson during the past several years will concur with me in this opinion.

Very truly yours,

A. J. Dills, Esq., Secty.
Sylva, N. C.

Dear Sir:

In reply to an inquiry which has been submitted to me, I beg to say that I have appeared in cases several times in recent years in the new court-house, at Marshall, N. C., and, that, in my judgment, said court-house is one of the very best in Western North Carolina, in fact its acoustic properties are much superior to those of our own court-house here at Asheville.

The main court room, at Marshall, is a fine auditorium and is comfortable and convenient in every respect for bench, bar and spectators; and the offices in the building, occupied by county officials, are satisfactory in every way so far as I have been able to learn. On the whole, I should say that the money represented in the erection of the court-house at Marshall, has been well spent, and that for any county in this section of the state, no larger than Madison, the general style of the court-house at Marshall could be safely and even profitably followed. I believe no valid objections could be lodged against such a building for such a county.

Respectfully yours,
