

DIX CREEK.

The death of little Garrett Turpin occurred May 4th, 1914. On last Monday evening at seven o'clock the death angel visited the home of Mr. Jim Turpin and took from our little seven year old son Garrett. He was loved by all who knew him. There is a vacant place in the home that never can be filled. But we feel that our loss is his eternal gain. We bow in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well.

He was sick only three days. He leaves a father and mother, one little sister, Lila, and one little brother, Jervis, and a grandmother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Our greatest sympathy goes out to the bereaved ones. The services were conducted by Brother Lem Gibson, after which his remains were laid to rest in the Dix Creek cemetery Wednesday, May 6th.

He has to Canaan's shore to dwell forever more. May we be ready when our summons come.

To meet him on that bright shore Where sad partings come never come never more.

The death angel came and took from the home of Mr. C. C. Green his little daughter Maza. She was two months and one day old. She was laid to rest in the Barker's Creek cemetery.

Sunday school was organized here today.

Mr. Bob Griggs has returned from Asheville.

Miss May Howell of Whittier is visiting her uncle, Jim Turpin, at this place. A READER.
