NOTICE
By virtue of the power in me vested and contained in a certain deed in trust to me executed by the R. G. Hunt Lumber Company, on April 30th, 1900, conveying to me the property therein described to secure certain indebtedness of the said R. G. Hunt Lumber Company, to the Boice Lumber Company therein set out, which deed in trust was duly recorded in book No. 4, pages 877
etc. records of deeds of trust and mortgages of Jackson Co., N. C., on May 1st 1900, and to which deed in trust and record of the same reference is hereby made for a full description of the property therein conveyed, and for the terms and conditions thereof, and full particulars, default having been made by the said R. G. Hunt Lumber Company in the payment of said indebtedness, and having been requested by The Champion Fiber Company, the present holder of said indebtedness, as assignee of the said Boice Lumber Company to expose the property conveyed in deed in trust to sale to satisfy said indebtedness, I will offer for sale at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash at the Court-house door in the town of Webster, Jackson County, N. C., at one o'clock P. M., on Monday, Jan. 12th, 1914, the following described property to wit.

All the timber standing lying and being in and upon the tract of land known as the Mead or Peters and Burr boundary of land on the head waters of Dark Ridge Branch of Scott's Creek in Jackson Co. N. C., containing 4025 acres more or less, together with all woods, flumes, and other property of the said R. G. Hunt Lumber Company in and upon said boundary of land. Also all locomotives, cars and equipment and railroad leases, rights of way, and all property heretofore used by the R. G. Hunt Lumber Company in its timber and wood operations in and near Balsam Gap, also the equities of the R. G. Hunt Lumber Company under the contract of lease of rails on the tram road and other equipment, leased by the Southern Railway Company to R. G. Hunt or the R. G. Hunt Lumber Company, and all equities of R. G. Hunt, or R. G. Hunt Lumber Company under a contract made by them or either of them with the Climax Manufacturing Company of Oerry, Pa. for locomotive, or Climax engine operated on said railroad as well as all leasehold estates, rights of way etc, heretofore used by the said R. G. Hunt Lumber Company in its timber and wood operations in and Near Balsam Gap, N. C. Also the stock of goods of the said R. G. Hunt Lumber Company in its store at Balsam Gap, and any and all other property conveyed by R. G. Hunt, or the R. G. Hunt Lumber Company to the undersigned by the deed in trust aforesaid. This Dec. 10th, 1913.
