DILLSBORO.

Mrs. J. P. Jarrett, Capt. W. A. Enloe and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Leatherwood have all been taking in the Junaluska Assembly for the past few days.

Rev. J. F. Price, who once lived here and now of Georgiana, Ala, stopped off to see the folks for a day.

S. W. Enloe has returned home after an absence of a couple of couple of weeks.

Mr. Gunter and wife of Sunburst are visiting the family of G. M. Green.

J. H. Everett of Bryson City, stopped over for a day, in passing to Franklin.

C. B. Allison will move into his new store house within a few days where he will be prepared to take care of his many friends and customers with an up-to-date line of merchandise.

C. M. Dills and wife of Asheville, coming over in their automobile found no difficulty in running their machine except the loose rocks in the road.

Mr. J. M. Parris, who has been quite sick, is able to come over to town once more.

Street improvement is being made by cleaning the streets and mowing the grass.

Our road committee has ordered that the road up to the Harris bridge be put in perfect repair. This looks good to us.

Just one word to the wise: We have more water at Dillsboro than Lake Junaluska will ever have and it has cost us nothing. Waynesville has spent $100,000 to do less than nature has done for us. Why don't we take advantage of this and make Dillsboro the best summer resort in western North Carolina?

Miss Ashe of Franklin and Misses Owen of Tennessee are visiting Mrs. P. W. Kincaid.

Mrs. R. G. Hunt of Balsam is visiting her uncle, C. J. Harris.

L. M. Lewis has made wonderful improvements on his store and a meat market.

Many of the folks have wilted under this summer's sun, but nothing serious.

The dam at the electric light plant gave way this week, which leaves us without lights for a few nights.

We have it from good authority that work will commence at once on the dam across the Tuckasegee river, at the Harris Keller mills, which will give Dillsboro a large power plant and possibly some other enterprises.

July fourth is to be celebrated at Dillsboro. Let everybody come and bring your basket of dinner and let all have a big time; ball, swimming races and other amusements, besides Prof. Dean will deliver an able address.

THE CRITIC.

During the summer months mothers or young children should watch for any unnatural looseness of the bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.
