BLUE EYES.

BALSAM GROVE.

The revival meeting which has been held at Brasstown, closed last Friday. This meeting was one of the best revivals that has been here for some time. It was conducted at first by Rev. Lawrence Crawford; later he was assisted by Rev. Floyd Cook. The meeting closed after two weeks' preaching. There were 40 professions. They arranged to have the baptizing at 10 o'clock Sunday. They baptized 13. Others will be baptized later. After the baptizing the people assembled at the Balsam Grove school house where Rev. Crawford preached a sermon which was eagerly listened to by all. Crawford will preach at Brasstown the 4th Sunday in this month. Rev. J. H. Owen came from Canada after the meeting closed Friday to assist in the revival.

Mr. Jefferson Hooper went over Asheville Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hooper visited at John Walton's Sunday night Miss Fay Zachary was up from Moses Creek Sunday.

Mr. Willard Wike of Tuckaseegee was in town Sunday.

Mr. J. M. Rogers has moved his saw mill from John's Creek to Brasstown.

I was glad to hear of a successful bear hunt last week. Quite a number of men went out to the Balsam mountains last Monday to hunt. Tuesday they made a drive through under the top of the Balsam mountains. About 1:30 they found track of one; very soon all the standers were at their places on top of the Balsam mountain. Nelson Wood and Calbey Jones turned the dogs loose, and soon the fight began. After an hours' fight Calbey Jones shot and killed the bear on the Oak Ridge. They all guessed that the bear would weigh 500 pounds, it was the biggest bear that has been killed in these mountains in a number of years.

Quite a number of people will go out into the jungles this week to hunt bear. The writer will go along too.

Mr. Garland Wood was in town from Sunburst Saturday.

The writer had the opportunity of visiting the John's Creek school Friday evening. I am glad to say they have organized a society there.
They had a society meet at Friday afternoon. Believe me they certainly have some fine speakers. I think every school should have some kind of a society.
