EAST LAPORTE

Dear Editor—Having been absent from your valuable paper for some time I promise to continue writing afterwards.

We have had several rains that are considered worth thousands of dollars to our crops after a long period of drouth. The farmers are now busy plowing and hoeing corn.

We all regret to hear of the illness of Mr. Manuel Wike who is very low and is not expected to live many days. He is well beloved by all who know him one of the best farmers in this section. He has been a cripple ever since he was a boy and is a good citizen.

Mr. Bob Moore took dinner with Mr. J. E. Tritt and family last Thursday.

Mrs. Hattie Bailey and children who made their home here for several months have moved back to Madison where they expect to run a boarding house. Our loss is Madison's gain.

Mr. Hix Wike and Miss Avie Woodard took dinner with Mr. Jack Wike Sunday week.

SPEEDWELL.

The farmers of Speedwell are looking forward to a bumper crop of every thing this season, except the fruit crop which is almost a failure.

The prospect for a good wheat crop is fine, and the people are working hard on the other crops, for they know they know that they know they must do their part if they reap an abundant harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bennett from Florida are visiting relatives and friends at Speedwell.

Miss Temie Clouse is visiting her father's family for a few days.

Wm. Farmer of Qualla made flying trip to Speedwell last week.
