EAST LAPORTE

The month of June just past was distinguished for its extremes of cold and hot weather. Local showers have been favorable to the growth of corn. Wheat harvest is over. July brings us a promise of fine weather and bright prospects for corn.

A number of young people of this section contemplate participating in the Singing Convention at Balsam Grove on the 3rd Sunday. Let's make the day a great success.

Prof. A. C. Reynolds and wife, of Cullowhee, were up visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wike and Miss Ella Wike Friday afternoon. These visitors are most welcome up here and we hope they will come again.

To our great joy Mrs. M. W. Brown of Chattanooga, Tenn, arrived Sunday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tritt, and expects to spend the rest of the summer, enjoying the invigorating mountain breezes. She spent the past season in Alabama where her husband is foreman of bridge construction works, and found that the hot weather did not agree with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Moody of Charleston, S. C., are spending some time with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Moody.

We regret to state the death of one of our most respectable farmers Mr. Manuel Wike. He suffered with tuberculosis for four months and died last Sunday night and was buried Sunday. We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Misses Grace and Lizzie Zachary of Caney Fork spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tritt Saturday.

A number of young people spent the day most pleasantly Sunday at the home of J. H. Moody.

H. C. Brendall was over at the home of his aunt, Miss Ella Wike, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. M. E. Tritt expects to go up the river to Big Ridge this week to visit her sister, Mrs. Sarah Hooper. She will be accompanied by her niece, Miss Hattie Wike.

J. E. Tritt went to Webster on business Monday.

Will Dillard, of Kilgore, one of our most popular county commissioners, was seen passing through our town Sunday on his way to Webster.

John Norton is spending his vacation in Canada, trying his luck in catching the "speckled beauties" and will return home before long.

Misses Annie Jackson and Bessie Wike, accompanied by Messrs. Walter and Albert Jackson, went to the fork of the river Sunday and reported a most enjoyable trip.

BLUE EYES.

The children of the Oxford Orphanage Singing Class illustrate the work that is being done, and to hear them is the next best thing to a visit to the Institution.
