

JOSEPH H. MOODY.

Joseph Moody was born in Haywood County on Jonathan's Creek March 27, 1839. When he was very small his father moved to Waynesville where he died when his son was three years old. His mother moved to Alabama; there she died when her son was only thirteen years old. The boy there lived some time with an uncle, after which he was brought back to Haywood.

At the age of nineteen he was married to Miss Arty D. Crawford, sister to uncle "Jimmy" Crawford of Sylva.

They made their home at Balsam for about twelve years, then moved to Barkers Creek. They raised three children—Ellen, Dovie and Lillie.

Here his wife died July 11, 1884. Later he married Miss Sara J. Brown who survives him. Bro. Moody died April 8, 1913, at the age of seventy four years.

He served in the civil war about two years, and was in several important battles, one being the seven days fight at Richmond. Here he received a wound which resulted in the loss of a finger. He served all the time as drummer; they say he was one of the best. He was captured and taken to prison.

He professed faith in Christ and joined the Shady Grove Baptist Church, near Barker's Creek, at the age of thirty two years. He served as Deacon of the church for about twenty years. The Baptist Church at Barker's Creek passed through a critical period about twenty, or twenty-five years ago, but "Joe" Moody was one of those strong men who could not be tossed two and fro by every wind of doctrine. He lived to see his church in a prosperous condition. He did his part to bring about the church prosperity.

He leaves two children, Mrs. Ellen Elders, and Mrs. Dovie Elders Mrs. Lillie Green has been dead for several years. He has twenty grand children and twenty-four great grand children. His name will ever be an honor to them, Jackson County had no better citizen. Has not had. His whole life as a christian has been a testimony to the power of God. He was a man of peace. Showed great wisdom in settling disputes among neighbors. He never had a suit in court in his life. The preacher and the teacher found a welcome in his home. In fact none were denied its hospitality.

He was deeply interested in the cause of education, and served as a school committeeman for a number of years. He was a wise leader and a prosperous man. His people believed in him.

As we stood on the top of the hill at Barker's Creek Grave yard, read the Word, preached, sang, prayed and wept, our faith in the old Gospel was strengthened. Some of us felt as if that hill top were a suburb of the city of God, and the angels wouldn't have far to come on the resurrection morning.

May God move and strengthen all his children.
